Haunting Time:

Haunting Futures Marek Pawlak, 2024-12-01 The 2008 economic collapse in Iceland sent its residents into a destabilising crisis with far reaching temporal and affective consequences Haunting Futures explores how the complex relationships of this unstable past and the anticipatory modes of the ongoing present keep Icelanders and the Polish migrant community in their midst alert to looming futures in crisis It offers insights into timely crisis ridden impacts and imaginings migration processes and social understandings and practices Through its attention to how people engage with crisis temporally and affectively the book presents the crisis not simply as an isolated and distressing event but as a spectre embodied in time through ongoing anticipation

The Spectral Within Elena Miltiadis, 2025-10-01 Latina was founded in 1932 by the Fascist Regime and is often described by its inhabitants through its absences as a place where there is nothing The book examines the role of absence in place making and delves into the lived experience of Latina Through the analytical lens of haunting this work explores its inhabitants efforts to see their city as a meaningful social space as they navigate the city s multiple histories and the absent presence of the contested past

REAL GHOST STORIES...That You Haven't Heard A Million Times Before... UFO Guy, 2012-05-22 I began investigating UFOs and the Paranormal in High School I started an afterschool club for extra credit which began immensely popular Almost from Day One people wanted to tell me their stories of encounters with the unexplained I wasn't really ready for this and it kind of freaked me out but at the same time I was intrigued I gathered a small group of students and teachers together and we started investigating some of the claims that came our way Although I have held jobs completely unrelated to paranormal investigations I kept on with it as a hobby and eventually started speaking about it in meetings throughout the USA and Canada I got the name The UFO Guy because of all the radio interviews I started doing DJs and Radio Personalities listed me as The UFO Guy on their bulletin boards and online sites as a good guest to have on when it comes to the unexplained

Paranormal Hauntings Magazine charlene lowe kemp, Welcome to the PARANORMAL HAUNTINGS Magazine issue 2 In this issue we look in the Famous Haunting of The White Lady Give you the sites to check out to spot the Ghosts that stem from Jack the Ripper case and look at some Strange but TRUE tales from around the world Victorian Hauntings Julian Wolfreys, 2017-03-14 Victorian Hauntings asks its reader to consider the following questions What does it mean to read or write with ghosts or to suggest that acts of reading or writing are haunted In what ways can authors in the nineteenth century be read so as to acknowledge the various phantom effects which return within their texts In what ways do the traces of such ghost writing surface in the works of Dickens Tennyson Eliot and Hardy How does the work of spectrality revenance and the uncanny transform materially both the forms of the literary in the Victorian era and our reception of it today Beginning with an exploration of matters of haunting the uncanny the gothic and the spectral Julian Wolfreys traces the ghostly resonances at work in Victorian writing and how such persistence addresses issues of memory and responsibility which haunt the work of reading Taking the familiar genre of the Gothic as a point of departure and revisiting it through Derridean theory Wolfreys book the first application of hauntology to the domain of Victorian Studies is a remarkable achievement Wolfreys never reduces reading to instrumentality but remains alert to all the potentialities of the texts he reads with a great attention to their idiosyncrasies Victorian Hauntings should bring a new tone to Victorian Studies this clever book is quite perfect Jean Michel Rabate Professor of English University of Pennsylvania You'd have to be dead to know more about ghosts than Julian Wolfreys Martin McQuillan University of Leeds Burnout in Women Physicians Cynthia M. Stonnington, Julia A Files, 2020-06-15 This book is the first to dissect the factors contributing to burnout that impact women physicians and seeks to appropriately address these issues The book begins by establishing the differences in epidemiology between female physicians and their male counterparts including rates of burnout depression and suicide chosen fields caregiving responsibilities at home career tradeoffs in dual physician marriages patient satisfaction and outcomes academic rank leadership positions salary and turnover The second part of the book explores the drivers of physician burnout that disproportionately affect women each chapter beginning with a case vignette This section covers many issues that often go unrecognized including unconscious bias sexual harassment gender role conflicts domestic responsibilities depression addiction financial stress and the impact related to reproductive health such as pregnancy and breastfeeding The book concludes by focusing on strategies to prevent and/or mitigate burnout among individual women physicians across the career lifespan This section also includes recommendations to change the culture of medicine and the systems that contribute to burnout Burnout in Women Physicians is an excellent resource for physicians across all specialties who are concerned with physician wellness and burnout including students residents fellows and attending physicians Humanities for the Environment Joni Adamson, Michael Davis, 2016-11-10 Humanities for the Environment or HfE is an ambitious project that from 2013-2015 was funded by a generous grant from the Andrew W Mellon Foundation. The project networked universities and researchers internationally through a system of observatories. This book collects the work of contributors networked through the North American, Asia Pacific and Australia Pacific observatories. Humanities for the Environment showcases how humanists are working to integrate knowledges from diverse cultures and ontologies and pilot new constellations of practice that are moving beyond traditional contemplative or reflective outcomes. The book is the essay towards solutions to the greatest social and environmental challenges of our time. With the still controversial concept of the Anthropocene as a starting point for a widening conversation, contributors range across geographies, ecosystems, climates and weather regimes, moving from icy melting Arctic landscapes to the bleaching Australian Great Barrier Reef and from an urban pedagogical laboratory in Phoenix, Arizona to Vatican City in Rome. Chapters explore the ways in which humanists in collaboration with communities and disciplines across academia are responding to warming oceans, disappearing islands, collapsing fisheries, evaporating reservoirs of water, exploding bushfires and spreading radioactive contamination. This interdisciplinary work will be of great interest to scholars in the humanities, social sciences and sciences interested in interdisciplinary questions of environment and culture.

Ghost Criminology Michael Fiddler, Theo Kindynis, Travis Linnemann, 2022-01-18 Bringing together prominent early contributions from this emergent perspective, the volume traces the origins, theory, and methodology of a nascent ghost criminology. From the powers of exorcism and erasure marshaled by state agents, street-level struggles over memorialization and memory to the lingering violence of crime scenes and the ghostly traces of outlaw artists, Ghost Criminology is a book attuned to that which is well theorized in other disciplines: the spectral, hauntological, apparitional. Each of the writers assembled here shares, as Mark Fisher (2017) put it, a fascination for the outside that which lies beyond standard perception, cognition, and experience. As such, this collection uses cutting-edge social and cultural theory to tangle with some of criminology's most stubborn revenants: the politics of criminalization, the commodification of crime and violence, the haunting power of the image as well as the unheard and disregarded cries of the dead      Milton and the Early Modern Culture of Devotion Naya Tsentourou, 2017-09-08 Milton and Early Modern Devotional Culture analyses the representation of public and private prayer in John Milton's poetry and prose paying particular attention to the ways seventeenth century prayer is imagined as embodied in sounds gestures postures and emotional responses Naya Tsentourou demonstrates Milton's profound engagement with prayer and how this is driven by a consistent and ardent effort to experience one's address to God as inclusive of body and spirit and as loaded with affective potential The book aims to become the first interdisciplinary study to show how Milton participates in and challenges early modern debates about authentic and insincere worship in public set and spontaneous prayers in private and gesture and voice in devotion      Toni Morrison and the Queer Pleasure of Ghosts Juda Bennett, 2014-11-13 Toni Morrison and the Queer Pleasure of Ghosts radically intervenes in one of the most established and sacred topics in Toni Morrison scholarship love Moving beyond Morrison's representation of ghosts as the forgotten or occluded past Juda Bennett uncovers how Morrison imagines the spectral sphere as always already queer a provocation and challenge to heteronormativity with the ghost appearing as an active participant in disruptions of compulsory heterosexuality as a figure embodying closet desires or as a disembodied emanation that counterpoints homophobia From The Bluest Eye to Home Morrison's novels have included many queer ghosts that challenge our most cherished conceptions of love and speak to cultural anxieties about black sexualities gay marriage AIDS lesbian visibility and transgender identities Not surprisingly the scene stealing ghost Beloved appears at the very heart of this book but Bennett cautions against interpretative stasis inviting readers to break free of the stranglehold Beloved has had on imaginations so as not to miss the full force of Morrison's lifelong project to queer love      Gothic Queer Culture Laura Westengard, 2019-10-01 In Gothic Queer Culture Laura Westengard proposes that contemporary U S queer culture is gothic at its core Using interdisciplinary cultural studies to examine the gothicism in queer art literature and thought including ghosts embedded in queer theory shadowy crypts in lesbian pulp fiction monstrosity and cannibalism in AIDS poetry and sadomasochism in queer performance Westengard argues that during the twentieth and twenty first centuries a queer culture has emerged that challenges and responds to traumatic marginalization by creating a distinctly gothic aesthetic Gothic Queer Culture examines the material effects of marginalization exclusion and violence and explains why discourse around the complexities of genders and sexualities repeatedly returns to the gothic Westengard places this queer knowledge production within a larger framework of gothic queer culture which inherently includes theoretical texts art literature performance and popular culture By analyzing queer knowledge production alongside other forms of queer culture Gothic Queer Culture enters into the most current conversations on the state of gender and sexuality especially debates surrounding negativity anti relationalism assimilation and neoliberalism It provides a framework for understanding these debates in the context of a distinctly gothic cultural mode that acknowledges violence and insidious trauma depathologizes the association between trauma and queerness and offers a rich counterhegemonic cultural aesthetic through the circulation of gothic tropes      The Palgrave Handbook of Contemporary Gothic Clive Bloom, 2020-07-10 Simply put there is absolutely nothing on the market with the range of ambition of this strikingly eclectic collection of essays Not only is it impossible to imagine a more comprehensive view of the subject most readers even specialists in the subject will find that there are elements of the Gothic genre here of which they were previously unaware Barry Forshaw Author of British Gothic Cinema and Sex and Film The Palgrave Handbook of Contemporary Gothic is the most comprehensive compendium of analytic essays on the modern Gothic now available covering the vast and highly significant period from 1918 to 2019 The Gothic sensibility over 200 years old embraces its dark past whilst anticipating the future From demons and monsters to post apocalyptic fears and ecological fantasies