Haw Lantern:

The Haw Lantern Seamus Heaney, 1987 Seamus Heaney describes the haw lantern as small light for small people but there is more than tiny illumination emanating from one of Ireland's premier poets Heaney peppers this short collection of poems with crafty language and natural objects I heard the hatchet's differentiated Accurate cut the crack the sigh And collapse of what luxuriated Through the shocked tips and wreckage of it all The Haw Lantern won England's Whitbread Prize in 1987 Seamus Heaney Harold Bloom, 2009 Provides insight into seven of Heaney's works along with a short biography of the poet Passage to the Center Daniel Tobin, 2021-10-21 Nobel Laureate Seamus Heaney author of nine collections of poetry and three volumes of influential essays is regarded by many as the greatest Irish poet since Yeats Passage to the Center is the most comprehensive critical treatment to date on Heaney's poetry and the first to study Heaney's body of work up to Seeing Things and The Spirit Level It is also the first to examine the poems from the perspective of religion one of Heaney's guiding preoccupations According to Tobin the growth of Heaney's poetry may be charted through the recurrent figure of the center a key image in the relationship that evolved over time between the poet and his inherited place an evolution that involved the continual re-evaluation and re-vision of imaginative boundaries In a way that previous studies have not Tobin's work examines Heaney's poetry in the context of modernist and postmodernist concerns about the desacralizing of civilization and provides a challenging engagement with the work of a living master Seamus Heaney Michael Parker, 1993 Heaney Ireland's best known living poet has also established himself as a major world writer Here is a detailed account of his upbringing as a Catholic amidst the civil war in Northern Ireland Also provides a fresh perspective on the violence and a view of how circumstances influence art Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or Seamus Heaney Floyd Collins, 2003 This book traces Nobel laureate Seamus Heaney's development as a poet from his first book of poetry through his most recent Electric Light Each chapter examines a particular phase of Heaney's poetic career with close careful readings of those poems that best dramatize his crisis of identity The Cambridge Companion to Seamus Heaney Bernard O'Donoghue, 2009 An up to date overview of Heaney's career thus far with detailed readings of all his major publications Seamus Heaney Richard Rankin Russell, 2016-09-13 The first detailed introduction to the entirety of Seamus Heaney's work This study will enable readers to gain clearer understanding of the life and major works of Seamus Heaney It considers literary influences on Heaney ranging from English poets such as Wordsworth Hughes and Auden to Irish poets such as Kavanagh and Yeats to world poets such as Virgil and Dante It shows how Heaney was closely attuned to poetry's impact on daily life and current events even as he articulated a convincing apologia for poetry's own life and integrity Discussing Heaney's deep immersion in Irish Catholicism this book demonstrates how faith influenced his belief system poetry and politics Finally it also considers how deeply Heaney's artistic endeavours were intertwined with politics in Northern Ireland especially through his embrace of constitutional nationalism but rejection of physical force republicanism

Key Features Includes sections on biography historical cultural and political contexts poetry and other genres as well as a concluding section on primary works and secondary criticism Pays special attention to the marriage of form and content in the poetry and how they work together to express subtle shades of meaning Offers close readings of Heaney's canonical poems throughout his career including the early seminal poems such as Digging the abog poems and his many elegies such as Casualty Station Island and Clearances Draws on drafts of the poems and prose at the Heaney archives at Emory University and the National Library of Ireland

This Strange Loneliness Peter Mackay, 2021-04-15 This Strange Loneliness is the first comprehensive account of the poetic relationship between Seamus Heaney and William Wordsworth Peter Mackay explores how Heaney repeatedly turns to the Romantic poet's work for inspiration corroboration and amplification and as a model for the fortifying power of poetry itself which offers the fundamental lesson that it is on this earth we find our happiness or not at all Through an in depth look at archival materials and at uncollected poems and prose by Heaney Mackay traces the evolution of Heaney's readings of Wordsworth throughout his career revealing their shared interest in the connections between poetry and education the possibility of a beneficial understanding of poetic influence the complexities of place and displacement ideas of transcendence and ultimately the importance of late style later poems by Wordsworth might prove a cautionary tale as well as example for any poet Placing Heaney's readings within their political historical and poetic contexts the book also explores how he negotiated the complex relationship between Irish and British culture and identity to claim a persistent form of kinship and forge a strange community with the Romantic poet With illuminating readings that reveal new contexts to and currents in Heaney's work This Strange Loneliness is a powerful evocation of the Irish poet's sense of the uplift that poetry can provide

