OUR VIEW

Welcome, September

It happens outside, in the stillness of early morning, or as the light shifts in late afternoon and lingers in the tops of trees, that we suddenly see summer suspended. But in that moment, we also sense summer passing.

It's September on the East End. On fair days this month, that stillness complies with the clarity of light to let us see ourselves in the scene as mute witnesses — if we're lucky — with no urge or responsibility to act on anything, calm enough to see things as they are, not lost in noise.

These intimations of autumn coming, or already here, bring the season's most treasured gift — reflection — and an understanding that some things don't change.

Even deep within a catastrophe of illness, pain and grief not seen in 100 years, and economic circumstances that are uncertain for the fortunate and perilous for those less so, with gutter politics threatening democracy along with a sometimes deafening and inescapable media obscuring more than it reveals, with service members coming home in coffins, and an anniversary of one of the darkest days in American history — yes, even all of that — can be eased by the constancy and wonder of a silent afternoon with patches of light in treetops.

SOUTHOLD

The Enclaves hotel is a very bad idea

When I first read about the Enclaves proposed hotel and restaurant I thought that Southold had decided to stick a knife in its heart! I downloaded the Draft Environmental Impact Statement and my wife and I went over the numerous pages of the statement. The statement was quite detailed and sugar coated, extolling the virtues of having a hotel in our village. But in the details were a view of a ticking time bomb.

Not only a hotel and restaurant, but the restaurant will also serve as a catering hall for weddings and other special events. We can imagine the traffic issues and band noise this will create. The report details all the reasons why folks love to come to our village and the basic message is:

Southold, you are beautiful and we love you, now please change!

If this married couple's concerns are all that think they're going to preserve the character of the town via the owner's ridiculous proposal of covering the whole thing up with a hedgehog, we're all in trouble. Once they set a precedent with the approval of this project, there's little doubt that we'll see a parade of other hotel proposals here as the bankers back in New York realize that Southold is "easy pickings" for them.

ECONOMY

Not for our area

Just what Southold needs, another restaurant, hotel and people to come and go, aka traffic ("Town nears decision on hotel plan," Sept. 2).

What is happening to the place we all moved to or stayed in so we could be in an environment that is a quiet country/farm atmosphere?

Let's add the numbers: a 44-room hotel — that's 88 people and 44 cars. 220 servers, catering hall emitting
