Leadership for Change and School Reform Kathryn A. Riley, Karen Seashore Louis, 2000 School reform is a top priority for governments today This timely and challenging book edited by leading international researchers Kathryn Riley and Karen Seashore Louis offers a rich comparative perspective on leadership for change and school reform Contributors from North America Europe and Australia demonstrate how school leadership is influenced by global pressures differing national and state contexts and local concerns They illustrate the limitations of reform initiatives which focus on school leaders to the exclusion of the many other organisations which affect school such as national and local governments professional associations and school communities This book raises some important questions such as How can school leaders create intelligent thinking schools How can leadership and learning be linked together What are the characteristics of effective local education authorities and school districts What is the role of teacher organisations in educational reform and change What happens if businesses teachers parents and local communities have different views of what makes a good school The text illustrates the ways in which leadership is rooted in learning and identifies new directions for school leadership It challenges conventional notions of leadership offering an expanded view which sees leadership just as an individual role based function but as a network of relationships among people structures and cultures This lively and provocative book should be read by all those interested in education reform

Change and Secondary School Administration Glen F. Ovard, 1968

Democratic Leadership Thomas A. Mulkeen, Nelda H. Cambron-McCabe, Bruce J.

Anderson,1994 Almost a decade ago a national commission formally announced a time of crisis in American education Since then Americans have been engaged in a debate about the purpose and organization of tomorrow s schools While the early reform reports were silent on the preparation of school administrators recent reports have focused on the failure to turn out well prepared administrators The National Commission on Excellence in Educational Administration 1987 and the National Policy Board for Educational Administration 1989 called for sweeping changes in the recruitment preparation regulation and evaluation of school administrators It was argued that raising standards for admission to educational administration programs more courses adding more rigor to existing courses tighter certification requirements competency based licensing and supervised school site internships would address the concerns raised by practitioners and numerous other critics Educational reforms directed toward raising the quality of our schools require administrators who are collaborative dynamic and innovative problem solvers administrators who can guide the educational enterprise to higher achievement provide individuals with aspirations and dreams and critically inculcate the young into a political democracy

Managing Change in Education Nigel Bennett,Megan Crawford,Colin Riches,1992-11-28 This is an interestingly eclectic selection of material on the management of change in education Managing Schools Today A key theme of this book is that change is not just about the creation of new policies and procedures to implement external mandates It is also about the strategies by which individuals respond to the impact of structural and cultural change about personal change as much as organizational change about the place of values in framing organizational form and culture as well as those which look at individual and group responses to the pressures which they feel This is a companion volume to Managing the Effective School edited by Margaret Preedy It is the Change Processes in the Public Schools Richard O. Carlson,1965 Educational Administration Frederick C. Lunenburg,Allan Ornstein,2021-01-12 Now with SAGE Publishing The bestselling Educational Administration Concepts and Practices has been considered the standard for all educational administration textbooks for three decades A thorough and comprehensive revision the Seventh Edition continues to balance theory and research with practical application for prospective and practicing school administrators While maintaining the book s hallmark features a friendly and approachable writing style cutting edge content and compelling pedagogy authors Frederick C Lunenburg and Allan Ornstein present research based practices while discussing topical issues facing school administrators today Included with this title The password protected Instructor Resource Site formally known as SAGE Edge offers access to all text specific resources including a test bank and editable chapter specific PowerPoint slides Educational Administration Robert Palestini,2011-09-29 Newly appointed school administrators are often confused when faced with the prospect of having to assume a leadership role in a complex organization like a school or school system Where does one start An effective method would be to systematically examine the vital components that make up an organization A system of organizational diagnosis and prescription will lead to a comprehensive and integrated analysis of the organization s strengths and weaknesses and point the way toward possible improvement The new edition of Educational Administration Leading with Mind and Heart suggests such a sequential and systematic approach Utilizing it effectively can produce dramatic results
