Westerlund, 2024-01-01 This book challenges the dominant expertise professionalism rationale for music education by responding to the call to develop ecological awareness at a time when all professions have a moral obligation to place sustainable and interdependent life at the center

The book aims to expand music education's professional horizons to acknowledge the responsibility of the music field to contribute to the demands of complex questions of sustainability and identify the ways in which sustainable music education may be strengthened through an activist relational ecological stance. It suggests a radical moral turn by asking: What if music education is recognised as part of the problem of sustaining unsustainability? and What if music teacher education was developed in and through dialogue with a futures perspective?
