Emyr Humphreys Conversations And Reflections:

Emyr Humphreys M. Wynn Thomas, 2018-09-01 Published to mark the centenary of his birth in 2019 this is the first comprehensive and authoritative study of the life and work excluding only work for television of the major Welsh writer Emyr Humphreys During the course of a career spanning half a century and dating back to the 1950s when he collaborated with the likes of Graham Greene Patrick Heron Saunders Lewis Richard Burton Si n Phillips and Peter O Toole Humphreys has published some two dozen works of fiction including Outside the House of Baal the greatest novel of anglophone Welsh literature as well as highly distinctive poetry seminal essays and a visionary cultural history of Wales In addition to offering a critical and interpretative survey of this remarkable distinguished body of work the present volume also sets Humphreys s output in the context of the dramatic transformative decades in recent Welsh history during which it was produced The Fiction of Emyr Humphreys Linden Peach, 2011-01-15 For over half a century Emyr Humphreys s work as a novelist short story writer poet dramatist and television producer has been extraordinarily impressive This pioneering and stimulating book considers Humphreys s fiction from a range of contemporary critical perspectives and stresses its relevance to the 21st century Drawing on the work of leading modern cultural and literary theorists such as Jacques Derrida and Homi Bhabha psychoanalytic critics such as Melanie Klein and Jacqueline Rose and gender theorists such as Judith Butler Linden Peach brings fresh perspectives to the content structure and developing nature of Humphreys s work employing for example historicist post historicist new geography psychoanalytic and feminist and postfeminist frameworks Through detailed readings which highlight subjects such as gender identity contested masculinities war pacifism strangeness and otherness problematic father and daughter relationships and cultural discourse in complex linguistic environments Peach suggests that Humphreys s work is best understood as dramatic dissident and or dilemma fiction rather than by the term Protestant novelist which Humphreys used to describe himself at the outset of his career Stressing how Humphreys came to see himself as more of a protesting novelist Peach examines how the dilemmas around which his fiction is based originally linked to Humphreys s definition of himself as a protestant writer increasingly become sites in which controversial and often dark themes are explored This approach to Humphreys s work is pursued through exciting readings of some of Humphreys best and lesser known works including A Man s Estate A Toy Epic Outside the House of Baal the Best of Friends salt of the Earth Unconditional Surrender The Gift of a Daughter Natives Ghosts and Strangers Old people are a Problem The shop and The Woman at the Window Emyr Humphreys Diane Green, 2009-07-01 This book is an examination of the novels of Emyr Humphreys in the light of his ideas on Wales Welsh history Welsh culture and the importance of a separate Welsh identity It explores Humphreys practice in the light both of his own theories of culture and fiction and of a variety of models derived from postcolonial theory Its main conclusions are that there are two particular techniques the use of Welsh history and of Celtic myth that have proved particularly central to Humphreys purposes throughout his career These have consistently been the principal ways in which he foregrounds for the reader both what it means to be Welsh and the importance for the nation of maintaining an understanding of its heritage And both these key strategies of his fiction should it is argued be read as typical postcolonial devices

Wales Unchained Daniel G Williams, 2015-04-15 Contributes to the fields of Welsh Studies Comparative Studies Transatlantic Studies Offers analyses of key chapters in the cultural making of modern Wales Offers insights into national and ethnic identity and encourages readers to consider the extent of Welsh tolerance and intolerance Draws on Welsh and English language sources and ranges across literature history music and political thought The book is an example of Welsh cultural studies in action The book intervenes in key debates within cultural studies nationalism and assimilationism language and race class and identity cultural identity and political citizenship

The Cambridge History of Welsh Literature Geraint Evans, Helen Fulton, 2019-04-18 This book is a comprehensive single volume history of literature in the two major languages of Wales from post Roman to post devolution Britain

Eutopia M. Wynn Thomas, 2021-01-15 This book is a timely Welsh antidote to Brexit It is packed with original materials but is written in a highly accessible style by an author who recently won a Welsh Book of the Year award It throws a wholly new light on Wales revealing a country that has long been internationalist in cultural outlook well prepared to look in directions other than that of England

The Centenary Edition Raymond Williams Raymond Williams, 2021-05 A collection of seminal essays in the of Welsh literary historical and political studies The book is itself a key chapter in Welsh intellectual history and an analysis of that history It offers a revisionist Welsh view of Raymond Williams a critic often viewed as a British Marxist or the the English Sartre

In the Shadow of the Pulpit M. Wynn Thomas, 2009-10-15 Ranging from the nineteenth century to the present this book explores several central aspects of the ways in which the English language poetry and fiction of Wales has responded to what was for a crucial period of a century or so the dominant culture of Wales the culture of Welsh Nonconformity In the introduction the author reflects on why no sustained attempt has hitherto been made to investigate one of the formative cultural influences on modern Anglo Welsh literature the Nonconformist inheritance The importance of addressing this strange and significant cultural deficit is then explained and a preliminary attempt made to capture something of the spirit of Welsh Nonconformity The succeeding chapters address and seek to answer such questions as What exactly did the Welsh chapels believe and do Why have the English language writers of Wales from Caradoc Evans and Dylan Thomas to R S Thomas and the authors of today been so fascinated by them How accurate are the impressions we ve been given of chapel life and chapel people in the English language poetry and fiction of Wales The answers offered may alter our views both of the Welsh Nonconformist past and of Welsh writing in English One of the ideas advanced is that many of Wales most important writers went to war with the preachers in their texts and that their work is therefore the site of cultural struggle. There was a war in words waged to determine who would have the last word on modern Welsh experience.

