Emmanuel Mounier And The New Catholic Left 1930 195:

Emmanuel Mounier and the New Catholic Left, 1930-1950 John Hellman, 1981 Anticommunism in French Society and Politics, 1945-1953 Aaron Clift, 2023-06-20 Anticommunism in French Society and Politics 1945 1953 evaluates the prevalence of anticommunism among the French population in 1945 to 1953 and examines its causes character and consequences through a series of case studies on different segments of French society These include the scouting movement family organisations agricultural associations middle class groups and trade unions and other working class organisations Aaron Clift contends that anticommunism was more widespread and deeply rooted than previously believed and had a substantial impact on national politics and on these social groups and organisations Furthermore he argues that the study of anticommunism allows us a deeper understanding of the values they regarded as the most important to defend Although anticommunism was a diverse phenomenon this work identifies common discourses including portrayals of communism as a threat to the nation the colonial empire the traditional family private property religion the rural world and Western civilisation It also highlights common aims such as the rehabilitation of wartime collaborators and tactics such as the invocation of apoliticism While acknowledging the importance of the Cold War it rejects the assumption that anticommunism was an American import or foreign to French society and demonstrates links between anticommunism and anti Americanism It concludes that anticommunism drew its strength from the connection or even conflation of communism with perceived negative social changes that were seen to threaten traditional French civilisation interacting with the postwar international and domestic environment and the personal experiences of individual anticommunists Popular Theatre and Political

Utopia in France, 1870—1940 Jessica Wardhaugh, 2017-10-20 This book is the first study of popular theatre in France from left to right exploring how theatre shapes political acts ideals and communities in the modern world As the French found innovative ways of imagining culture and politics in the age of the masses popular theatre became central to the republican project of using art to create citizens using secular spaces for the experience of civic communion But while state projects often faltered in finding playwrights locations and audiences popular theatre flourished on the political and geographical peripheries Drawing on extensive archival research this book illuminates lost worlds of political conviviality from anarchist communes and clandestine agit prop drama to royalist street politics and right wing mass spectacle It reveals new connections between French initiatives and their European counterparts and demonstrates the enduring strength of radical communities in shaping political ideals and engagement The Soul of Film Theory S. Cooper, 2013-05-30 In this innovative book Sarah Cooper revisits the history of film theory in order to bring to the fore the neglected concept of the soul and to trace its changing fortunes The Soul of Film Theory charts the legacy of this multi faceted contested term from the classical to the contemporary era In Pursuit of the People J. Wardhaugh, 2008-11-12 The first comparative study of how the French Popular Front and its right wing opponents transformed the masses into the people whether in demonstrations and festivals or theatre and film Seven chapters examine the representation of the crowd workers electorate nation and symbolic community exploring parallels between left and right Routledge Library Editions: Existentialism

Various,2021-06-23 This set collects together a vital selection of works on Existentialism including the key Introduction to the New Existentialism by Colin Wilson Some of the titles were early works written as this new philosophy spread into the English language while others are more recent examinations The Disarmament of Hatred G. Barry,2012-03-29

Documenting an audacious Franco German movement for moral disarmament instigated in 1921 by war veteran and French Catholic politician Marc Sangnier in this transnational study Gear id Barry examines the European resonance of Sangnier s Peace Congresses and their political and religious ecumenism within France in the era of two World Wars French Urban Planning, 1940-1968 W. Brian Newsome,2009 French Urban Planning 1940 1968 explores the creation and progressive dismantling of France s centralized authoritarian system of urban and architectural planning Established in the wake of World War II to facilitate the reconstruction and expansion of cities this planning program led to the evolution of large suburban housing estates plagued by inter intra family conflict juvenile delinquency and other social difficulties which sociologists connected to poor planning and design Critics began calling for the democratization of planning to remedy design problems and the government of Charles de Gaulle started reforming planning procedures in the late 1950s and early 1960s This book moves beyond technical and political issues to explore forces of religion gender and class that affected planning practices Key critics and state officials emerged from the Catholic Left Some were women from working class backgrounds and they manipulated gender stereotypes to insert working and middle class women into the design process Sometimes in opposition but often together these reformers initiated the most significant change of architectural and urban planning until the introduction of Fran ois Mitterrand s decentralization reforms in the 1980s French Urban Planning 1940 1968 will appeal to scholars and students interested in architectural urban and social trends in twentieth century France

