LoDato, 1999 The influence of the plastic arts especially painting and sculpture upon the Hispanic literary movement known as Modernismo is well documented Although numerous studies have referred to gems Beyond the Glitter focuses upon the significance of gems and jewels in elaborating Modernismo s complex aesthetics The role of gems and jewelry is discussed in the poetics of three prominent Modernista writers Ruben Dario Ramon del Valle Inclan and Jose Asuncion Silva The conclusion underscores how the rich and varied symbolism associated with jewelry and precious gems enriched the poetics of Modernista writers because it enabled them to articulate their quest for ideal beauty expressive of a sublime state of mind and spirit Galle Émile Gallé, 2014-11-25 An icon in the Art Nouveau movement mile Gall 1846 1904 sought to portray the beauty and simplicity of nature in his glass art His designs referred to as poetry in glass range from fine pottery to jewellery to furniture Everything Gall produced contains traces of his masterful technique which reflects his innovativeness as an artist and his skill as a designer In this rich text Gall unravels the beauty and ingenuity found within his own work Problems in the Art of Émile Gallé Jean Barbara Wohl, 1973 New York Magazine , 1977-04-18 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Emile Galle Hokkaidōritsu Kindai Bijutsukan, 2000 The Sketch , 1899 The Studio , 1903

Evolution and Extinction Fae Brauer, 2015-10-05 With the increasing loss of biological diversity in this Sixth Age of Mass Extinction it is timely to show that devolutionary paranoia is not new but rather stretches back to the time of Charles Darwin. It is also an opportune moment to show how human driven extinction as designated by the term Anthropocene has long been acknowledged. The halcyon days of European industrial progress, colonial expansion and scientific revolution trumpeted from the Great Exhibition of 1851 until the Dresden International Hygiene Exhibition of 1930 were constantly marred by fears of rampant degeneration, depopulation, national decline, environmental devastation and racial extinction. This is demonstrated by the discourses of catastrophism charted in this book that percolated across Europe in response to the theories of Darwin and Jean Baptiste Lamarck as well as Marcellin Berthelot, Camille Flammarion, Ernst Haeckel, Louis Landouzy, Félix Le Dantec, Cesare Lombroso, Thomas Huxley, Benoite Augustin Morel, Louis Pasteur, Lisé Reclus, Rudolf Steiner and Wilhelm Wundt among others. This book presents pioneering explorations of the interrelationship between these discourses and modern visual cultures and the ways in which the picturing of evolution and extinction by artists as diverse as Roger Broders, Albert Besnard, Fernand Cormon, Hélène Dufau, Mile Gall, František Kupka, Pablo Picasso, Charles Manigault, Roig, Sophie Taeuber and Vasilii Vatagin betrayed anxieties subliminally festering over degeneration alongside latent hopes of regeneration. Following Darwin's concept of evolution as Janus faced, the dialectical interplay of evolution and extinction and degeneration and regeneration is explored in modern visual cultures in Australia, America, Britain, France, Germany, Russia, Spain and Switzerland at significant spatio-temporal junctures between 1860 and 1930. By unravelling the picturing of the dread of alcoholism, cholera, dysentery, tuberculosis, typhoid and rabies alongside phobias of animalism, criminality, hysteria, impotency and ecological disaster, each chapter makes an original contribution to this new field of scholarship. By locating these discourses and visual cultures within the golden age of Neo-Lamarckism, they also reveal how regeneration was pictured as the Janus face of degeneration, able to facilitate evolution through the inheritance of beneficial characteristics in propitious environments. In striking such an uplifting note amidst the dissonant cacophony of catastrophism, this book reveals why the art and science of Transformism proved so appealing in France as elsewhere and why visual cultures of regeneration became as dominant in the twentieth century as the picturing of degeneration had been in the nineteenth century. It also illuminates the paradoxical inversion that occurred in the twentieth century when devolution became equivalent to evolution for many Modernists. Hence whilst this book opens with the picturing of indigenous people in Australia and North America as doomed races by the first publication of Darwin's On The Origin of Species, it closes with the quest by 1930 for a regenerative suntan as dark as the skin of those indigenous people.

Art Nouveau Victor Arwas, 2002 Rarely has a subject been served by a book of this stature. Five years in the making, it covers all aspects of Art Nouveau in France in 624 authoritative pages and 740 illustrations. Arwas traces the evolution of the movement as it developed primarily in Nancy and Paris with the help of carefully chosen illustrations many never published before Ranging from the 1900 Paris exhibition to paintings graphics and posters and such collecting fields as furniture jewellery ceramics book bindings and sculpture the informative witty text ranges over architecture haute couture and the role of women in Art Nouveau with a particular look at such theatrical icons as Sarah Bernhardt Lo e Fuller and the Grandes Horizontales Destined to become the standard book on the subject both content and design will appeal widely to the connoisseur the specialist and the collector as well as to the novice who will be introduced to the magical wonders of the style Weekly Florists' Review Gilbert Leonard Grant,1929 The Artist-Enterprise in the Digital Age Xavier Greffe,2016-06-29 This book is a monograph of cultural economics of a new concept artist enterprises It explores various dimensions that artists embody i e aesthetic critical messianic and economic ones and screens the multiple challenges faced by the artist enterprises in terms of pricing funding and networking in the Digital Age It shows how these artist enterprises are at the core of the contemporary creative industries Even when they are on their own artists have to demonstrate or manage a variety of skills sign contracts both in the early and later stages of their activities and also maintain relationships and networks that enable them to attain their artistic and economic goals They are no longer simply entrepreneurs managing their own skills but are the enterprises themselves The artist enterprises thus find themselves at the confluence of two dynamics of production artistic and economic artistic because they invent new expressions and meanings and economic because these expressions must be supported by monetary values on the market The artistic dynamic is part of a long process of artistic enhancement and only an artist can say whether it has reached the point of presentation or equilibrium The economic dynamic is dependent on the constant endorsement of artists works by the market to ensure their survival as artist enterprises The tension created by this disparity is further aggravated by another tension the need to overcome a number of risks so that artist enterprises can progress This book will be of special interest to artists managers students professionals and researchers in the fields of the arts creativity economics and development The author is Emeritus Professor at the University Paris I Panth on Sorbonne American Peony Society Bulletin ,1924

Bulletin of Peony News American Peony Society,1924 Includes reports of the society s meetings The Magazine of Art Marion Harry Spielmann,1898 Art Nouveau Gabriel P. Weisberg,Elizabeth K.
