Paradoxes in Education Rosemary Sage, 2017-11-10 The world of 2017 is unrecognisable In September a robot YuMi with incredibly expressive nuances will conduct a Tuscan orchestra while Andrea Bocelli sings Woman is Fickle La donna mobile from Verdi's Rigoletto University students have invented a rowbot which is faster than the Cambridge and Oxford boat crews in the annual regatta and they are challenging rivals to compete in a new hi tech event the Rowbot race The Australians have developed Hadrian X which can lay 1000 bricks an hour a task that would take two humans a day or two De Laval

International s cow milking robot is being deployed in America to challenge the humans All routine jobs will soon be carried out by robotic machines This situation is depressing students who are striving to find jobs and feeling overwhelmed by the enormity of life Education promotes compliant rather than creative learners employing out dated teaching models which aimed to prepare pupils for routine work in factories and other places Today these mundane tasks are being taken over by artificial intelligence so greater attention to learning needs and personal development is required for higher level work to be ahead of our new robot rivals Students must acquire excellent abilities to communicate collaborate and create for coping with a rapidly changing challenging complex world This book is the output of the first UK Doctorates by Professional Record who have studied present society needs formulating and implementing new ideas into their practice to make learning more holistic relevant and fun Their suggestions encourage us to reflect review and refine our present outdated systems and produce a blue print for a brave new world Stories will make you smile at successes and wince at the failures Sharing experiences supports energises and expands learning The authors hope that students will not leave school hanging on the negatives but will in future be swinging with the positives that a radical new approach to learning brings for them Chapters in this book are contributed by Jonathan Adeniji Max Coates Richard Davies Rob Loe Pauline Lovelock Riccarda Matteucci Elizabeth Negus Kim Orton Luke Sage Rosemary Sage and Sera Shortland

John Rawls and American Pragmatism Daniele Botti, 2019-10-11 The textual and contextual connections between John Rawls s intellectual figure and American pragmatism broadly conceived have become topics of discussion only recently This is at least in part due to the fact that Rawls seemed to have taken a pragmatic turn in his intellectual trajectory from A Theory of Justice 1971 to Political Liberalism 1993 John Rawls and American Pragmatism Between Engagement and Avoidance intervenes in these discussions with two unconventional claims corroborated by archival research First Daniele Botti shows that Rawls s thinking owes more to the American pragmatists views than is generally recognized Second and in the light of the pragmatist sources of Rawls s thinking Botti argues that we should reverse the common narrative about Rawls s alleged pragmatic turn and interpret it as a quite un pragmatic one By making the case for interpreting Rawls as an American pragmatist this book profoundly transforms not only a widely held interpretation about Rawls s intellectual trajectory but also our understanding of American philosophical vicissitude in the second half of the twentieth century

Islam and Higher Education Marodsilton Muborakshoeva, 2013 This book explores the different concepts of a university and the way they shape practice in Muslim contexts with a particular focus on the Islamic republic of Pakistan Higher education in Muslim contexts is often criticised for being incapable either of contributing to the socio cultural and civilisational developments of society or of doing research and producing knowledge of a high standard While the international organisations accuse universities of not helping the societies to become knowledge based and to compete at the global level some Muslim scholars call for the creation of authentic Islamic educational structures that would as they think solve the problems of higher education
