Educational Subnormality Sally Tomlinson, 2018-09-03 First published in 1981 Based on a three year study of children moving into special ESN M education in an English city in the mid 1970s this book questions the whole concept of mild educational subnormality by examining the criteria according to which professionals make decisions to place children within this stigmatised category It suggests that the beliefs that the professionals hold about the behavioural family and class characteristics of the children help to determine their judgements and that these beliefs are related to their own position within the social structure

Education and Race from Empire to Brexit Sally Tomlinson, 2019-03-27 Covering the period from the height of Empire to Brexit and beyond this book shows how the vote to leave the European Union increased hostilities towards racial and ethnic minorities and migrants Concentrating on the education system it asks whether populist views that there should be a British identity or a Scottish Irish or Welsh one will prevail Alternatively arguments based on equality human rights and economic needs may prove more powerful It covers events in politics and education that have left most white British people ignorant of the Empire the often brutal de colonisation and the arrival of immigrants from post colonial and European countries It discusses politics and practices in education race religion and migration that have left schools and universities failing to engage with a multiracial and multicultural society

Hall, 1997-01-01 Presents interesting and complex arguments about the two education services which run in parallel mainstream and special ACE Bulletin a detailed account of the history of special education present legislation and the rise of the educational psychologist helpful advice on the politics of statementing how parents can secure the placement they want and how to make the best use of current legislation The helpful glossary of terms and the splendid appendix of useful organisations independent voluntary and self help add much to the value of this thought provoking book ISIS This book is essential reading not just for anyone interested in creating inclusive education but for understanding why it is so difficult to achieve in spite of the goodwill of many Values Into Action the author relentlessly exposes the underpinning false justifications and dire consequences of segregation for already vulnerable children who have special needs Evidence is accumulated to show that a radical shift in how we view and how we treat disabled children is long overdue This book is essential reading not just for anyone interested in creating inclusive education but for understanding why it is so difficult to achieve in spite of the goodwill of many There is no other book currently available to compare with this one Educational Psychology in Practice The author examines a number of key issues but focuses essentially on the right of children to belong to the mainstream the author does us a service in extending the debate on our professional role within an imperfect system with limited resources British Journal of Educational Psychology The integration versus segregation debate is the single most important issue in special education The medical model of disability has proved unhelpful attention is turning to the principle

Theories And Practices Of Discipline Roger Slee,2020-04-03 Behaviour problems in our schools occupy a considerable part of the education agenda and media attention The major thrust of the literature has been on the provision of new classroom management approaches Too often these packages are inappropriate to the specific context of the school and its pupils There are no quick fix solutions In this book Slee proposes a critical re examination of the school discipline issue In doing so he provides an overview of policy change an examination of the major schools of thought on student discipline a reconsideration of the context in which young people teachers and schools now find themselves and practical responses for addressing all levels of discipline policy making Special Education and Social Interests Len Barton,Sally Tomlinson,2012