Literature in Society Regina Rudaitytė, 2012-12-05 The essays in this volume focus on the text/world dichotomy that has been a pivotal problem since Plato implicating notions of mimesis and representation and raising a series of debatable issues. Do literary texts relate only to the fictional world and not to the real one? Do they not only describe but also perform and thus create and transform reality? Is literature a mere reflection/expression of society, a field and a tool of political manipulations, a playground to exercise ideological and social power? Herbert Grabes' seminal essay Literature in Society: Society and Its Literature which opens this volume perfectly captures the essential functions of literature in society, whether it be Derridean belief in a revolutionary potential of literature, the power of literature to say everything, or Hillis Miller's view of literature having the potential to create or reveal alternative realities, or according to Grabes, the ability of literature to offer to society a possibility of self-reflection by way of presenting a double of what is held to be reality, and last but not least, the ability of literature to considerably contribute to the joy of life by enabling a particular kind of pleasure, the pleasure of reading literature. The subsequent essays collected in this volume deal with complex relations between Literature and Society, approaching this issue from different angles and in various historical epochs. They are on diverse thematics and written from diverse theoretical perspectives differing in scope and methodology.

All That Is Wales M. Wynn Thomas, 2017-05-05 Wales may be small but culturally it is richly varied. The aim in this collection of essays on a number of English language authors from Wales is to offer a sample of the country's internal diversity. To that end, the author's examined range from the exotic Lynette Roberts, Argentinean by birth but of Welsh descent, and the English born Peggy Ann Whistler who opted for new Welsh identity as Margiad Evans, to Nigel Heseltine whose bizarre stories of the antics of the decaying squierarchy of the Welsh border country remain largely unknown, and the Utah based poet Leslie Norris who brings out the bicultural character of Wales in his Welsh/English translations. The result is a portrait of Wales as a micro-cosmopolitan country, and the volume is prefaced with an autobiographical essay by one of the leading specialists in the field, authoritatively tracing the steady growth over recent decades of serious, informed and sustained study of what is a major achievement of Welsh culture.

Process Tim Davies, David Alston, 2002 Using a retrospective approach, this collection of essays provides an illuminating and informative commentary on the artwork of Tim Davies. Explored are the practice, the international contexts, and the recurring motifs of Davies's art. Davies himself also provides a commentary on five of his signs.

Who Speaks for Wales? Raymond Williams, 2003 This is the first collection of Williams writings on Welsh culture literature history and politics His introduction offers an original reading of his career from a Welsh perspective The book will be essential reading for anyone interested in questions of identity nationhood and ethnicity

R.S. Thomas M. Wynn Thomas, 2013-02-15 The study places the work of a major religious poet of the late twentieth century in a number of striking new perspectives that allow him to be viewed for the first time as an alternative war poet a conscience stricken pacifist a jealously opportunistic student of art and an experimental biographer of the modern soul Published to mark the centenary of the ogle of Wales this volume deals with the id es fixes that serially possessed the fiercely intense imagination of R S Thomas Iago Prytherch Wales his family and of course a vexingly elusive deity Here these familiar obsessions are set in several unusual contexts that bring Thomas s poetry into startling new relief The war poetry is considered alongside the poet s early relationship to the English topographical tradition comparisons with Borges and Levertov underline the international dimensions of the poetry s concerns the intriguing secret code of some of Thomas s Welsh language references is cracked and his painting poems including several hitherto unpublished are brought centre stage from the peripheries to which they have been routinely relegated

A Guide to Welsh Literature M. Wynn Thomas, 2003

Postcolonial Wales Jane Aaron, Chris Williams, 2005 A collection of diverse essays discussing the culture and politics of post devolution Wales 10 black and white illustrations

Re-viewing Television History Helen Wheatley, 2007-10-24 Written by leading scholars in the field this book is an internationally relevant cutting edge reassessment of both current methods and practices in television historiography and of assumptions about television history itself The book focuses on debates about the canon on institutions texts and audiences and the interconnections between these distinct areas Through discussions and case studies it covers a wide selection from television s approaches to immigration and natural history to economic histories of television the framing of television aesthetics and problems in constructing a television canon Each section opens with the editor s overview of the historical research and an appendix details the main research resources for television historians in the UK

Beyond the Difference Alyce von Rothkirch, Daniel Williams, 2004 Beyond the Difference is a celebration of the work of Wales s leading literary critic M Wynn Thomas with contributions from internationally acclaimed writers and poets as well as significant critics working in the field

Looking initially at the relationships between the English and Welsh language literatures of Wales the volume proceeds to explore the interactions of nationhood and gender from the late nineteenth century to the present day the politics of translation in Wales as compared to Ireland and America and the intriguing connections between Welsh literature and American African American Irish and Jewish literary traditions The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009
