Good Reasons and Persuasive Force Thomas M. Olszewsky, 1983

Giving Reasons Lilian Bermejo Luque, 2011-07-31

This book provides a new linguistic approach to Argumentation Theory Its main goal is to integrate the logical dialectical and rhetorical dimensions of argumentation in a model providing a unitary treatment of its justificatory and persuasive powers This model takes as its basis Speech Acts Theory in order to characterize argumentation as a second order speech act complex The result is a systematic and comprehensive theory of the interpretation analysis and evaluation of arguments This theory sheds light on the many faces of argumentative communication verbal and non verbal monological and dialogical literal and non literal ordinary and specialized The book takes into consideration the major current comprehensive accounts of good argumentation Perelman s New Rhetoric Pragma dialectics the ARG model the Epistemic Approach and shows that these accounts have fundamental weaknesses rooted in their instrumentalist conception of argumentation as an activity oriented to a goal external to itself Furthermore the author addresses some challenging meta theoretical questions such as the justification problem for Argumentation Theory models and the relationship between reasoning and arguing

Pragmatism and the Problem of Race Bill E. Lawson, Donald F. Koch, 2004-04-21 A collection of essays examining a pragmatic approach to racism How should pragmatists respond to and contribute to the resolution of one of America s greatest and most enduring problems Given that the most important thinkers of the pragmatist movement Charles S Peirce William James John Dewey and George Herbert Mead said little about the problem of race how does their distinctly American way of thinking confront the hardship and brutality that characterizes the experience of many African Americans in this country In twelve thoughtful and provocative essays contemporary American pragmatists connect ideas with action and theory with practice to come to terms with this seemingly intractable problem Exploring themes such as racism and social change the value of the concept of race the role of education in ameliorating racism and the place of democracy in dealing with the tragedy of race the voices gathered in this volume consider how pragmatism can focus new attention on the problem of race Contributors are Michael Eldridge Eddie S Glaude Jr Judith M Green D Micah Hester Donald F Koch Bill E Lawson David E McClean Gregory F Pappas Scott L Pratt Alfred E Prettyman John R Shook Paul C Taylor and Cornel West Argumentation and Language — Linguistic, Cognitive and Discursive Explorations Steve Oswald, Thierry Herman, Jérôme Jacquin, 2018-03-08 This volume focuses on the role language plays at all levels of the argumentation process It explores the effects that specific linguistic choices may have in the production and the reception of arguments and in doing so it moves beyond the first necessary descriptive stance provided by current literature on the topic Each chapter provides an original take illuminating one or more of the following three issues the range of linguistic resources language users draw on as they argue how cognitive processes of meaning construction may influence argumentative practices and which discursive devices can be used to fulfil a number of argumentative goals The volume includes theoretical and empirical or applied stances providing the reader both with state of the art reflections on the relationship between argumentation and language and with concrete examples of how this relationship plays out in naturally occurring argumentative practices such as classroom interaction and political parliamentary or journalistic discourse This is a very original timely and welcome contribution to the study of argumentation conducted with the tools of the language sciences The collection of papers relevantly tackles key linguistic discursive and cognitive aspects of argumentative practices whose treatment is underrepresented in mainstream argumentation studies by offering new and exciting linguistically grounded theoretical accounts As such the volume testifies both to the vigour of the linguistic current within the discipline and to the high standards of scholarly commitment and quality that the younger generation is pushing forward Without question this book marks an important milestone in the relationships between linguistics and argumentation theory Christian Plantin Professor Emeritus Critique of Violence Beatrice Hanssen, 2014-02-25 Critique of Violence is a highly original and lucid investigation of the heated controversy between poststructuralism and critical theory Leading theorist Beatrice Hanssen uses Walter Benjamin s essay Critique of Violence as a guide to analyse the contentious debate shifting the emphasis from struggle to dialogue between the two parties Regarding the questions of critique and violence as the major meeting points between both traditions Hanssen positions herself between the two in an effort to investigate what critical theory and poststructuralism have to offer each other In the course of doing so she assembles imaginative new readings of Benjamin Arendt Fanon and Foucault and incisively explores the politics of recognition the violence of language and the future of feminist theory This groundbreaking book will be essential reading for all students of continental philosophy political theory social studies and comparative literature Also available in this series
