Economic Adjustment In New Democracies Lessons From Southern Europe:

Economic Adjustment in New Democracies Diane Ethier,1997 Economic Adjustment in New Democracies D. Ethier,1997-05-29 The politics of economic adjustment in new democracies has received a lot of attention However none of the most recent examinations provide a thorough comparative analysis of Southern Europe Ethier s book fills this gap The book challenges many existing preconceptions about Southern Europe while confirming and complementing the main assertions of comparable studies on Eastern Europe Latin America Asia and Africa Constructing Democracy in Southern Europe Lauren M. McLaren,2008-04-08 Why are some regimes democratic while others are not Specifically how have Spain and Italy managed to become democratic while Turkey which shares many similar characteristics has not Spain Italy and Turkey have shared common historical features which would have been disruptive to any new democracy however they represent a wide array of democratization experiences Providing a comparative case study analysis this book offers some clues as to the reasons for successful transitions to democracy This is done through a range of variables which include the degree of stateness problems learning from previous experiences with democracy and authoritarianism economic development the procedures used for designing the new rules of the regime the existence or absence of civil society and the connection between society and political institutions the democratic rules themselves the professionalization of the military the influence of external factors on democratic consolidation By examining these variables across the three countries Lauren McLaren narrows the range of possible explanations for differences in democratic consolidation The book will be of particular interest to students and researchers of European Politics and Democratization Studies Environment and Security M. Lowi,B. Shaw,2000-05-16 This book is based on a conference addressing the relationship between the environment and security in the post Cold War world It brings together scholars and practitioners from a variety of different disciplines and perspectives in an effort to both explore the complexities of the relationship between environmental variables and security conditions and re focus the debate within the environmental community The book combines analytical frameworks and case study material with proposals for addressing environmental challenges and enhancing the security and welfare of peoples states and regions Canadian-Caribbean Relations in Transition Jerry Haar,Anthony Bryan,1999-08-26 An up to date analysis and assessment of the evolving relationship between Canada and the Commonwealth Caribbean this volume focuses on three dynamic and important issues By presenting a current picture of the Canadian Caribbean relationship the book not only fills a void in academic contributions to the topic but serves as an invaluable reference guide for policy analysts non governmental representatives and public and private decision makers Rural Women and Triple Exploitation in Korean Development D. Human Rights in the Emerging Global Order K. Mills,1998-09-14 Mills focuses on one of the most significant parts of the sovereignty debate on human rights and humanitarian issues and raises three interrelated questions First how are empirical processes and practices undermining traditional notions of sovereignty These include actions by the United Nations and other organizations on behalf of human rights such as humanitarian intervention the movements of refugees and others across the borders and increasing calls for communal self determination Second taking into account the above question and examining these issues from a normative political theory perspective what should be the relationship between individuals groups states and the international community with respect to the twin aspects of power and authority inherent in sovereignty Third what new or modified international institutions may be needed in the future to deal with these humanitarian issues

Social Forces in the Making of the New Europe Andreas Bieler,2001-06-26 The main argument of this book is that the revival of European integration in the mid 1980s and the emergence of a New Europe have to be analyzed against the background of globalization and the transnational restructuring of social forces since the early 1970s

Manipulating Hegemony R. Vickers,2000-02-17 Drawing on neo Gramscian theories of International Political Economy this book explores the impact of the Marshall Plan on labour and government in Britain Rather than the US imposing a politics of productivity on an unwilling government the centre right of the Labour Party used the Marshall Plan to achieve its own political ends Manipulating Hegemony shows how the government was able to marginalise the left to create a pattern of state labour politics that was to endure until the end of the 1970s

Designing Democracy G. Pridham,2005-05-11 Designing Democracy is the first systematic and in depth study of the effects of the EU s democratic conditionality originally set out in the Copenhagen conditions of 1993 on the new political systems of Central and Eastern Europe Using new material drawn from extensive elite interviews in several of these countries as well as in Brussels the book throws much light on how far the EU enlargement process has really strengthened these new post Communist democracies following their transitions in the 1990s

The Elusive Promise of NGOs in Africa S. Dicklitch,1998-07-13 Dicklitch challenges the dominant discourse of neo liberalism which places NGOs and civil society at the forefront of democratization and development in Africa Based on nine months of field research in Uganda the study draws on evidence from the successfully liberalizing country and shows how NGO potential for democratization and development has been subverted by state directives structural and historical conditions as well as the internal limitations of NGOs
