Economic Theory Of Agrarian Institutions:

The Economic Theory of Agrarian Institutions Pranab Bardhan, 1989-07-27 This volume breaks new ground in the economic theory of institutions. The contributors show how some of the tools of advanced economic theory can usefully contribute to an understanding of how institutions operate. They show how sound theoretical analysis can in fact enable economists to reach conclusions which will help practitioners avoid many pitfalls in the formation and implementation of development policies both within individual countries and in the context of international aid.

The Economic Theory of Agrarian Institutions Pranab K. Bardhan, 1991 The Evolution of Agrarian Institutions Mieke Meurs, 2001 An examination of why private farming in the transition economies of East Central Europe has not grown as quickly as expected.

Agrarian Structure and Economic Underdevelopment K. Basu, 2013-06-17 Kaushik Basu Cornell University explores the relation between agrarian institutions and economic development.

Law and Economics Alain Marciano, 2013-09-13 This book brings together the most authoritative articles on Law and Economics and the interaction between the two disciplines as well as the use of economic tools to analyse legal problems. Aimed at students experiencing the subject for the first time, the selections are interlaced with a wealth of features including explanatory introductions and exercises. Key features of the reader include: The accessibility of the material; the articles should be understandable to those with only a limited background in economics and law. The book's focus on the most important and basic foundational issues in law and economics. An exposition of the opposition between the different legal systems that exist in the world including common law, civil law and public law. Debates viewed from the perspective of the scholars from a range of backgrounds are presented as well as all the key figures in economics and in law. The book should prove to be an essential resource to all students studying this burgeoning field and represents an exciting introduction to one of the key disciplines which has grown up in the social sciences in recent times.

Brazilian Agricultural Development, 1890-1950 Earl Richard Downes, 2025-02-08 This book provides a comprehensive history of Brazilian agricultural economic development between 1890 and 1950. It details the US agricultural education that made an impact on Brazil and how this translated into private capital in the US. The book highlights the shifting priorities of Brazil's regional elites during the First Republic and takes readers through its downfall in 1930. Chapters cover how US educators implanted the philosophy and practices of US agricultural education at the nation's three most prominent university-level institutes of agronomist education. The history also documents the activist role played by the United States in the agricultural development of Brazil during an early part of the century which was before the US was a world leader economically. Earl Richard Downes provides detailed documentation of the creation of the major agricultural education institutions in Brazil and their initial contributions to Brazil's agricultural development. He also provides insight into the Brazilian federal government reaction to international crises with opportunities for profit through increased production for external markets. The resulting book breaks down the specific social and economic history that led to heightened economic development in a developing nation Handbook of Income Distribution Anthony Barnes Atkinson, François Bourguignon, 2000 Land Reform in Developing Countries Michael Lipton, 2009-06-24 Redistributing land rights is a tricky subject and one that easily becomes controversial as recent experience has shown This new book calmly examines the strengths and weaknesses of different forms of land redistribution Modern Agricultural and Resource Economics and Policy Harry de Gorter, Jill McCluskey, Johan Swinnen, David Zilberman, 2022-06-23 This volume celebrates the life and career of Gordon Rausser pioneer and leader in natural resource economics while critically overviewing the emerging literature in the field As the chair of the Agriculture and Resource Economics department at UC Berkeley Rausser led the transformation of the department from a traditional agricultural economics department to a diverse resource economics department addressing issues of agriculture food natural resources environmental economics energy and development This book builds on this theme showcasing not only the scope of Rausser's work but also key developments in the field The volume is organized into two parts The first part speaks about the lessons of Gordon Rausser's career in particular his role as a leader in different spheres his capacity to integrate teaching and entrepreneurship and his impact on the world food system The second part will address some of the significant developments in the field he contributed to and how it relates to his work The chapters include contributions from modern leaders in the economics field and cover diverse topics from many subfields including public policy public finance law econometrics macroeconomics and water resources Providing an excellent reference as well as a celebration of a pivotal figure in the field this volume will be useful for practitioners and scholars in agricultural and resource economics especially the many individuals familiar with Gordon Rausser and his career Handbook of Development Economics Hollis Burnley Chenery, J. Behrman, T.N. Srinivasan, 1988 Handbooks of development economics edit Chenery v 1 Development Economics Debraj Ray, 1998-01-12 A landmark textbook on development economics The study of development in low income countries is attracting more attention around the world than ever before Yet until now there has been no comprehensive text that incorporates the recent huge strides made in the subject Development Economics does precisely that in a clear rigorous and elegant fashion Debraj Ray one of the most accomplished theorists in development economics today presents in this book a synthesis of recent and older literature in the field and raises important questions that will help to set the agenda for future research He covers such vital subjects as theories of economic growth economic inequality poverty and undernutrition population growth trade policy and the markets for land labor and credit A common point of view underlies the treatment of these subjects that much of the development process can be understood by studying factors that impede the efficient and equitable functioning of markets Diverse topics such as the new growth theory moral hazard in land contracts information based theories of credit markets and the macroeconomic implications of economic inequality come under this common methodological umbrella The book takes the position that there is no single cause for economic progress but that a combination of factors among them the improvement of physical and human capital the reduction of inequality and institutions that enable the background flow of information essential to market performance consistently favor development Ray supports his arguments throughout with examples from around the world The book assumes a knowledge of only introductory economics and explains sophisticated concepts in simple direct language keeping the use of mathematics to a minimum Development Economics will be the definitive textbook in this subject for years to come It will prove useful to researchers by showing intriguing connections among a wide variety of subjects that are rarely discussed together in the same book And it will be an important resource for policy makers who increasingly find themselves dealing with complex issues of growth inequality poverty and social welfare

