Goose Lays An Egg:

The Goose That Laid the Golden Eggs--Reader's Theater Script & Fluency Lesson Kathleen E. Bradley, 2014-03-01 This reader's theater script builds fluency through oral reading. The creative script captures students' interest so they will want to practice and perform. Included is a fluency lesson and approximate reading levels for the script roles. Ten Fables for Teaching English Ellen M. Balla, 2000 Educational resource for teachers, parents, and kids. Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p. B. J. Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them. No one knows more about British and American proverbs than he. The present volume, based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820, complements his and Archer Taylor's Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820-1880. It differs from that work and from other standard collections, however, in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings: letters, diaries, histories, travel books, political pamphlets, and the like. The authors represent a wide cross section of the populace, from scholars and statesmen to farmers, shopkeepers, sailors, and hunters. Mr. Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out-of-the-way publications of local journals and historical societies. This body of material, because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before, can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together. According to Albert B. Friedman, "What makes the work important is Whiting's authority: a proverb or proverbial phrase is what B. J. W. thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase. There is no objective, operative definition of any value; no divining rod; his tact, feel, experience determine what's the real thing and what is spurious."

Encyclopædia of Superstitions, Folklore, and the Occult Sciences of the World Cora Linn Daniels, C. M. Stevans, 2003-11 Originally published in 1903, this is an excellent source for an historical perspective on superstitions and folklore. Hundreds of entries are arranged alphabetically within broad subject categories. The original subtitle reads: "A comprehensive library of human belief and practice in the mysteries of life through more than six thousand years of experience and progress, including the fundamental intuitions and instincts underlying the structure of civilization, theology, mythology, demonology, magic, witchcraft, esoteric philosophy, signs, omens, oracles, sorceries, auguries, divinations, prophecies, methods and means employed in revealing fortune and fate, systems and formulas for the use of psychical forces, hypnotism, clairvoyance, telepathy, spiritualism, character reading, and character building, with all the known powers and wonders of mind and soul, illustrated with numerous ancient and modern designs and thoroughly indexed." Bulletin, 1925. Life Histories of North American Wild Fowl Arthur Cleveland Bent, 1925 This bulletin is a continuation of the work on the life histories of North American birds from Bulletins 107, 113, 121, and 126. The same general plan has been followed, and the same sources of information have been utilized. This bulletin covers the Order Anseres, Anseriformes, the ducks, geese, and swans. Bulletin, United States National Museum, 1925. Bulletin of the United States National Museum, United