Gothic is thriving as never before in the arts and in popular culture This volume is made up of 62 comprehensive chapters with notes and extended bibliographies contributed by scholars from around the world The chapters are written not only for those engaged in academic research but also to be accessible to students and dedicated followers of the genre Each chapter is packed with analysis of the Gothic in both theory and practice as the genre has mutated and spread over the last hundred years Starting in 1918 with the impact of film on the genre s development and moving through its many and varied international incarnations each chapter chronicles the history of the gothic milieu from the movies to gaming platforms and internet memes television and theatre The volume also looks at how Gothic intersects with fashion music and popular culture a multi layered multi ethnic even a trans gendered experience as we move into the twenty first century      The Selfie, Temporality, and Contemporary Photography Claire Raymond, 2021-05-09 This book is a theoretical examination of the relationship between the face identity photography and temporality focusing on the temporal episteme of selfie practice Claire Raymond investigates how the selfie s involvement with time and self emerges from capitalist ideologies of identity and time The book leverages theories from Katharina Pistor Jacques Lacan R gnvaldur Ingthorsson and Hans Belting to explore the ways in which the selfie imposes a dominant ideology on subjectivity by manipulating the affect of time The selfie is understood in contrast to the self portrait Artists discussed include James Tylor Shelley Niro Ellen Carey Graham MacIndoe and LaToya Ruby Frazier The book will be of interest to scholars working in visual culture history of photography and critical theory It will also appeal to scholars of philosophy and in particular of the intersection of aesthetic theory and theories of ontology epistemology and temporality      Horos Thea Potter, 2022-01-07 In Horos Thea Potter explores the complex relationship between classical philosophy and the horos a stone that Athenians erected to mark the boundaries of their marketplace their gravestones their roads and their private property Potter weaves this history into a meditation on the ancient philosophical concept of horos the foundational project of determination and definition arguing that it is central to the development of classical philosophy and the marketplace Horos challenges many significant interpretations of ancient thought With nuance and insight Potter combines the works of Aristotle Plato Homer and archaic Greek inscriptions with the twentieth century continental philosophy of Heidegger Derrida and Walter Benjamin The result is a powerful study of the theme of boundaries in classical Athenian society as evidenced by boundary stones law and exchange ontology insurgency and occupation The innovative book will be of interest to scholars in the fields of ancient Greek social history philosophy and literature as well as to the general reader who is curious to know more about classical life and philosophy Hauntings and Poltergeists James Houran, Rense Lange, 2015-08-13 Few people can claim the distinction of experiencing first hand such occurrences as hauntings and the presence of poltergeists but countless numbers of people are fascinated by these unexplainable events Written by the world's most knowledgeable authorities in this field the essays in this work promote a better understanding of the manifestations of and various reasons for hauntings and poltergeist phenomena The experts come from such backgrounds as anthropology history philosophy psychiatry and sociology and provide sober yet highly readable in depth discussions of numerous ideas and rationalizations for hauntings and poltergeists from a critical and scientific perspective Divided into three major sections sociocultural physical and physiological and psychological perspectives this work provides an overview of each perspective and also addresses the general psychology of belief in the paranormal and how that belief relates to experiences with ghosts and poltergeists Haunted St. Paul Chad

Lewis, 2015-09-21 From the phantom pig at the Minnesota State Fair to the ghostly gangsters of the Wabasha Street Caves St Paul bristles with haunted history Let the spectral usher of the Mounds Theatre show you to your seat as Chad Lewis reveals why the bits of St Paul's past that insist on intruding on the present deserve to have their stories told By the time the lights come back on you will be convinced that sometimes the strangest things have happened in the dorm room upstairs or the table next to you at your favorite restaurant or even in your own backyard The Ghosts Within Janna Odabas, 2018-11-09

The ghost as a literary figure has been interpreted multiple times spiritually psychoanalytically sociologically or allegorically Following these approaches Janna Odabas understands ghosts in Asian American literature as self reflexive figures With identity politics at the core of the ghost concept Odabas emphasizes how ghosts critically renegotiate the notion of Asian America as heterogeneous and transnational and resist interpretation through a morally or politically preconceived approach to Asian American literature Responding to the tensions of the scholarly field Odabas argues that the literary works under scrutiny openly play with and rethink conceptions of ghosts as mere exotic ethnic ornamentation
