Hauntings And Encounters Of Different Kinds:

Hauntings and Poltergeists James Houran, Rense Lange, 2015-08-13 Few people can claim the distinction of experiencing first hand such occurrences as hauntings and the presence of poltergeists but countless numbers of people are fascinated by these unexplainable events Written by the world's most knowledgeable authorities in this field the essays in this work promote a better understanding of the manifestations of and various reasons for hauntings and poltergeist phenomena The experts come from such backgrounds as anthropology history philosophy psychiatry and sociology and provide sober yet highly readable in depth discussions of numerous ideas and rationalizations for hauntings and poltergeists from a critical and scientific perspective Divided into three major sections sociocultural physical and physiological and psychological perspectives this work provides an overview of each perspective and also addresses the general psychology of belief in the paranormal and how that belief relates to experiences with ghosts and poltergeists

Ghostly Encounters

Dennis Waskul, 2016-06-10 Dennis Waskul writes these lines about his first hand experience with the supernatural in the introduction to his beguiling book Ghostly Encounters Based on two years of fieldwork and interviews with 71 midwestern Americans the Waskul's book is a reflexive ethnography that examines how people experience ghosts and hauntings in everyday life The authors explore how uncanny happenings become ghosts and the reasons people struggle with or against a will to believe They present the variety and character of hauntings and ghostly encounters outcomes of people telling haunted legends and the nested consequences of ghostly experiences Through these stories Ghostly Encounters seeks to understand the persistence of uncanny experiences and beliefs in ghosts in an age of reason science education and technology as well as how those beliefs and experiences

Haunting Encounters Joanne Lipson Freed, 2017-09-15 Acts of cross cultural reading have ethical consequences In Haunting Encounters Joanne Lipson Freed traces the narrative strategies through which certain works of fiction forge connections with their readers across boundaries of difference Freed uses the idea of haunting an intense temporary and transformative encounter that defies rational understanding as a metaphor for the kinds of ethical relationships that such works cultivate with their readers across boundaries of difference Freed points out how such works as Toni Morrison's Beloved Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony and Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things strike a delicate balance between empathy and alterity Their engaging narratives Freed argues bring unfamiliar characters and distant settings to life for readers who encounter them as other but they also highlight the limits of fiction holding in check the impulse to colonize another's experience with one's own Haunting Encounters is a sensitive and perceptive application of theory to real world concerns It draws together the fields of postcolonial fiction and narrative ethics and suggests original modes of engagement between readers and books that promise new ways of looking at the world

Haunted Denton Teal Gray, 2022 Follow a trail of Denton ghost stories from nineteenth century pioneers and outlaws to modern day businessmen who don't intend to clock out Locals report that John B Denton still roams the grounds of the courthouse lawn and keeps watch over his namesake town square from an upper window The 1949 Campus Theatre is said to be haunted by the playful spirit of J P Harrison the first general manager of the building Historic restaurants like Cartwright's Ranch House and Killer's Tacos pair the occasional full body apparition with their delicious menus From the specter showing up in a selfie at Dix Coney Island to a phantom threading its way through Rose's Costume shop Teal Gray captures the haunted heritage of this fascinating Texas town
