Educational Psychology: Constructing Learning Dennis M McInerney, 2013-08-15 Educational Psychology Constructing Learning 6e sets the standard for educational psychology texts in Australia and New Zealand with its comprehensive authoritative and research based coverage of the subject. This edition includes completely updated content to reflect recent advances in the discipline including revised theory into practice features from 39 international developmental psychologists. The author has retained the constructivist approach that made previous editions so engaging and relevant to student teachers and content has been constructed around the new Australian Profession Standards for Teachers.

Developing Effective 16-19 Teaching Skills John Butcher, 2004-11-25 Developing Effective 16-19 Teaching Skills aims to enhance the competence of student teachers in secondary schools and FE college as they confront sixteen to nineteen teaching for the first time. Based around the new standards set out in Qualifying to Teach and the Fento standards, the book will help student teachers address the different teaching strategies needed to teach post sixteen students. The book will also appeal to practising teachers who are looking for a fresh perspective. Full of case studies and questions for reflection, this comprehensive textbook includes chapters on sixteen to nineteen teaching, contextualized effectiveness, defined avoiding preconceptions, sixteen to nineteen planning for differentiation, subject expertise, assessment, sixteen to nineteen active learning in the sixteen to nineteen classroom, the importance of the tutor role in sixteen to nineteen teaching, learning with colleagues, developing a career in sixteen to nineteen teaching, Emphasizing the minimal attention given to sixteen to nineteen teaching in the Standards for Secondary QTS, the book is organized to prompt trainee teachers to draw more fully on sixteen to nineteen evidence and enhance their competence and confidence in teaching that phase. Trainee college teachers are also given a route to meeting the FENTO standards.

Developing Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Gill Nicholls, 2002-11 This book provides an easy and accessible approach to the planning and preparation of teaching sessions, teaching in different settings and teaching across a diverse student population.

Learning and Teaching Skills Among Teacher Candidates Héfer Bembenutty,Marie C. White,Miriam R. Vélez,2015-06-09 During the last several decades self regulation of learning has permeated all areas of learning and development including teaching preparation programs Self regulatory competences are essential for successful academic achievement and performance This book is written for teacher candidates to believe that if they heard a call to teach they can see in each paragraph of this book that they can do it Teacher candidates reading this book will find themselves vicariously portrayed in the journey of the four teacher candidates described in this book They can empathize with their struggles but will also find assurance that through self regulation their own journeys and dreams could have great outcomes This book is also written for teacher educators in teaching education programs so that they would realize that by transforming their curriculum in light of new findings on self regulation they could facilitate the training process of teacher candidates under their supervision and that self regulation of learning and teaching matters for teacher candidates Drawing on a rich body of research and theory on self regulation of learning Bembenutty White and Vélez present compelling case studies indicating that the capability of teacher candidates to self regulate their attainment of educational goals depends on their exposure to self regulated teacher educators especially as they model scaffold and mentor in classroom settings This important text gives numerous examples of how teacher educators can become role models and agents for self regulatory change and it will be an invaluable resource for courses in education psychology and human development Barry J Zimmerman Professor Emeritus Graduate Center The City University of New York In an effective blend of theory and case histories Bembenutty White and V lez provide valuable information and advice for prospective teachers and teacher educators Their focus on help seeking is critical given the array of resources available to overcome early difficulties especially for teachers with significant challenges Also important is helping them understand the role of delay of gratification in the face of expanding sources of distraction Stuart A Karabenick Research Professor University of Michigan This book builds a really strong case for the importance of self regulation in teacher education Moreover it tells a fascinating story of educational success against the odds made possible by personal stamina as well as contextual support Both teacher students and teacher educators around the world will find this book a wonderful inspiration Ivar Br ten Professor University of Oslo Norway This is a practical book which provides a compelling narrative with page after page on teacher self regulatory functioning I recommend this book for teacher preparation programs and I will definitely share it with many of my students and colleagues Anastasia Kitsantas Professor George Mason University
