Educational Reforms Their:

The Limits of Educational Reform Martin Carnov, Henry M. Levin, 1976 Educational Reform and Administrative Development: The Cases of Colombia and Venezuela E. Mark Hanson, 1986 Studies of Education Reform Steven Garv Critical Analyses of Educational Reforms in an Era of Transnational Governance Elisabeth Hultgvist, Sverker Klein.1996 Lindblad, Thomas S. Popkewitz, 2017-10-20 This book represents a set of critical analyses of educational reforms where issues of transnational governance are of vital concern It focuses on different aspects of and practices in educational reform making and in particular on governing techniques and the working of new agencies such as supranational and multinational organizations In addition the book examines contemporary issues of immigration immigrants in the politics of schooling by reflecting on matters of migration and problematizing how concepts such as exclusion and abjection make the migrants appear failed insufficient and even dangerous The book provides theoretical insights into critical relations between knowledge and power governance and governmentality and notions concerning educational systems as well as how these are compared The central themes of the book are models for organizing and reflecting on transnationalization and educational reforms In its discussion of those themes the focus lies on changing conceptions of education and the educational system on how school or teacher education is adapting to discourses of effectiveness and efficiency and on their transformation according to standardized templates Such changing conceptions define the meanings of education and educational progress they are important for the identification and analysis of educational knowledge and for critical discourses on education in society The Politics of Educational Reform in Ghana Maxwell A. Aziabah, 2018-07-09 This book comprises six main chapters and addresses the core research question How can the endurance of academic bias in Ghana's secondary education system be explained in the context of educational reform versus change of government concurrence Six sub questions have subsequently been derived from the core research question enabling a comprehensive and rigorous treatment of the subject matter of investigation The manuscript adopts an historical institutionalism approach combining path dependency with partisan theory in explicating structural persistence in the secondary school system in Ghana A case study methodological design procedure has been employed in the investigation of three episodes of educational reform anchored on qualitative content analysis as the main data reduction mechanism Myanmar's Education Reforms Marie Lall,2020-11-02 This book reviews the state of education in Myanmar over the past decade and a half as the country is undergoing profound albeit incomplete transformation Set within the context of Myanmar's peace process and the wider reforms since 2012 Marie Lall's analysis of education policy and practice serves as a case study on how the reform programme has evolved Drawing on over 15 years of field research carried out across Myanmar the book offers a cohesive inquiry into government and non government education sectors the reform process and how the transition has played out across schools universities and wider society It casts scrutiny on changes in basic education the alternative monastic education higher education and teacher education and engages with issues of ethnic education and the debate on the role of language and the local curriculum as part of the peace process In so doing it gives voice to those most affected by the changing landscape of Myanmar's education and wider reform process the students and parents of all ethnic backgrounds teachers teacher trainees and university staff that are rarely heard The Politics of Structural Education Reform Keith A. Nitta, 2008-01-07 Education policymaking is traditionally seen as a domestic political process The job of deciding where students will be educated what they will be taught who will teach them and how it will be paid for clearly rests with some mix of district state and national policymakers This book seeks to show how global trends have produced similar changes to very different educational systems in the United States and Japan Despite different historical development social norms and institutional structures the U S and Japanese education systems have been restructured over the past dozen years not just incrementally but in ways that have transformed traditional power arrangements Based on 124 interviews this book examines two restructuring episodes in U S education and two restructuring episodes in Japanese education The four episodes reveal a similar politics of structural education reform that is driven by symbolic action and bureaucratic turf wars which has ultimately hindered educational improvement in both countries Neo-liberal Educational Reforms David Turner, Hüseyin Yolcu, 2013-12-17 This volume gathers a cast of eminent scholars for a critical and comparitive analysis of how neoliberal education policies have functioned in a range of countries in different stages of economic development Treating case studies from Europe Asia the Americas and the Middle East the volume shows how globalization operates differently in different societal contexts and Educational Reform in the Progressive-Era South Rebecca S. Montgomery, 2018-12-05 Celeste Parrish and Educational Reform in the Progressive Era South follows a Civil War orphan's transformation from a Southside Virginia public school teacher to a nationally known progressive educator and feminist In this vital intellectual biography Rebecca S Montgomery places feminism and gender at the center of her analysis and offers a new look at the postbellum