for a weak force to obtain these resources The author assesses that air guerrilla warfare is a viable warfighting strategy but points out that the likelihood of a weak force actually adopting air guerrilla warfare will depend on its regional security needs and its resolve to protract a conflict The study concludes that air guerrilla warfare is a credible threat to a stronger opponent To meet this threat the author recommends that the United States re examine its intervention strategy reinforce its policy of strategic engagement and research both airpower and non airpower means to neutralize an elusive guerrilla air force DTIC
