Reckson, 2020-01-28 Honorable Mention Barnard Hewitt Award from the American Society for Theater Research Explores the intersection and history of American literary realism and the performance of spiritual and racial embodiment Recovering a series of ecstatic performances in late nineteenth and early twentieth century American realism Realist Ecstasy travels from camp meetings to Native American ghost dances to storefront church revivals to explore realism's relationship to spiritual experience In her approach to realism as both an unruly archive of performance and a wide ranging repertoire of media practices including literature photography audio recording and early film Lindsay V Reckson argues that the real was repetitively enacted and reenacted through bodily practice Realist Ecstasy demonstrates how the realist imagining of possessed bodies helped construct and naturalize racial difference while excavating the complex shifting and dynamic possibilities embedded in ecstatic performance its production of new and immanent forms of being beside Across her readings of Stephen Crane James Weldon Johnson and Nella Larsen among others Reckson triangulates secularism realism and racial formation in the post Reconstruction moment Realist Ecstasy shows how post Reconstruction realist texts mobilized gestures especially the gestures associated with religious ecstasy to racialize secularism itself Reckson offers us a distinctly new vision of American realism as a performative practice a sustained account of how performance lives in and through literary archives and a rich sense of how closely secularization and racialization were linked in Jim Crow America

Ecstasy, Catastrophe David Farrell Krell, 2015-08-01 Lectures on ecstatic temporality and on Heidegger's political legacy In Ecstasy Catastrophe David Farrell Krell provides insight into two areas of Heidegger's thought his analysis of ecstatic temporality in Being and Time 1927 and his political remarks in the recently published Black Notebooks 1931-1941 The first part of Krell's book focuses on Heidegger's interpretation of time which Krell takes to be one of Heidegger's greatest philosophical achievements In addition to providing detailed commentary on ecstatic temporality Krell considers Derrida's analysis of ekstasis in his first seminar on Heidegger taught in Paris in 1964-1965 Krell also relates ecstatic temporality to the work of other philosophers including Aristotle Augustine Kant Schelling Heidegger and Merleau-Ponty he then analyzes Dasein as infant and child relating ecstatic temporality to the mirror stage theory of Jacques Lacan The second part of the book turns to Heidegger's Black Notebooks which have received a great deal of critical attention in the press and in philosophical circles Notorious for their pejorative references to Jews and Jewish culture the Notebooks exhibit a level of polemic throughout that Krell takes to be catastrophic in and for Heidegger's thought Heidegger's legacy therefore seems to be split between the best and the worst of thinking somewhere between ecstasy and catastrophe Based on the 2014 Brauer Lectures in German Studies at Brown University the book communicates the fruits of Krell's many years of work on Heidegger in an engaging and accessible style
