Eminent Domain Iowa Short Fiction Award:

Eminent Domain Iljoong Kim,Hojun Lee,Ilya Somin,2017-04-03 The taking of private property for development projects has caused controversy in many nations where it has often been used to benefit powerful interests at the expense of the general public This edited collection is the first to use a common framework to analyze the law and economics of eminent domain around the world The authors show that seemingly disparate nations face a common set of problems in seeking to regulate the condemnation of private property by the state They include the tendency to forcibly displace the poor and politically weak for the benefit of those with greater influence disputes over compensation and resort to condemnation in cases where it destroys more economic value than it creates With contributions from leading scholars in the fields of property law and economics the book offers a comparative perspective and considers a wide range of possible solutions to these problems

Resurrectionists Russell Working,1987 Fruit of the Month Abby Frucht,1988 The Iowa Award Frank Conroy,1991 The Iowa Award was established in 1969 to provide a forum for the publication of a uniquely American literary form Prairie Schooner Lowry Charles Wimberly,1987 My Body To You Elizabeth Searle,1993-02-01 In the thirteen stories of My Body to You thirteen women or girls pilot their own bodies through a shifting universe of lovers old and young parents devoted and destructive sisters of different sexes children and adults living in the mysterious world of autism All these characters share keen powers of observations and a heightened sensuality In a wild variety of settings they struggle to control or dare to abandon themselves to their intensely private passions A woman in love with a gay man she calls Sister Kin attempts to escape the bonds of her own body An eighteen year old virgin enters into a passionate affair with an older man who turns out to be a virgin of a different sort A special education teacher in a school for aggressive teenagers finds herself attracted to another teacher also female An intelligent outcast girl bonds with her mindlessly seductive mother to form one person Searle reveals other characters through inventive and often comic feats of narrative daring A girl grows into womanhood during a single family dinner that spans twenty years A middle aged wife once dubbed The First Most Beautiful Woman in the World watches her former selves parade before her family in a lively evening of home movies Two women one recently divorced the other a group home resident in love with The Who join forces as they figure out What to Do in an Emergency An old woman experiences both physical breakdown and spiritual breakdown in a supermarket s vegetable department A young woman is drawn into the emotional and sexual life of an autistic boy obsessed with the number 8 Each of these stories is written in a language that strives to match the intensity of Searle s characters each gives the reader an exceptionally intimate portrait of a unique female and the central sensual mystery of her body A Great Plains Reader Diane Dufva Quantic,P. Jane Hafen,2003-01-01 The Great Plains are as rich and integral a part of American literature as they are of the North American landscape In this volume the stories poems and essays that have described celebrated and defined the region evoke the world of the American prairie from the first recorded days of Native
