Education For All:

Education for All Mary B. Anderson, 1992 EDUCATION FOR ALL - A Global Commitment , Participants in the conference adopted a World Declaration on Education for All that reaffirmed the concept of education as a fundamental human right and urged the nations of the world to intensify their efforts to meet the basic learning needs of all children youth and adults 11 EDUCATION FOR ALL IN THE UNITED STATES The Status of Education For All in the United States In challenging the nations of the world to pursue the goal of universal basic education the Framework for Action to Meet Basic Learning Needs specified six target dimensions to be used as a basis for setting intermediate and long term goals and for measuring progress toward the goal of EFA rate of 87 percent is the same as that of Sweden Switzerland and the United Kingdom and lower than that of the Czech Republic Korea and Norway 18 Dropping out at the secondary level Although the United States has achieved universal access at the elementary level a substantial minority of students about one in 20 drop out of school at the middle and high school levels During the 1990s scores of 17 year olds rose from 305 to 307 those of 13 year olds from 270 to 274 and those of 9 year olds from 230 to 231 30 Reading Scores increased in the 1970s and 1980s but the increases were not sustained in the 1990s when the scores of 17 year olds actually fell from 290 in 1990 to 287 in 1996 while those of 9 and 13 year olds both rose by a percentage point By the year 2000 the Nation s teaching force will have access to programs for the continued improvement of their professional skills and the opportunity to acquire the knowledge and skills needed to instruct and prepare all American students for the next century Education for All Robert E. Slavin, 1996-01-01 This work is a collection of previously published articles by Robert Slavin The articles trace the evolution over a quarter century of the powerful idea that given well developed rigorously evaluated methods and materials teachers can succeed with virtually all children Education for All Jacques Hallak, 1991 Education for All American Children Educational Policies Commission, 1948 Quality Education for All Dean H. Nielson, William K. Cummings, 2014-04-08 Modern education conceived in the late 18th century and expanded in the early 19th century to promote enlightenment and social equality may finally be nearing its institutional limit Over the past decade following nearly a century of steady gains there has been little further advancement in modern education The modern system has proved effective in serving the interests of the established core of contemporary society but ineffective in reaching for the periphery The contributors to this volume offer various corrective approaches to correct this state of affairs Achieving Quality Education for All Rupert Maclean, 2014-12-14 Due to the development of the international Education for All and Education for Sustainable Development movements for which UNESCO is the lead agency there has been an increasing emphasis on the power of education and schooling to help build more just and equitable societies Thus giving everyone the opportunity to develop their talents to the full regardless of characteristics such as gender socio economic status ethnicity religious persuasion or regional location As enshrined in the United Nations Declaration on Human Rights over five decades ago everyone has the right to receive a high quality and relevant education In order to try to achieve this ideal many countries are substantially re engineering their education systems with an increasing emphasis on promoting equity and fairness and on ensuring that everyone has access to a high quality and relevant education They are also moving away from the traditional outlook of almost exclusively stressing formal education in schools as the most valuable way in which people learn to accepting that important and valuable learning does not just occur in formal dedicated education institutions but also through informal and non formal means Thus learning is both lifelong and life wide This book brings together the experience and research of 40 recognised and experienced opinion leaders in education around the world The book investigates the most effective ways of ensuring the UNESCO aim of effective education for all people in the belief that not only should education be a right for all but also that education and schooling has the potential to transform individual lives and to contribute to the development of more just humane and equitable societies

Education for All Education International (Organization),2003 Reach for Greatness Yong Zhao,2018-02-08 How do you close the achievement gap Start by changing the question When we use the achievement gap to define success we shortchange our students It s time to recognize that the potential for greatness lies in a unique form within each child and that the goal of education should be to encourage and develop it This inspiring manifesto brings in research from different disciplines and demonstrates how to uncover individual greatness by giving students control of their learning You ll also find Strategies for implementing personalizable education Examples showing practices that have gone wrong and right Guidance for teaching disadvantaged students

Education for Social Justice Laura Chapman,John West-Burnham,2010-02-16 The disparity between excellence and equity is a key issue for education policy and practice This book is an argument for equity and inclusion in education based on a model of social justice which is grounded in relationships and learning rather than policies and structures Countries that combine excellence with equity where young people experience high levels of wellbeing tend to be societies with a commitment to social justice equity and inclusion There is an increasing recognition that long term educational and social reforms have to focus on issues around social justice if they are to be more than palliative responses Education for Social Justice looks at the role of relationships on many levels personal meaning group or team interaction the school structure and culture and cross agency and community involvement and development The aim of this book is to find a paradigm that can be used to achieve greater social fairness by finding individual local solutions still in line with national policies and strategies
