Experience the unchained fury of Hawaii's volcanoes — the fiery power that pushed the islands upward from the deep beneath the sea. See Kilauea Volcano spewing fountains of lava over a thousand feet into the air. You'll go into the ocean to observe molten lava, burning beneath the sea — increasing the size of the island. See a rare eruption of Mauna Loa. And watch as scientists take the temperature of the volcano at the edge of a fiery lava flow. Discover how the islands were formed and life began in Hawaii. And experience the saga of Pele through chants and dance honoring the fire deity who resides at Kilauea.

This thirty-three minute video contains some of the most stunning volcano footage ever recorded and was produced in cooperation with the United States Geological Survey, Hawaiian Volcano Observatory.
