National Mall Roger C. Aden, 2018-09-15 Rhetorics Haunting the National Mall Displaced and Ephemeral Public Memories vividly illustrates that a nation's history is more complicated than the simple binary of remembered forgotten Some parts of history while not formally recognized within a commemorative landscape haunt those landscapes by virtue of their ephemeral or displaced presence Rather than being discretely contained within a formal sites these memories remain public by lingering along the edges and within the crevices of commemorative landscapes By integrating theories of haunting place and public memory this collection demonstrates that the National Mall often referred to as the nation's front yard might better be understood as the nation's attic because it hides those issues we do not want to address but cannot dismiss The neatly ordered installations and landscaping of the National Mall if one looks and listens closely reveal the messiness of US history From the ephemeral memories of protests on the Mall to the displaced but persistent presences of inequality each chapter in this book examines the ways in which contemporary public life in the US is haunted by incomplete efforts to close the book on the past THE LUCIFERIAN DOCTRINE THE ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE ANDRZEJ JEZIORSKI NIEEXTERMINATOR

Drowned Muse Anne-Gaëlle Saliot, 2015-09-10 The Drowned Muse is a study of the extraordinary destiny in the history of European culture of an object which could seem at first glance quite ordinary in the history of European culture. It tells the story of a mask the cast of a young girl's face entitled L'Inconnue de la Seine the Unknown Woman of the Seine and its subsequent metamorphoses as a cultural figure. Legend has it that the Inconnue drowned herself in Paris at the end of the nineteenth century. The forensic scientist tending to her unidentified corpse at the Paris Morgue was supposedly so struck by her allure that he captured in plaster the contours of her face. This unknown girl also referred to as The Mona Lisa of Suicide has since become the object of an obsessive interest that started in the late 1890s, reached its peak in the 1930s and continues to reverberate today. Aby Warburg defines art history as a ghost story for grown ups. This study is similarly a ghost story for grown ups narrating the aura of a cultural object that crosses temporal, geographical and linguistic frontiers. It views the Inconnue as a symptomatic expression of a modern world haunted by the earlier modernity of the nineteenth century. It investigates how the mask's metamorphoses reflect major shifts in the cultural history of the last two centuries, approaching the Inconnue as an entry point to understand a phenomenon characteristic of 20th and 21st century modernity: the translatability of media. Doing so, this study mobilizes discourses surrounding the Inconnue, casting them as points of negotiation through which we may consider the modern age.

Hauntings and Poltergeists James Houran, Rense Lange, 2015-08-13 Few people can claim the distinction of experiencing first hand such occurrences as hauntings and the presence of poltergeists, but countless numbers of people are fascinated by these unexplainable events. Written by the world's most knowledgeable authorities in this field, the essays in this work promote a better understanding of the manifestations of and various reasons for hauntings and poltergeist phenomena. The experts come from such backgrounds as anthropology, history, philosophy, psychiatry and sociology and provide sober yet highly readable in-depth discussions of numerous ideas and rationalizations for hauntings and poltergeists from a critical and scientific perspective. Divided into three major sections: sociocultural, physical and physiological and psychological perspectives, this work provides an overview of each perspective and also addresses the general psychology of belief in the paranormal and how that belief relates to experiences with ghosts and poltergeists.

The Borley Rectory Companion Paul Adams, Peter Underwood, Eddie Brazil, 2016-09-23 Borley Rectory in Essex, built in 1862, should have been an ordinary Victorian clergyman's house. However, just a year after its construction, unexplained footsteps were heard within the house and from 1900 until it burned down in 1939, numerous paranormal phenomena, including phantom coaches and shattering windows, were observed. In 1929, the house was investigated by the Daily Mail and paranormal researcher Harry Price, and it was he who called it the most haunted house in England. Price also took out a lease of the rectory from 1937 to 1938, recruiting forty-eight official observers to monitor occurrences. After his death in 1948, the water was muddied by claims that Price's findings were not genuine paranormal activity, and ever since there has been a debate over what really went on at Borley Rectory.
