Emergency Squad Volunteers JoAnn Gennaro Gora, Gloria Morris Nemerowicz, 1985      Professional Advances in Sports Coaching Richard Thelwell, Matt Dicks, 2018-12-07 Despite the rapid advance of the academic study of coaching science there is a dearth of evidence on contemporary progressions within the coaching profession itself particularly around the wide ranging challenges that coaches face Professional Advances in Sports Coaching constitutes an essential collection of the most innovative up to date reviews and research on professional issues in sports coaching and coaching psychology Seeking to assess and challenge contemporary conceptual and theoretical research around the evolving nature of the coach's role issues associated with athlete and coach welfare and societal demands of the coach the book covers topics as diverse as gender and spirituality within sports coaching working in culturally diverse environments and disability sport understanding hazing mental health issues and disordered eating in athletes moral behaviour and safeguarding high performance coaching and talent development communicating with athletes in the age of social media and managing cliques Written by leading experts from around the world every chapter clarifies and defines key concepts gives an up to date and comprehensive review of literature within the area and examines the implications for future research and applied practice This is a critical resource for any upper level student enrolled in sports coaching science or practice classes sports coaching academics with an interest in professional practice and practicing sports coaches      Emergency Medical Services, 1995      A Dictionary of

Nonprofit Terms and Concepts David Horton Smith, Robert A. Stebbins, Michael A. Dover, 2006-11-08 This reference work defines more than 1 200 terms and concepts that have been found useful in past research and theory on the nonprofit sector The entries reflect the importance of associations citizen participation philanthropy voluntary action nonprofit management volunteer administration leisure and political activities of nonprofits They also reflect a concern for the wider range of useful general concepts in theory and research that bear on the nonprofit sector and its manifestations in the United States and elsewhere This dictionary supplies some of the necessary foundational work on the road toward a general theory of the nonprofit sector      The Experience and Meaning of Work in Women's Lives Hildreth Y. Grossman, Nia Lane

Chester, 2013-04-15 In the past social scientists have relied predominantly on traditional models of work to understand women's experiences These models however have been based on men's occupational experiences which have been assumed to be the same for women More recently researchers and theorists from a variety of disciplines have begun to challenge earlier assumptions as inaccurate reflections of the realities for female workers Newer studies have concentrated on the historical and social reasons for women's employment and career choices including changes in economy family and social conditions To provide a deeper understanding of women worker's realities by including the meaning they make of their work experiences the editors have assembled the research of social scientists from various disciplines whose investigations focused exclusively on this subject Their qualitative methodology provides a forum for women to voice issues raise questions and share self reflections about their work experiences and the meaning they make of their work in the context of the rest of their lives The common themes that are interwoven within the fabric of women s work experience are the need to expand traditional definitions of what constitutes work the fluid nature of boundaries between personal life and work life the importance of the relational aspects of their work the issues related to the uses of power at work the role of work in the development of women s sense of self and personal identity and the degree to which women s work experience is colored by discrimination and sexism
