Colonial India in Children's Literature Supriya Goswami,2012 Colonial India in Children s Literature is the first book length study to explore the intersections of children s literature and defining historical moments in colonial India Engaging with important theoretical and critical literature that deals with colonialism hegemony and marginalization in children s literature Goswami proposes that British Anglo Indian and Bengali children s literature respond to five key historical events the missionary debates preceding the Charter Act of 1813 the defeat of Tipu Sultan the Mutiny of 1857 the birth of Indian nationalism and the Swadeshi movement resulting from the Partition of Bengal in 1905 Through a study of works by Mary Sherwood 1775 1851 Barbara Hofland 1770 1844 Sara Jeanette Duncan 1861 1922 Rudyard Kipling 1865 1936 Upendrakishore Ray 1863 1915 and Sukumar Ray 1887 1923 Goswami examines how children s literature negotiates and represents these momentous historical forces that unsettled Britain s imperial ambitions in India Goswami argues that nineteenth century British and Anglo Indian children s texts reflect two distinct moods in Britain s colonial enterprise in India Sherwood and Hofland writing before 1857 use the tropes of conversion and captivity as a means of awakening children to the dangers of India whereas Duncan and Kipling shift the emphasis to martial prowess adaptability and empirical knowledge as defining qualities in British and Anglo Indian children Furthermore Goswami s analysis of early nineteenth century children s texts written by women authors redresses the preoccupation with male authors and boys adventure stories that have largely informed discussions of juvenility in the context of colonial India This groundbreaking book also seeks to open up the canon by examining early twentieth century Bengali children s texts that not only draw literary inspiration from nineteenth century British children s literature but whose themes are equally shaped by empire Satyajit Ray Andrew Robinson,1989-01-01 Profiles the life of the Indian director and discusses the making of each of his films Manik and I Bijoya Ray,2012-08-01 It is unusual to come across a life so rich in varied experiences as the one that Bijoya Ray wife and constant companion to the renowned film maker Satyajit Ray has lived Despite being closely related Satyajit Manik to his friends and family and Bijoya fell in love and embarked on a life together years before Ray s groundbreaking film Pather Panchali was made and their long happy married life lasted right until Ray s death in 1992 Bijoya Ray never felt the urge to write her memoirs but was finally persuaded to pick up the pen when she was well into her eighties Manik and I brims over with hitherto unknown stories of her life with Satyajit Ray told in candid vivid detail The Palgrave Handbook of Utopian and Dystopian Literatures Peter Marks,Jennifer A.
