"There has been a lot of changes here since the 1900s, and the North End has many more changes on the north side of the bridge. Our lives were not the same then and we should be proud of our heritage."

This last month (1900-1910) around up the town had in Dartmouth's North End.

Many of our Dartmouth residents live in an area called, "the North End" and "the North End" is a place that is very old. It is also one of the largest and most beautiful areas of the North End and is also one of the most beautiful areas of the North End and is also one of the most beautiful areas of the North End.

The North End is a very old area and is also one of the

Jacobson, The Greene County Historical Society, 2007 The lovingly restored homes of many Eutaw citizens now laid to rest at Mesopotamia Cemetery depict the grace of the antebellum South First known as Oak Hill Cemetery Mesopotamia Cemetery was established around 1822 on present day Mesopotamia Street Eutaw the seat of Greene County boasts 50 structures listed on the National Register of Historic Places with many more eligible for nomination Greene was the most populous county in Alabama in 1850 and was widely regarded for its thriving and elegant communities Greene County and Mesopotamia Cemetery ties the beautifully carved marble tombstones in the Mesopotamia Cemetery to the extraordinary people who have shaped Greene County s history The 11th Alabama Volunteer Regiment in the Civil War Ronald G. Griffin, 2024-12-04 From inception to the final roll call this regimental history traces the 11th Regiment of Alabama Volunteers from its 1861 creation to the Confederate surrender at Appomattox The work follows the 11th Alabama through various battles including Manassas Fredericksburg Salem Church and Gettysburg Drawing on personal correspondence such as letters and diaries it presents the soldiers as individuals and contributes to the dialogue on why the typical Southern soldier fought in the war The geographical movement of the regiment throughout the war its key leaders and the organization of its companies are also discussed in detail There are 81 period photographs that add to the story of this remarkable unit Historic Architecture in Alabama Robert S. Gamble, 2001 Capitol Books Local 10 16 2009 16 99 The Journal of Sarah Haynsworth Gayle, 1827-1835 Sarah Haynsworth Gayle, 2023-11-15 The remarkable journal of the young wife of early Alabama governor John Gayle and a primary source of our knowledge about early Alabama and the antebellum American South Little Zion Shelly O'Foran, 2009-01-05

The arson attacks in early 2006 on a number of small Baptist churches in rural Alabama recalled the rash of burnings at dozens of predominantly black houses of worship in the South during the mid 1990s One of the churches struck by probable arson in 1996 was Little Zion Baptist Church in Boligee Alabama This book draws on the voices and memories of church members to share a previously undocumented history of Little Zion from its beginnings as a brush arbor around the time of emancipation to its key role in the civil rights movement to its burning and rebuilding with the help of volunteers from around the world Folklorist Shelly O Foran a Quaker who went to Boligee as a volunteer in the church rebuilding effort describes Little Zion as always having been much more than the building itself She shows how the spiritual and social traditions that the residents of Boligee practice and teach their children have assured the continued vitality of the church and community Through thoughtful fieldwork and presentation Little Zion also explores the power of oral narrative to promote understanding between those inside and outside the church community Illustrated with historical and contemporary photographs this volume is both a celebration of Little Zion s history and an invitation to share in its long life story
