Second Edition

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

"Teaching them to observe all things
whosoever I have commanded you:
and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Matthew 28:19-20

Mission to Educate William H. Taylor, 2023-09-20 By using primary sources this case study seeks to shed new light on the nature and extent of European in this case Scottish educational pioneering work in Africa in this case eastern Nigeria It examines the essential differences between a the pre colonial period b the colonial period and c the pre independence period It argues that non formal community and political education were continuously as central to the Christian here Presbyterian missionaries work as was the formal schooling of the young females as well as males While the curricula reflected the missionaries religious objectives and later the colonial government s the evidence demonstrates an on going commitment to the personal and social development of pupils and their parents and their society The Presbyterians encouraged the emergence of an independent Nigerian church and in their schools a pride in being Nigerian      Toward the Twenty-first Century in Christian Mission James M. Phillips, Robert T. Coote, 1993 This unique volume offers a comprehensive survey of the prospects and critical issues for the Christian world mission The essays written by various mission experts cover such topics as the biblical and theological basis of the mission women in mission urban mission dialogues with other faiths the anthropology of popular religions and more      Educational Missions in India John M'Murtrie, Church of Scotland. Committee for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, 1890      Missionary Collegiate Education in the Presidency of Madras, India Rajah Bhushanam Manikam, 1929      Religion in Multicultural Education Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2006-05-01 The National Association for Multicultural Education in Washington D C listed a number of issues that the school curriculum should address with reference to multicultural education including racism sexism classism linguisticism ablism ageism heterosexism and religious intolerance It is noteworthy that of all these issues religion is about the only one that throughout history people are willing to die for although whether what is at issue is really religion or other things such as territory is another matter It is also interesting that all the others have isms in their names but religious issues are characterized by intolerance Perhaps we should try to understand this intolerance and look at what steps might help to alleviate it However while intolerance might seem a simple thing understanding what is behind it and how it plays such a crucial role in religion requires what we refer to in the Introduction chapter as a multifaceted approach at multiple levels It is not enough just to try to dispel stereotypes of followers of other religions or to point out commonalities in world religions We should for example try to understand and appreciate how adherents of other religions try to answer questions regarding their adaptation to the contemporary environment It is through understanding how different religions coexist side by side at various levels that we truly come to learn about religion in multicultural education      Educating All Children Joel E. Cohen, David Elliot Bloom, Martin B. Malin, 2006 Experts illuminate the challenges of achieving universal basic and secondary education discussing the importance and difficulties not only of expanding access to education and but also of improving the quality of
