'Eisenstein was Great Eater' Theodore van Houten,1991 'Eisenstein was Great Eater' Theodore van Houten,1991

The Griffith Project, Volume 12 Paolo Cherchi Usai,2019-07-25 THE GRIFFITH PROJECT Paolo Cherchi Usai General Editor Volume 12 Essays on D W Griffith Edited by Paolo Cherchi Usai and Cynthia Rowell With contributions by William M Drew Helmut F rber Andr Gaudreault Philippe Gauthier Lea Jacobs Joyce Jesionowski Charlie Keil Richard Koszarski Arthur Lennig Pat Loughney David Mayer Russell Merritt Jan Olsson Paul Spehr Yuri Tsivian Linda Williams In early 1996 an international group of 35 specialists in silent cinema volunteered to write commentaries on more than six hundred films directed written produced and supervised by D W Griffith or featuring him as a performer for the eleven volume series The Griffith Project the largest monograph ever assembled on an individual film director in conjunction with the massive retrospective held at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival from 1996 to 2008 All authors involved in The Griffith Project were bound to strict editorial rules most notably the fact that all titles in the series would be assigned to them in pre determined groups rather than as a result of their own individual preference for this or that specific entry The patience and commitment demonstrated by all scholars in this endeavor requires at least a symbolic recognition We therefore invited the members of the project team to write an essay on a D W Griffith related topic of their own choice The papers included in this volume constitute the response to our carte blanche invitation Our offer was also extended to other experts on D W Griffith who for various reasons were unable to participate in The Griffith Project but consistently supported it with their generous advice and insight This volume brings The Griffith Project to completion as 2008 sees the last installment of the D W Griffith program at the Pordenone Silent Film Festival with the screening of his films produced between 1925 and 1931 Not surprisingly twelve years of research on D W Griffith have unearthed an impressive wealth of knowledge but also an equally amazing array of new questions certainly enough of them to fill several more volumes Some of them including the increasingly complex issue of D W Griffith s role as production supervisor are only introduced or barely mentioned here but we are confident that what we have called the Griffith Project will continue at the Giornate and elsewhere with more research and newly found or preserved prints PAOLO CHERCHI USAI is Director of the National Film and Sound Archive of Australia He is co founder of the Pordenone Silent Film Festival and of the L Jeffrey Selznick School of Film Preservation at George Eastman House Rochester New York He directed the experimental feature film Passio 2007 His latest book is David Wark Griffith Editrice Il Castoro 2008 Jacques Offenbach and the Making of Modern Culture Laurence Senelick,2017-09-21 Provides a fresh and global perspective on the works and influence of a nineteenth century musical and theatrical phenomenon Silent Cinema and the Politics of Space Jennifer M. Bean,Anupama Kapse,Laura Horak,2014-04-02 In this cross cultural history of narrative cinema and media from the 1910s to the 1930s leading and emergent scholars explore the transnational crossings and exchanges that occurred in early cinema between the two world wars Drawing on film archives from around the world this volume advances the premise that silent cinema freely crossed national borders and linguistic thresholds in ways that became far less possible after the emergence of sound These essays address important questions about the uneven forces geographic economic political psychological textual and experiential that underscore a non linear approach to film history The messiness of film history as demonstrated here opens a new realm of inquiry into unexpected political social and aesthetic crossings of silent cinema

Monuments Askew Maria Corrigan, 2025-08-12 Monuments Askew An Elliptical History of the Factory of the Eccentric Actor presents a cultural history of the Factory of the Eccentric Actor FEKS an avant garde collective of Ukrainian artists whose unique approach to monumental history generated a new kind of cinema for a modernizing Soviet era Often lost in the shuffle of this period FEKS s vibrant and experimental cinematic output initiated a youthful and cheeky overhaul of Soviet revolutionary culture Monuments Askew reveals the foundational role of this understudied group of artists including Grigori Kozintsev and Leonid Trauberg and uses their own theoretical contributions to undo the foundations of our understanding of Soviet media and arts As a counter to a solely cinema focused conceptualization of this era Corrigan develops a transnational media theory of eccentricity Defining eccentric circles as warped irregular orbits that force a realignment of centers Monuments Askew shows how FEKS s body of work inspires an eccentric realignment of the pillars of Soviet visual culture and indeed of monumentality itself

Western Crime Fiction Goes East Boris Dralyuk, 2012-09-06 This book examines the staggering popularity of early twentieth century Russian detective serials Traditionally maligned as Pinkertonovshchina these appropriations of American and British detective stories featuring Nat Pinkerton Nick Carter Sherlock Holmes Ethel King and scores of other sleuths swept the Russian reading market in successive waves between 1907 and 1917 and famously experienced a red resurgence in the 1920s under the aegis of Nikolai Bukharin The book presents the first holistic view of Pinkertonovshchina as a phenomenon and produces a working model of cross cultural appropriation and reception The red Pinkerton emerges as a vital missing link between pre and post Revolutionary popular literature and marks the fitful start of a decades long negotiation between the regime the author and the reading masses
