An Adventure in Service-Learning Anto T. Kerins, 2016-04-08 An Adventure in Service Learning argues that education can provide not just knowledge and skills but it can also encourage the development of values and responsibility Service Learning is a teaching method unlike any other It allows students to use their classroom theory to help others through relevant service or volunteering activity In so doing it gives students the opportunity to use the experiences of helping others to strengthen their understanding of subject material Service learning is like a bridge that connects education with the outside world It breathes life and clarity into any subject and better prepares students for life after college An Adventure in Service Learning is a well written and easy to read book It introduces the newcomer to service learning and provides the seasoned practitioner with an important analysis of this most interesting of teaching methods Its discussion of learning and the role of higher education will interest educationalists and its consideration of service will be important to those who are concerned about community A passionate belief in education and its possibilities permeates An Adventure in Service Learning The book examines service learning in project management leadership and management consultancy and provides readers with an understanding of how the method can work in any subject or discipline. It clarifies the need for community and discusses the nature and possibilities of what it means to be human. The book will help to renew and reinvigorate practitioners, policy makers and the education system as a whole.

Creating Successful Community and Academic Partnerships in Service-Learning Mary Elizabeth Rauktis, Service Learning Through a Multidisciplinary Lens Shelley H. Billig, Andrew Furco, 2002-10-01 Co-Constructing and Sustaining Service Learning in Graduate Programs: Reflections from the Field Hos, Rabia, Santos, Brenda, 2023-08-18 Ensuring doctoral students receive a well rounded and thorough education is critical for their future success. Service learning within the doctoral program is one of the many aspects that helps shape students' experiences and prepares them for life after graduation. Co-Constructing and Sustaining Service Learning in Graduate Programs: Reflections from the Field captures the experiences of doctoral students who were involved in socially just and sustainable service learning projects and what it meant for them to be engaged in scholarship through service learning. The book also illustrates what service learning looks like and should look like in higher education, particularly given the inequities that exist in the field of education. Covering key topics such as online education, academic identity and sustainable learning, this reference work is ideal for administrators, policymakers, researchers, scholars, practitioners, instructors and students. Service-Learning in Occupational Therapy Education Kathleen Flecky, Lynn Gitlow, 2009-11-13 This text describes philosophical and theoretical principles of service learning in relationship to occupational therapy, philosophical and pedagogical traditions. Effective service learning, educational strategies and experiential applications of occupational therapy in the community are highlighted through the presentation of case studies of service learning initiatives in occupational therapy programs across the United States. Examples of how to design, implement and assess service learning projects and partnerships are provided along with insights and lessons learned from faculty engaging in service learning. Pub desc Educating Students to Make-a-difference Joseph R. Ferrari, 1999 Effective and Meaningful Student Engagement Through Service Learning Valarmathi, Sharon, Kareem, Jacqueline, Tania, Veerta, Babu, Kishore Selva, Lucas, Patrick Jude, 2024-04-09 A paradigm shift is underway in education, challenging traditional teaching methods and calling for a more engaging and purposeful approach. It is necessary to explore how service learning empowers students to address real world issues, fostering critical thinking, creativity, collaboration and communication skills essential for the 21st century. Effective and Meaningful Student Engagement Through Service Learning is a comprehensive exploration of the transformative power of service learning in contemporary education. Within this text, seasoned researchers and practitioners delve into the intricacies of student engagement, emphasizing the importance of active involvement in the learning process. This book opens with a reflection on education where traditional practices give way to innovative pedagogies. This includes a new pedagogical approach that not only imparts knowledge but also cultivates socially responsible citizens. The book provides a rich tapestry of theoretical foundations curriculum development strategies and innovative pedagogical approaches that move beyond passive learning From evaluating the impact of service learning to incorporating technology and measuring learning outcomes each chapter offers theoretical frameworks practical experiments and real life examples for educators administrators and policymakers The diverse audience within and beyond the education sector including students faculty members parents policymakers NGOs and community organizations will find within the pages of this book valuable insights and tools to create more effective and meaningful learning experiences The book covers a broad spectrum of topics from the institutionalization of service learning to motivations for sustainable engagement making it an indispensable resource for anyone passionate about shaping the future of education

Civic Engagement Pedagogy in the Community College: Theory and Practice Emily Schnee, Alison Better, Martha Clark Cummings, 2015-11-19 This book will help post secondary educators to discover the joys and challenges of implementing theoretically grounded civic engagement projects on their campuses The essays on civic engagement and public scholarship are written by an interdisciplinary group of community college faculty who have designed and implemented civic engagement projects in their classrooms The projects they describe stand at the intersection of research theory and pedagogy They challenge dominant constructions of civic engagement as students bring their community culture and history into the classroom The authors consider the particular complexities and constraints of doing civically engaged teaching and scholarship at the community college level and situate their projects within current theoretical debates about civic engagement public scholarship and public higher education

Place-Based Service Learning in Higher Education Shauna Reilly, Mark Neikirk, Samantha Langley-Turnbaugh, 2023-11-20 Place Based Service Learning in Higher Education Building Trust and Opportunities Over Time looks at the intersection of student research and community based learning in a concentrated location over a period of ten years This study examines the use of an urban neighborhood as a place based source for engagement partners and opportunities With a sustained programmatic commitment to the neighborhood Northern Kentucky University sought to build trust over a period of ten years with residents nonprofit agencies serving them and other stakeholders who in turn could generate a steady stream of engagement opportunities valued by the neighborhood and valuable to students learning Analysis found that this commitment indeed built trust with partners and produced mutually beneficial opportunities including lasting relationships impactful work in the community and retention of faculty and students

Conservation Education and Outreach Techniques Susan Kay Jacobson, Mallory D. McDuff, Martha C. University-Community Partnerships Tracy Soska, Alice K Johnson Butterfield, 2013-05-13 Examine how your university can help solve the complex problems of your community Community Outreach Partnership Centers COPC sponsored by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development HUD have identified civic engagement and community partnership as critical themes for higher education This unique book addresses past present and future models of university community partnerships COPC programs wide ranging social work partnerships that involve teaching research and social change and innovative methods in the processes of civic engagement. The text recognizes the many professions, schools, and higher education institutions that contribute to advancing civic engagement through university community partnerships. One important contribution this book makes to the literature of civic engagement is that it is the first publication that significantly highlights partnership contributions from schools of social work which are rediscovering their community roots through these initiatives.

University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement documents how universities are involved in creative individual faculty and program partnerships that help link campus and community partnerships that are vital for teaching, research, and practice. Academics and practitioners discuss outreach initiatives, methods of engagement with an emphasis on community organization, service learning, and other teaching/learning methods, research models, participatory research, and high engagement techniques used in university community partnerships. The book includes case studies, historical studies, policy analysis, program evaluation, and curriculum development.

University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement examines the increasing civic engagement of institutions of higher education, civic engagement projects involving urban nonprofit community-based organizations and neighborhood associations, the developmental stages of a COPC partnership, problems faced in evaluating COPC programs, civic engagement based on teaching and learning, how pre-tenure faculty can meet research, teaching, and service requirements through university community partnerships, developing an MSW program structured around a single concentration of community partnership, how class, race, and organizational differences are barriers to equality in the civic engagement process.

University Community Partnerships: Universities in Civic Engagement is one of the few available academic resources to address the importance of social work involvement in COPC programs. Social work educators, students, and practitioners, community organizers, urban planners, and anyone working in community development will find it invaluable in providing guidance for community problem solving and creating opportunities for faculty, students, and community residents to learn from one another.
