Committee on Appropriations,1962 Entrepreneurship in a Regional Context Michael Fritsch,David Storey,2017-08-17 Enterprise and entrepreneurship is of strong interest to policy makers because new and small firms can be a key contributor to job and wealth creation However this contribution varies spatially with some areas in a country having new firm formation rates that are up to three or four times higher than others The vast majority of these new firms begin in the geographical area in which the founder lives works or was born emphasising that entrepreneurship is a local event The book documents a diversity of research approaches to examining the regional determinants of entrepreneurship in countries as contrasting as India and Sweden The Editors call is for scholars to better understand the long run factors that influence enterprise at the local and regional level For policy makers the Editors challenge is for them to be much clearer about the targets for their policies Is it new firms new jobs productivity and does it matter where these targets are delivered This book was published as a special issue of Regional Studies The American Economist ,2004 Handbook of Defense Economics Todd Sandler,Keith Hartley,2007-04-12 The second volume of the Handbook of Defense Economics addresses defense needs practices threats and policies in the modern era of globalization This new era concerns the enhanced cross border flows of all kinds e g capital and labor flows revolutionary rhetoric guerrillas and terrorists including the spillovers of benefits and costs associated with public goods and transnational externalities i e uncompensated interdependencies affecting two or more nations These ever increasing flows mean that military armaments and armies are less able to keep out security threats Thus novel defense and security barriers are needed to protect borders that are porous to terrorists pollutants political upheavals and conflicts Even increased trade and financial flows imply novel security challenges and defenses Globalization also underscores the importance of a new set of institutions e g the European Union and global governance networks and agents e g nongovernmental organizations and partnerships This volume addresses the security challenges in this age of globalization where conflicts involve novel tactics new technologies asymmetric warfare different venues and frightening weapons Volume 2 contains topics not covered in volume 1 i e civil wars peacekeeping economic sanctions the econometrics of arms races conversion peace economics and the interface of trade peace and democracy Volume 2 also revisits topics from volume 1 where there has been a significant advancement of knowledge i e conflict analysis terrorism arms races arms trade military manpower and arms industries All of the main securities concerns of today are analyzed Chapters are written by the leading contributors in the topic areas Up to date surveys on the pressing defense issues theoretical empirical and policy issues Coverage of theoretical and empirical studies of terrorism Contributions by the leading researchers in the field of defense economics Fiscal Policies and Growth in the World Economy Jacob A.
