Educational Inequalities Kalwant Bhopal, Uvanney Maylor, 2013-11-07 While there is considerable literature on social inequality and education there is little recent work which explores notions of difference and diversity in relation to race class and gender This edited text aims to bring together researchers in the field of education located across many international contexts such as the UK Australia USA New Zealand and Europe Contributors investigate the ways in which dominant perspectives on difference intersectionality and institutional structures underpin and reinforce educational inequality in schools and higher education They emphasize the importance of international perspectives and innovative methodological approaches to examining these areas and seek to locate the dimensions of difference within recent theoretical discourses with an emphasis on race class and gender as key categories of analysis

Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics Tahir Abbas,2011-03 The emergence of an Islamic political radicalism in Britain has been one of the most dramatic developments in post war society Islamic Radicalism and Multicultural Politics explores the context behind this phenomenon focusing on post war immigration and integration the complex relations that exist between Britain and Islam and the true extent of social and economic inequalities that affect Muslims American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 21:3

Christopher Allen,Tahir Abbas,Halil Ibrahim Yenigun,Nancy Gallagher,Nancy L. Stockdale,Jasmin Zine, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS is an interdisciplinary journal that publishes a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world anthropology economics history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Submissions are subject to a blind peer review process Social Capital, Professionalism and Diversity

,2009-01-01 Social Capital Professionalism and Diversity is a response to the challenges faced by teachers and other public sector professionals in attempting to manage an increasingly diverse population whilst simultaneously being subjected to public scrutiny through measures of performance Social capital has increasingly been seen by policy makers and academics as a possible resource for education allowing children and young people and the professionals who work with them to do better as a result of having strong networks relationships and trust There has however been little attention to how social capital might actually be used by professionals within educational contexts or to the benefits of enhanced social capital for children and young people their families and the professionals themselves The contributors to this volume provide commentaries on what is known about social capital and its use in educational contexts the engagement of teachers and other professionals with diversity and social capital and diversity among children young people and families Social Capital Professionalism and Diversity will appeal to teacher educators and policymakers with concerns about the challenges faced by teachers and other public sector professionals and with an interest in how social capital might enable an effective response to diversity in educational contexts The book will be of particular interest and use to student and beginning teachers in responding to diversity as they develop their own professional identities and to practising teachers with an interest in pursuing new forms of professional renewal Education, Aspiration and Upward Social Mobility Aqsa

Saeed,2022-02-28 This book explores the career aspirations achievements and consequent social mobility of a group of British Pakistani women It uses Bourdieu s concept of cultural capital to analyse how these women living in a segregated Pakistani community located in a deprived northern town in the UK with poor employment opportunities acquired the resources to pursue further and higher education obtain qualifications and enter professional careers The author discusses and analyses how cultural capital features in homes schools and workplaces as well as how the women navigate and modify intersecting gender ethnic and class identities in order to create specific career trajectories Illuminating the rich intersections of biography history and society the author captures important qualitative data which acts as a microcosm for contemporary discussions on social mobility multiculturalism Muslim communities race and gender in Britain Ebook:
