In this new memoir Edwards turns the spotlight on herself chronicling her 20 year exile from the United States from the 1950s until the early 1970s. After working for MGM as a junior writer Edwards sold two original screenplays and was employed as a story editor on a television program. An attack of polio left her physically compromised and struggling to make ends meet so the divorced mother of two left her homeland to find work in Europe. After arriving in London she was able to find writing jobs under an assumed name along with her expatriated colleagues. Leaving Home is a personal story about a young mother and her two small children but it is also about the many famous and not so famous people whose lives intertwined with theirs: Judy Garland, John Garfield, Rod Serling, Norman Mailer, Greta Garbo and several others. This is an intimate story of a woman who refused to be subdued by her circumstances and determined to rebuild her life in the wake of McCarthyism. It is also a story about a woman who found and lost love and will appeal to any readers wanting to learn more about Hollywood history during one of its darkest periods.
