Hill,2004-03-18 How were the Johannine books of the New Testament received by second century Christians and accorded scriptural status Charles E Hill offers a fresh and detailed examination of this question He dismantles the long held theory that the Fourth Gospel was generally avoided or resisted by orthodox Christians while being treasured by various dissenting groups throughout most of the second century Integrating a wide range of literary and non literary sources this book demonstrates the failure of several old stereotypes about the Johannine literature It also collects the full evidence for the second century Church s conception of these writings as a group the Johannine books cannot be isolated from each other but must be recognized as a corpus

African Americans and the Bible Vincent L. Wimbush,2012-09-01 Perhaps no other group of people has been as much formed by biblical texts and tropes as African Americans From literature and the arts to popular culture and everyday life the Bible courses through black society and culture like blood through veins Despite the enormous recent interest in African American religion relatively little attention has been paid to the diversity of ways in which African Americans have utilized the Bible African Americans and the Bible is the fruit of a four year collaborative research project directed by Vincent L Wimbush and funded by the Lilly Endowment It brings together scholars and experts sixty eight in all from a wide range of academic and artistic fields and disciplines including ethnography cultural history and biblical studies as well as art music film dance drama and literature The focus is on the interaction between the people known as African Americans and that complex of visions rhetorics and ideologies known as the Bible As such the book is less about the meaning s of the Bible than about the Bible and meaning s less about the world s of the Bible than about how worlds and the Bible interact in short about how a text constructs a people and a people constructs a text It is about a particular sociocultural formation but also about the dynamics that obtain in the interrelation between any group of people and sacred texts in general Thus African Americans and the Bible provides an exemplum of sociocultural formation and a critical lens through which the process of sociocultural formation can be viewed Gospel's Greatest (Songbook) Hal Leonard Corp.,2000-01-01 Fake Book This excellent resource for Gospel titles features 449 songs including Amazing Grace At the Cross Because He Lives Behold the Lamb Blessed Assurance Church in the Wildwood The Day He Wore My Crown Give Me That Old Time Religion He Looked Beyond My Fault He Touched Me Heavenly Sunlight His Eye Is on the Sparrow Holy Ground How Great Thou Art I Bowed on My Knees and Cried Holy I Saw the Light I d Rather Have Jesus In the Garden Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho Just a Little Talk with Jesus Lord I m Coming Home Midnight Cry Morning Has Broken My Tribute Near the Cross The Old Rugged Cross Precious Memories Rock of Ages Shall We Gather at the River There Is Power in the Blood We Shall Wear a Crown What a Friend We Have in Jesus and hundreds more