Historical Reflections ,1983 Left Catholicism, 1943-1955 Gerd-Rainer Horn,Emmanuel Gerard,2001 Decisively shaped by the turbulent atmosphere of war occupation and resistance the years 1943 1955 gave rise to a most unusual flowering of progressive initiatives in Catholic politics theology and apostolic missions Though suffering severe setbacks in the deep freeze of the Cold War politics mid Century European Left Catholicism was not without influence in the subsequent emergence of Latin American Liberation Theology and the deliberations of the Vatican II This volume constitutes the first attempt to analyse the phenomenon of Western European Left Catholicism from a comparative and transnational perspective

Western European Liberation Theology Gerd-Rainer Horn,2008-10-09 Western European Liberation Theology is the first comprehensive survey of the development of a distinct progressive variant of Catholicism in twentieth century Western Europe This Left Catholicism served to lay the basis for the subsequent events and evolutions associated with Vatican II Initially emerging within the boundaries of Catholic Action fuelled by the growing power and self confidence of the Catholic laity a series of challenges to received wisdom and an array of novel experiments were launched in various corners of Western Europe. The moment of liberation from Nazi occupation and world war in 1944-45 turned out to be the highpoint of these optimistic paradigm shifts. Concentrating on interrelated developments in theology, Catholic politics and apostolic social action, Gerd Rainer Horn integrates evidence from Italian, French and Belgian national contexts. Drawing on his research in over twenty archives between Leuven and Rome, he highlights the role of organisations, social movements and intellectual trends. The pivotal contributions of key individuals are assessed from theologians such as Jacques Maritain and Emmanuel Mounier to the millenarian activist priests Don Zeno Saltini and Don Primo Mazzolari. In conclusion, Horn suggests that first wave Western European Left Catholicism served as an inspiration and constituted a prototype for subsequent Third World Liberation Theology.

Catholics on the Barricades Piotr H. Kosicki, 2018-01-01. In Poland in the 1940s and 50s a new kind of Catholicism intended to remake European social and political life not with guns but French philosophy. This collective intellectual biography examines generations of deeply religious thinkers whose faith drove them into public life including Karol Wojtyła, a future Pope John Paul II, and Tadeusz Mazowiecki, the future prime minister who would dismantle Poland's Communist regime. Seeking to change the way we understand the Catholic Church, World War II, the Cold War and communism, this study centers on the idea of revolution. It examines two crucial countries, France and Poland, while challenging conventional wisdom among historians and introducing innovations in periodization, geography and methodology. Why has much of Eastern Europe gone back down the road of exclusionary nationalism and religious prejudice since the end of the Cold War? Piotr H. Kosicki helps to understand the crises of contemporary Europe by examining the intellectual world of Roman Catholicism in Poland and France between the Church's declaration of war on socialism in 1891 and the demise of Stalinism in 1956.

Catholics, the State and the European Radical Right, 1919-1945 Richard J. Wolff, Jörg Konrad Hoensch, 1987.

The Birth and Impact of the Base Ecclesial Community Andrew Dawson, 1998-07. With its principal focus upon the years since 1959, this work draws on materials in Portuguese, Spanish and English as well as bringing to bear the disciplines of religious, sociological and historical studies. Analyzing the interplay of societal, institutional and theological factors which led to the emergence of the base ecclesial community and liberative theological discourse in Brazil, this work is of value to scholars and students alike who have a specific interest in either of these ecclesial phenomena or a general interest in the self-understanding and activity of the church in Latin America.
