Fifty Years of Bangladesh, 1971-2021 Taj Hashmi, 2022-04-22

This book the first historical sociology of its kind concerning Bangladesh examines the country's what went wrong syndrome during the first fifty years of its existence 1971-2021. The work is an exception to the traditional studies on modern and contemporary Bangladesh. The study is also a post history of united Pakistan. Busting several myths it sheds light on many known and unknown facts about the history politics society and culture of the country. Besides being a twice born country liberated twice from the British in 1947 and from West Pakistanis in 1971 it is also an artificial entity suffering from acute crises of culture development governance and identity. Hashmi attributes the culture and identity crises to the demographic byproducts of bad governance. In addition to being overpopulated Bangladesh is also resource poor and has one of the most unskilled populations largely lumpen elements and peasants. According to Marx these people represent the unchanging remnants of the past. The second round of independence empowered these lumpen classes who suffer from an identity crisis and never learn the art of governance. The proliferation of pseudo history about liberation has further divided the polity between the two warring tribes who only glorify their respective idols Mujib and Zia. Pre political and pre capitalist peasants lumpen elements lack of mutual trust and respect have further plagued Bangladesh turning it into one of the least governable corrupt and inefficient countries. It is essential to replace the pre capitalist order of the country run by multiple lumpen classes with capitalist and inclusive institutions.

Frederick Eden Pargiter Ananda Bhattacharyya, 2019-10-30

The Sundarban stretches from the brackish waters of the broad Hooghly on the west to the fresh waters of the still broader Meghna to the east the turbid waters of the Bay of Bengal on its southern limits to the zamindari or pargana lands on its northern extremity and includes in its southern fringes the dense natural mangrove forests it is famous for. The revenue history of Sundarbans is linked up with its riverine and coastal networks to its strategic location at the head of the Bay of Bengal which made it a natural protective barrier for the densely populated city of Calcutta. The massive transformation combined with the changed physical structure of Sundarban influenced society and economy on the one hand and invited settlers to establish their control in that region on the other. The text of Pargiter focuses on the revenue history of a larger part of Sundarbans viz Jessore Khulna Bakarganj and some parts of 24 Parganas since the inception of the colonial rule in Bengal. It has also been shown how the colonial administrators took various types of measures for collecting revenue by the way of land reclamation. The introductory note by the editor analyses the revenue settlement policies which had been implemented on different occasions to ensure the revenue maximization policies of the British Raj on the one hand and to establish an human settlement in the deltaic region on the other Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The Shell Money of the Slave Trade Jan Hogendorn, Marion Johnson, 2003-09-18 A study of the role of cowrie shell money in West African trade particularly the slave trade Dacca Sharif Uddin Ahmed, 2018-01-12 Originally published in 1986 this work discusses the development in Dacca of western style municipal organization and its financial and practical problems and also explores the economic transition of the city after 1840 It is one of the few urban studies which carries through from the old order to the new administrative towns of British rule and attempts to show what happened to the communities of townsmen in the period of adaptation It casts new light on the function and organization of Indian urban societies in the colonial period on the transfer of western institutions and the organization and composition of Bengali trade outside Calcutta The Rise of Business Corporations in India, 1851-1900 Radhe Shyam Rungta, 1970 Appropriation and Invention of Tradition Nandini Bhattacharyya Panda, 2007-12-26 This book strongly grounded in primary sources makes an important contribution to the intellectual history of early modern Bengal It brings to light the complex interpenetration of diverse interests opinions and ideologies articulated by various social groups implicated in the process of colonization on the lines of Ranajit Guha s work on property relations in Bengal and Radhika Singha s work on law There is no comparable work specifically on the subject of Hindu property rights and how these came to be perceived or interpreted in early modern Bengal The author explores the so called compendia prepared under British auspices and argues that there was hardly any link between the Smritis and the laws The latter were determined almost entirely by changing British policy with regard to land revenue and that many of the positive features of Hindu custom like women s rights to property were undermined in the process Economic History of Early Medieval Northern India Gian Chand Chauhan, 2003 Economic History Of Early Medieval Northern India Is An Attempt To Present The Picture Of Agrarian Formation And Economic Changing Which Early Medieval India Had Experienced This Book Is A Comprehensive And Systematic Study Of The Economic Institutions Such As Agriculture Types Of Crops Nature Of Peasantry Land Grants Internal And Domestic Trade Urban Concept Forced Labour And Paucity Of Coins Etc The Book Does Not Claim To Present A General Economic History Of Early Medieval India In The Traditional Manner The Distinctive Characteristic Of This Book Lies In The Fact That It Present The Thesis Of Economic Development And Changes Which Took Place During The Period Of Study An Attempt Has Been Made To Make An Evolution Of The One Of The Most Critical Periods Of Indian History With Main Focus On Agrarian Structure And Economic Institutions The Study Has Been Based Both On The Literary And Epigraphical Sources The Book Therefore Present A Deteriorating Grim Scenario About The Agricultural And Economic Condition Of The Historical Period Spanning From 8Th Century To 10Th Century A D It Also Traces The Causal Complexities Which Forced The Peasant To Accept Their Fate Passively And Without A Murmur Some Aspects of Malla Rule in Bishnupur, 1590-1806 A.D.