The Flight of the Vernacular Maria Cristina Fumagalli, 2021-10-18 In this book Dante Seamus Heaney and Derek Walcott engage in an eloquent and meaningful conversation Dante's capacity for being faithful to the collective historical experience and true to the recognitions of the emerging self the permanent immediacy of his poetry the healthy state of his language which is so close to the object that the two are identified and his adamant refusal to get lost in the wide and open sea of abstraction all these are shown to have affected and to continue to affect Heaney's and Walcott's work The Flight of the Vernacular however is not only a record of what Dante means to the two contemporary poets but also a cogent study of Heaney's and Walcott's attitude towards language and of their views on the function of poetry in our time Heaney's programmatic endeavour to be adept at dialect and Walcott's idiosyncratic redefinition of the vernacular in poetry as tone rather than as dialect apart from having Dantean overtones are presented as being associated with the belief that poetry is a social reality and that language is a living alphabet bound to the opened ground of the world

Soul Says Helen Vendler, 1995 This work comprises essays on American British and Irish poetry showing contemporary life and culture captured in lyric form It explains the power of poetry as the voice of the soul rather than the socially marked self speaking directly through the stylization of verse

Seamus Heaney and Medieval Poetry Conor McCarthy, 2008 Seamus Heaney's engagement with medieval literature constitutes a significant body of work by a major poet including a landmark translation of Beowulf This title examines both Heaney's direct translations and his adaptation of medieval material in his original poems A Singing Contest Meg Tyler, 2013-11-05 A formal analysis A Singing Contest comprises close readings of Seamus Heaney's poetry Tyler argues that in an era of fractured poetry and politics Seamus Heaney stands out his impulse is towards unity and regeneration Her book considers the interplay between different kinds of literary tradition and community in his poetry For Heaney poetry represents a structure allowing imaginative mediation of conflicts that appear irreconcilable in the social political and historical realms By detailed structural analysis of diction meter imagery and generic form Tyler illustrates how Heaney's poems create concords from discords unities from fracture From the preface by Rosanna Warren A Singing Contest is written with imaginative and emotional urgency and in some large sense as it examines Heaney's spells it seems itself to want to cast a spell against death Hence Tyler's return in various ways to readings of elegy whether the fictive elegies of classical pastoral poems or Heaney's personal elegies She pores in detail over Clearances the sonnet sequence composed in memory of the poet's mother in The Haw Lantern and she concludes her book with a chapter on literary elegies Heaney's farewells to his friends and admired contemporaries Ted Hughes Zbigniew Herbert and Joseph Brodsky In these analyses one sees the wholeness of Tyler's project her argument that for Heaney literary tradition itself rightly received and transformed reaches into the voids made by death and establishes connection across rupture Her thesis is an ancient one and she gives it particular shape and force in asking us to contemplate it at work in Heaney where it binds individual to collective experience and past to present Seamus Heaney and East European Poetry in Translation Carmen Bugar, 2017-12-02 Poetry born of historical upheaval bears witness both to actual historical events and considerations of poetics Under the duress of history the poet who is torn between lamentation and celebration seeks to achieve distance from his troubled times Add to this a deep love for and commitment to the Irish and English poetic traditions and a strong desire to search for models outside his culture and you have the poetry of the Irish Nobel laureate Seamus Heaney 1939 In this study Carmen Bugar looks at how the poetry of Seamus Heaney born of the Troubles in Northern Ireland has encountered the historically tested imaginations of Czeslaw Milosz Joseph Brodsky Osip Mandelstam and Zbigniew Herbert as he aimed to fulfil a Horatian poetics a poetry meant to both instruct and delight its readers Carmen Bugar is the author of a collection of poems Crossing the Carpathians and a memoir Burying the Typewriter Seamus Heaney M. Parker, 1994-10-12 Provides an account of Seamus Heaney's early life and the experiences influences and relationships personal literary and political that shaped his poetic development The book includes photographs interviews and commentary on unpublished poems and drafts In Gratitude for All the Gifts Magdalena Kay, 2012-06-30 In Gratitude for All the Gifts explores the literary and cultural links between the bestselling Nobel Prize winning Northern Irish poet Seamus Heaney and the preeminent Eastern European poets of the twentieth century including fellow Nobel laureate Czeslaw Milosz and Zbigniew Herbert Magdalena Kay opens new ground in comparative literary studies with her close analysis of Heaney's poetic work from the perspective of the English speaking West's attraction and especially Heaney's own attraction to Eastern European poetry While placing Milosz and Herbert in their cultural contexts and keeping an eye on the poems in their original Polish this innovative and energetic study focuses on how Heaney encountered their work in translation In Gratitude for All the Gifts thus allows us to see what happens when poetic forms histories and themes travel between countries and encourages us to understand cultural crossing not just thematically but also in terms of form voice and aesthetic intent Tongue of Water, Teeth of Stones Jonathan Hufstader, 2014-10-17 In a 1984 lecture on poetry and political violence Seamus Heaney remarked that the idea of poetry was itself that higher ideal to which the poets had unconsciously turned in order to survive the demeaning conditions Jonathan Hufstader examines the work of Heaney and his contemporaries to discover how poems combining conscious technique with unconscious impulse work as aesthetic forms and as strategies for emotional survival In his powerful study Hufstader shows how a number of contemporary Northern Irish poets including Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon Michael Longley Paul Muldoon Tom Paulin Ciarán Carson and Medbh McGuckian explore the resources of language and poetic form in their various responses to cultural conflict and political violence Focusing on both style and social contexts Hufstader explores the tension between solidarity and art between the poet's need to belong and to rebel He believes that an understanding of the power of lyric points towards an understanding of the source of social violence and of its cessation