Agricultural Markets Beyond Liberalization Aad van Tilburg, Henk A.J. Moll, A. Kuyvenhoven, 2012-12-06 Agricultural markets have entered a long term process of liberalization with the aim of reducing imposed market imperfections such as monopolistic public trade entry barriers and subsidies The experience of more than a decade of agriculture liberalization offers a good opportunity to review and analyze the outcome of this process and to draw lessons for the future The central topic in Agricultural Markets Beyond Liberalization is the relationship between market structure and how markets perform in a dynamic context during a liberalization process The topic is studied from both a micro and macro viewpoint and refers to different types of agricultural markets This volume brings together the dynamics of agricultural markets in several parts of the world with a special focus on transition economics and Africa The different studies cover geographical areas as wide as a district as well as a group of countries and institutions from individual contracts to multi national organizations The analysis of liberalization under different circumstances and the different methods of analysis used by the authors provide a valuable foundation for the assessment of liberalization

Economic Development and Social Change Yiorgos Stathakis, Gianni Vaggi, 2006-05-11 Some of the greatest thinkers in the history of economic thought have been instrumental in advancing the study of development economics In this volume leading scholars are brought together to illuminate this tradition with particular emphasis on the question of growth and development Divided into two parts this collection offers a blend of papers of history of economic thought and development economics and suggests that classical political economy that strand of thought which goes from Physiocracy to Smith and to Ricardo and Marx has a precise vision and indeed a precise model of long term development This book examines the influence that has been exerted by both pre classical and classical thought on modern day development economics provides a synthetic analysis of the classical vision of growth and development from the mercantilist era to physiocracy examines Adam Smith s contribution to growth theory explores Marxian thinking and ideas and the political developments that gave rise to state functions in post war theory Including contributions by well known authors such as Elis Murphy and Kurz this significant volume by one of the premier historians of economic thought will be a valuable resource for postgraduates and professionals in the fields of economic history and political economy Land, Food And Rural Development In North Africa M. Riad El-Ghonemy,2019-04-03 This study of rural development in six North African nations addresses the issues surrounding poverty and landlessness Providing an Islamic perspective on policy making the author describes the influence of Islam on development in these countries and stresses the Islamic religious and moral revival as a major factor in policy making toward reduc

Policy Analysis for Sustainable Land Management and Food Security in Ethiopia Stein Terje Holden,Shiferaw Bekele,Bekele Ambaye Shiferaw,J. Pender,2005-01-01 Policymakers and technology development institutions have mostly focused on high potential farming areas which have better resource endowments and greater access to markets and infrastructure than less favored areas However in developing nations more than one billion people live in less favored areas where despite disadvantages appropriate policies and programs can generate high returns and contribute significantly to poverty reduction IFPRI and its partners research in the highlands of Ethiopia shows how poverty and land degradation can be reduced in a less favored area Using a bioeconomic model to analyze the effects that land degradation population growth stagnant technology market imperfections and increased risk of drought have on household production welfare and food security the report gauges how alternative policy choices affect poverty and land degradation According to the study land quality and household welfare are both in peril in the Ethiopian highlands The population in the region could suffer devastating effects if proper policies are not put in place The bioeconomic modeling approach used in this study can be usefully adapted and applied in many other settings and at larger spatial and socioeconomic scales

International Agricultural Development Carl K. Eicher,John M. Staatz,1998-11-20 Other topics include market failures food insecurity rural poverty environmental degradation income and asset inequality fiscally sustainable organizations the changing roles of the public and private sector in research input delivery systems marketing and low rates of agricultural growth in much of sub Saharan Africa

Property Relations, Incentives and Welfare John E. Roemer,1997-04-12 The dramatic implosions of the centrally administered non democratic political systems in central and eastern Europe in the late 1980s have generated a body of research concerning the transition from public ownership and the role of the market and other institutions in engendering good incentives for economic actors The essays collected in this volume study property relations their associated incentives and the consequent effects on welfare the ubiquitous theme is that efficiency cannot be divorced from the distribution of productive assets Elites, Nonelites, and Power Rebecca Jean Emigh,Dylan Riley,2024-11-28 Bringing together cutting edge multidisciplinary papers that weigh in on central issues of the world and social science the collection consider power elites and nonelites in a new inclusive way drawing in researchers who deal with topics central to elite theory but who might not be represented in more classic statements of it Economic Maladjustment in Central America Wim Pelupessy,John Weeks,1992-12-18
