There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years, making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments. The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade. This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs, leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements. It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe. This international bibliography of books, articles, conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one-stop for the sports historian to know what is new. Sports Management and Administration David Watt, 2004-04-28

This book is a must for undergraduates as well as an invaluable tool for professionals in sport management and administration in the private, public and voluntary sectors. Politics, Policy and Practice in Physical Education John Evans, Dawn Penney, 2002-09-11

Using the example and context of Physical Education, a particularly vivid and comprehensive illustration is provided of the processes involved in the development of the National Curriculum for Physical Education in England and Wales between 1988-1995. The authors draw upon the extensive research to provide an analysis, description and critique of the direct and indirect influences of central government, local education authorities, schools, departments and teachers in the development of policy and practice in Physical Education. The highly political nature of policy developments in education and Physical Education in particular is demonstrated clearly throughout. A valuable contribution to existing literature, this book helps students and researchers piece together the last ten years of policy making in education and offers a new perspective on the future of Physical Education in the United Kingdom. Reshaping Education In The 1990s Rita Chawla-Duggan, Christopher J.