Seamus Heaney and the Language Of Poetry Bernard O'Donoghue, 2017-09-08 This book scrutinizes Heaney's language in order to examine his theory of poetry and the writer's responsibility to art and politics The author himself a poet works chronologically through the poetry and discusses it in light of Heaney's writings on the appropriate language of poetry Chapters also look at Heaney's language and at the government of the tongue Study and Revise for AS/A-level:

Seamus Heaney's Gifts Henry Hart, 2024-12-13 The fact of the matter Seamus Heaney said in a 1997 interview with the Paris Review is that the most unexpected and miraculous thing in my life was the arrival in it of poetry Throughout his career Heaney who received the 1995 Nobel Prize in Literature maintained that poetry came to him from a mysterious source like a gift of grace He also believed that the recipient of this sort of boon had an ethical obligation to share it with others Seamus Heaney's Gifts by the noted scholar and poet Henry Hart offers the first comprehensive examination of Heaney's preoccupation with gifts and gift exchange Drawing on extensive research in Heaney's papers as well as three decades of correspondence with the poet Hart presents a richly detailed study of Heaney's life and work that foregrounds the Irishman's commitment to the vocation of poetry as a public art to be shared with audiences and readers around the world Heaney traced his devotion to gifts back to the actual present of a Conway Stewart fountain pen that his parents gave him at the age of twelve when he left his family farm in Northern Ireland to attend a private Catholic secondary school in Londonderry He commemorated this gift in Digging the first poem in his first book and in two poems he wrote near the end of his life The Conway Stewart and On the Gift of a Fountain Pen Friends and doctors had warned him that his endless globetrotting to give lectures and poetry readings had damaged his health Yet he felt obligated to share his talent with audiences around the world until his death in 2013 As Hart shows Heaney found his first models for gift giving in his rural community in Northern Ireland the Bible the rituals of the Catholic Church and the literature of mystical and mythical quests Blending careful research with evocative commentaries on the poet's work Seamus Heaney's Gifts explains his ideas about the artist's gift the necessity of gift exchange acts and the moral responsibility to share one's talents for the benefit of others

The Universal Deep Structure of Modern Poetry John A.F. Hopkins, 2020-04-02 With something of a poetry renaissance currently under way worldwide there is now more than ever a need for a solidly based methodology for interpreting poems something more empirical than traditional lit crit approaches and something more linguistically informed than the version of postmodernism rampant in certain Anglophone universities The latter approach which tends to allow the individual reader to do what he/she likes with a poetic text is inadequate to interpret modernist poetry whose English language precursors may be found in the late Romantics its pioneers were already writing in France as early as 1840 What is so different about the modernists Most importantly their works are monumental in that they are strongly resistant to deconstruction Contributing to this resistance is the fact that they are built around two deep level propositions each of which generates a set of indirectly signifying images sharing the same internal structure but having a different vocabulary Thus they do not signify according to linear narrative but according to these propositions and the relation between them which may be reconstructed by a careful comparison of images on the textual surface Every text as subject sign refers to an intertextual object sign which is usually another poem but may also be a film or other form of art

Mediating between these two signs is their reader constructed interpretant which completes the semiotic triad As this book shows the novelty of this sign is thrown into relief by the contrast it makes with a lexical counterpart from the reader s experience which differs from the interpretant in structure The book s inclusion of French and Japanese as well as English poems shows that deep level signifying mechanisms may well be universal with considerable research and pedagogical implications
