Scripts People Live Claude Steiner, 2007-12-01 A stimulating and thought provoking guide to help you make productive and autonomous choices toward rewriting your life Los Angeles Times We choose a life script at an early age But you can change its course Whether born into wealth or poverty into nurturing families or damaged abusers fostered by strict parents or careless and undisciplined ones each individual still has a spiritual core that exists independent of the environment and is equally crucial to his or her destiny Countering the fundamental principle of psychiatry which asserts that emotional and mental distress comes from within Claude Steiner believes that people are innately healthy but develop a pattern early in life based upon negative or positive influences of those around them Those influences can rule every detail of our lives until our death Thus children decide however unconsciously whether they will be happy or depressed winners or failures strong or dependent caring or cruel and having decided they spend the rest of their lives making that decision come true For those who choose to live by their

Authorship in Film Adaptation Jack Boozer, 2009-06-03

Authoring a film adaptation of a literary source not only requires a media conversion but also a transformation as a result of the differing dramatic demands of cinema The most critical central step in this transformation of a literary source to the screen is the writing of the screenplay The screenplay usually serves to recruit producers director and actors to attract capital investment and to give focus to the conception and production of the film project Often undergoing multiple revisions prior to production the screenplay represents the crucial decisions of writer and director that will determine how and to what end the film will imitate or depart from its original source

Authorship in Film Adaptation is an accessible provocative text that opens up new areas of discussion on the central process of adaptation surrounding the screenplay and screenwriter director collaboration In contrast to narrow binary comparisons of literary source text and film the twelve essays in this collection also give attention to the underappreciated role of the screenplay and film pre production that can signal the primary intention for a film Divided into four parts this collection looks first at the role of Hollywood s activist producers and major auteurs such as Hitchcock and Kubrick as they worked with screenwriters to formulate their audio visual goals The second part offers case studies of Devil in a Blue Dress and The Sweet Hereafter for which the directors wrote their own adapted screenplays Considering the variety of writer director working relationships that are possible Part III focuses on adaptations that alter genre time and place and Part IV investigates adaptations that alter stories of romance sexuality and ethnicity
