Scrase, 2021-12-12 First Published in 1997 In much of the comparative education literature questions of educational inequality and lack of educational opportunity in the developing world stand as perplexing complex and difficult problems Yet while inequality in education remains one of the most researched and written about topics in the discipline the question of social justice and its relationship to education remains implicit This volume aims to reverse this trend to make the issue of social justice both in theory and practice central and explicit Journal of Integrative Humanism Vol. 6 No. 1 Faculty of Arts University of Cape Coast, Ghana, 2016-02-15 Dear Reader Thank you for purchasing your copy of the Journal of Integrative Humanism Ghana Integrative Perspective Volume Six Number 1 October 2015 You now have an international journal of the Faculty of Arts University of Cape Coast Ghana Articles in this volume are authored by high profile researchers from various Universities in sub-Saharan Africa In this special edition you have the privilege of reading recent world class researches whose scope is global though with relevance to Africa in areas such as politics improved education philosophy computing and dress code We hope your mind will be whetted and your knowledge increased by the time you read relevant articles in this volume Please send your constructive comments to the Publishing Consultant ediomnsng@gmail.com or should you wish to publish here sent a statement of interest to goddyozumba@yahoo.com Edet Otu Publishing Consultant University of Sheffield United Kingdom Science in Primary Schools: The Multicultural Dimension Alan Peacock, 2006-05-23 Designed to help primary school teachers build a multicultural dimension into their teaching of science this book provides a wide variety of practical ideas for use in both multi-ethnic and all-white classrooms The contributors also examine the underlying rationale for a multicultural approach to science education Education Strategy in the Developing World Christopher S. Collins, Alexander W. Wiseman, 2012-03-06 Following the development of a Concept Note for the World Bank Education Strategy 2020 the World Bank engaged in a series of activities to garner feedback about the strategy In early 2011 a revised strategy was published Learning for All Investing in People's Knowledge and Skills to Promote Development This title deals with this topic The City in the Developing World Robert B. Potter, Sally Lloyd-Evans, 2014-09-25 The City in the Developing World is a comprehensive and up-to-date introduction to urbanisation in developing countries The goal of this text is to place an understanding of the developing world city in its wider global context First this is done by developing the concept of social surplus product as a key to understanding the character of the contemporary Third World city Second throughout this text the city in developing areas is centrally placed in the context of global social economic political and cultural change Thus the important themes of globalisation modernity and postmodernity are examined both in relation to the structure of sets of towns and cities which make up the national or regional urban system and in respect of ideas and concepts dealing with the morphology structure and social patterning of individual urban areas

The City in the Developing World is a core text for second and third year undergraduates in the fields of geography development studies planning economics and the social sciences taking options which deal with development issues development theory gender and development and Third World development
