Following Jesus in Invaded Space Chris Budden, 2009-05-04 Christianity is never just about beliefs but habits and practices for better or worse Theology always reflects the social location of the theologian including her privileges and prejudices all the time working with a particular often undisclosed notion of what is normal Therefore theology is never neutral it defends particular constructions of reality and it promotes certain interests Following Jesus in Invaded Space asks what and whose interests theology protects when it is part of a community that invaded the land of Indigenous peoples Developing a theological method and position that self consciously acknowledges the church s role in occupying Aboriginal land in Australia it dares to speak of God church and justice in the context of past history and continuing dispossession Hence a Second people s theology emerges through constant and careful attention to experiences of invasion and dis location brought into dialogue with the theological landscape or tradition of the church The Scottish sabbath school teachers' book. Grade 1(-3). Ed. by T. Nicol (A. Stewart, J. Robertson). Scotland Church of gen. assembly, comm. on sabbath schools,1890
