Educating Emotionally Disturbed Children And Youth Theories And Practices For Teachers:

Educating Emotionally Disturbed Children and Youth James L. Paul, Betty Cooper Epanchin, 1991 EDUCATING EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN MANGAL, S. K., 2007-08-14 Intended as a text for undergraduate and postgraduate courses B Ed M Ed B A M A Education and diploma level courses in Education as well as for courses in Special Education this comprehensive and accessible book provides a sound base for understanding Special Children through an insightful and incisive discussion on Special Education The text dwells on exceptional children or children with special needs who either suffer from various deficits or disabilities or are gifted Such children include the mentally retarded the visually and hearing impaired the emotionally disturbed those with autism cerebral palsy and the deprived as well as the gifted and the creative This well organized and pedagogically rich text should be extremely useful to students as well as professionals special education teachers those engaged in guidance and counselling educational policy makers and field workers who have an abiding interest in the education of exceptional children and in special education KEY FEATURES Includes student friendly features like illustrations examples tables and research based experimental findings Provides a complete picture of exceptionality from the early years of human history to the present day Gives case histories to practically illustrate the subject

Rethinking Professional Issues in Special Education James L. Paul, Carolyn D. Lavelly, Ann Cranston-Gingras, Ella L. Taylor, 2002-07-30 Special educators are facing new challenges at the beginning of the 21st century as public education is being reformed by a vision focusing on measurable student outcomes The future course of the field will be shaped by the policy and programmatic responses to several issues including demographic changes in student populations a lack of certified special education teachers criticism in the public media for the rising costs of services and debates about the preferred philosophy of service delivery for students with disabilities Additional chapters discuss university school collaboration charter schools disability studies school violence disproportionality in placement male African American teachers and ethics This book has been written out of a context of research and program development activities with public schools over the past decade in one of the largest Colleges of Education in a diverse metropolitan area in the country The issues selected for analysis and the perspective guiding those analyses grew out of this work and out of a national Delphi study of the views of parents and constituent organizations and leading researchers teacher educators and policy makers in Special Education Research in Education ,1971 Designing Teaching Strategies R.