movement for southern educational reform through the life of Celeste Parrish Because Parrish's life coincided with critical years in the destruction and reconstruction of the southern social order her biography provides unique opportunities to explore the links between southern nationalism reactionary racism and gender discrimination Parrish's pursuit of higher education and a professional career pitted her against male opponents of coeducation who regarded female and black dependency as central to southern regional distinctiveness When coupled with women's lack of formal political power this resistance to gender equality discouraged progress and lowered the quality of public education throughout the South The marginalization of women within the reform movement headed by the Conference for Education in the South further limited women s contributions to regional change Although men welcomed female participation in grassroots organization much of women s work was segregated in female networks and received less public acknowledgement than the reform work conducted by men Despite receiving little credit for their accomplishments by working on the margins women were able to use the southern movement and its philanthropic sponsors as alternate sources of influence and power By exploring the consequences of gender discrimination for both educational reform and the influence of southern progressivism Rebecca S Montgomery contributes a nuanced understanding of how interlocking hierarchies of power structured opportunity and influenced the shape of reform in the U S South Research and Education Reform National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on the Federal Role in Education Research, 1992-02-01 The Office of Educational Research and Improvement OERI in the U.S. Department of Education has a mandate for expanding knowledge of teaching and learning and for improving education in this country This book focuses on how OERI can better fulfill that mission in light of what is known about why prior education reforms have often failed what is needed to enhance the effectiveness of such efforts and what education research and development can contribute to better schools The history mission governance organization functions operations and budgets of OERI are analyzed Recommendations are made for restructuring OERI expanding funding involving scholars from many fields and engaging teachers and school principals in improvement efforts Education Reform in Japan Leonard James Schoppa, 2002-03-11 The Japanese education system while widely praised in western countries is subject to heavy criticism within Japan Education Reform in Japan analyses this criticism and explains why proposed reforms have failed The author shows how the Japanese policy making process can become paralysed when there is disagreement and argues that this immobilism can affect other areas of Japanese policy making Mapping the Terrain of Education Reform Vicente Chua Reves, Jr., 2015-06-26 This book envisions the formulation of critical perspectives on education reform using the Philippine experience recognizing the need to address relevant issues and challenges particularly in an increasingly globalized twenty first century setting A specific education reform project the Leaders and Educators in Asia Programme LEAP a joint effort between the Philippines Department of Education the Ateneo de Manila University in the Philippines the National Institute of Education Singapore and Singapore s Temasek Foundation serves as the analytical focus of how education reform as a globalized movement is implemented interpreted and made sense of by stakeholders involved in the reform project This inquiry proposes to examine the problematique of education reform from a Philippine perspective by focusing on three analytical starting points 1 describing the most relevant and urgent issues of education reform 2 diagnosing the causes and consequences of reform failures and 3 developing critical and contextualized perspectives on reform trajectories Mapping the Terrain of Education Reforms Global trends and local responses in the Philippines discusses the following Challenges against effective education reforms The oscillation between global and local imperatives The dissociation between policymakers and practitioners Education reform aid in the Philippines This book will be of interest to researchers interested in education policy politics and reforms It will also appeal to scholars examining Asian and particularly Southeast Asian educational systems Education Reform in China Janette Ryan, 2013-07-03 This book examines the extensive reforms at the early childhood primary and secondary levels which have taken place in China in recent years including those in curriculum goals structure and content teaching and learning approaches and assessment and administrative structures Change and Tradition in Global Education Reform Iris C. Rotberg, 2010-04-16 In Balancing Change and Tradition in Global Education Reform Rotberg brings together examples of current education reforms in sixteen countries written by insiders This book goes beyond myths and stereotypes and describes the difficult trade offs countries make as they attempt to implement reforms in the context of societal and global change In some countries reforms are a response to major political or economic shifts in others they are motivated by large upsurges in immigration and increased student diversity Irrespective of the reasons for education reform all countries face decisions about resource allocation equality of educational opportunity across diverse populations access to higher education student testing and tracking teacher accountability school choice and innovation The essays in this volume reveal the policy choices about the school reforms made by countries throughout the world the consequences associated with these choices the role that societal values historical antecedents and political structures play in facilitating or constraining reform Balancing Change and Tradition in Global Education Reform is an invaluable resource for policymakers faculty students and anyone interested in how decisions made about the education system ultimately affect the quality of education educational access and social justice Health and Education Reforms in Rural China Li Li,2019-11-13 China witnessed an unprecedented economic boom in the past four decades but will soon see the end of demographic dividend With shrinking labor improving the quality of human capital could be one way to maintain China's remarkable growth The population in rural China accounts for 41% of the total population in China but the human capital development in rural China lags far behind the urban cities This book selects four major reforms on education and health in rural China and evaluates the impact of these reforms on human capital development Through rigorous econometric analysis the book looks at factors of the rural urban gap in human capital and the causal relationship between the reforms and the human capital development This book will be a useful reference for developing economies which are facing similar issues in the labor market Education Reform and Social Change Catherine E. Walsh, 2012-11-12 Education Reform and Social Change is about addressing and changing the structures policies and practices of schools that differentially advantage white middle class native English speakers over students of color for whom English may be a second or additional language It is also about helping people to think critically about what it is schools do and to consider more democratic participatory and equitable approaches The chapters in the text provide first hand documentation of the voices struggles and visions of students parent activists advocates attorneys and educators involved in educational and social change processes It chronicles real life efforts of people challenging the status quo and working to build a more participatory equitable and transformative future. The goal of this book is twofold first to consider the structures policies and practices that shape and limit educational change and learning and teaching and second to document grassroots collaborative and creative efforts to change them It offers a critical framework both for conceptualizing and for actualizing educational change Organized into four sections this book provides a theoretical and practical framework for thinking about educational reform and social change one that moves from the broader structural concerns that are embedded in policy to case studies that document activism and collaborative efforts to change school city and state policies to classroom based directions and initiatives and to the construction of personal and collective visions for a more democratic equitable and just education Each section includes an overview of the chapters necessary background information to help the reader contextualize what follows and guiding questions to encourage reflective thought and engagement with the text and to invite personal linkages Two resource sections are included at the end of the volume Radical Educational Reform Critical Pedagogy and Multicultural Education Selected Readings and Resources and National Organization Networks and Resources with a Critical Perspective

Education Reform and Education Policy in East Asia Ka-ho Mok,2006-06-28 This book assesses the impact of globalization on the education systems of key East Asian countries including China Hong Kong Japan and the tiger economies of South Korea Taiwan and Singapore examining how the increasingly interdependent economic system has driven policy change and education reform It discusses how policy makers have responded to changes required in educational outcomes in order to equip their societies for new global conditions and explores the impact of new approaches and ideologies related to globalization such as marketization privatization governance changes managerialism economic rationalism and neo liberalism making comparisons across the region Based upon in depth research fieldwork literature analysis policy document analysis and personal reflections of academics serving in the education sector this volume recounts heated debates about the pros and cons of education restructuring in East Asia The discussions on national responses and coping strategies in this volume offer highly relevant insights on how globalization has resulted in restructuring and draws lessons from comparative public policy analysis and comparative education studies Education Reform--putting the Needs of Our Children First United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and the Workforce. Subcommittee on Early Childhood, Youth, The Frontier of Education Reform and Development in China Dandan Guo, 2023-01-02 This book and Families, 1999 covers education theory and philosophy basic education education economy management and other fields focusing on the hot and frontier issues of Education reform and development in China 2020 The articles in this book has been translated from Educational Research the top academic journal in the field of education research in China It addresses the current issues and status of Chinese education and pays a close attention on it Educational researchers in the college and university educational policymakers and frontline teaching staff would be interested in it By focusing on the current hot issues and frontier education issues we want to explore the deep theoretical basis behind the phenomenon so as to establish in the reader s mind the connections between theory and practice China and world
