Eisenstein's Ivan the Terrible Kristin Thompson, 1981 The description for this book Eisenstein's Ivan the Terrible A Neoformalist Analysis will be forthcoming Composing for the Red Screen Kevin Bartig, 2013-05-02 Sound film captivated Sergey Prokofiev during the final two decades of his life he considered composing for nearly two dozen pictures eventually undertaking eight of them all Soviet productions Drawing on newly available sources Composing for the Red Screen examines for the first time the full extent of this prodigious cinematic career Film/Music Analysis Emilio Audissino, 2025-08-08 The field of Film Music Studies has been increasingly dominated by musicologists this book brings the discipline back squarely into the domain of Film Studies offering an approach in which music and visuals are seen as equal players in the game Blending Neoformalism with Gestalt psychology and Leonard B Meyer's musicology this study treats music as a cinematic element offering scholars and students of both music and film a set of tools to help them analyse the wide ranging impact that music has in films This second edition provides an updated survey of the field and a new chapter featuring additional case studies including a novel analytical category for studying the contemporary sound design style film Stalinist Cinema and the Production of History Evgeny Dobrenko, 2008-03-05 This book explores how Soviet music film worked with time the past and memory It looks at Stalinist cinema and its role in the production of history Cinema s role in the legitimization of Stalinism and the production of a new Soviet identity was enormous Both Lenin and Stalin saw in this most important of arts the most effective form of propaganda and organisation of the masses By examining the works of the greatest Soviet filmmakers of the Stalin era Sergei Eisenstein Vsevolod Pudovkin Grigorii Kozintsev Leonid Trauberg Fridrikh Ermler the author explores the role of the cinema in the formation of the Soviet political imagination Narrative Comprehension and Film Edward Branigan, 2013-06-17 Narrative is one of the ways we organise and understnad the world It is found everywhere not only in films and books but also in everday conversations and in the nonfictional discourses of journalists historians educators psychologists attorneys and many others Edward Branigan presents a telling exploration of the basic concepts of narrative theory and its relation to film and literary analysis bringing together theories from linguistics and cognitive science and applying them to the screen Individual analyses of classical narratives form the basis of a complex study of every aspect of filmic fiction exploring for example subjectivity in Lady in the Lake multiplicity in Letter from and Unknown Woman post modernism and documentary in Sans Soleil EBOOK: Film Art: An Introduction David Bordwell, 2013-08-16 Film is an art form with a language and an aesthetic all its own Since 1979 David Bordwell and Kristin Thompson's Film Art has been the best selling and most widely respected introduction to the analysis of cinema Taking a skills centered approach supported by examples from many periods and countries the authors help students develop a core set of analytical skills that will enrich their understanding of any film in any genre In depth examples deepen students appreciation for how creative choices by filmmakers affect what viewers experience and how they respond Film Art is generously illustrated with more than 1 000 frame enlargements taken directly from completed films providing concrete Ethnicity and Criminal Justice in the Era of Mass Incarceration Martin Guevara illustrations of key concepts Urbina, Sofía Espinoza Álvarez, 2017-02-27 ETHNICITY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE IN THE ERA OF MASS INCARCERATION A Critical Reader on the Latino Experience is designed as a Latino reader in criminal justice covering a much broader spectrum of the Latino experience in criminal justice and society while giving readers a broad overview of the Latino experience in a single book Considering the shifting trends in demographics and the current state of the criminal justice system along with the current political climate this book is timely and of critical significance for the academic political and social arena The authors report sound evidence that testifies to a historical legacy of violence brutality manipulation oppression marginalization prejudice discrimination power and control and to white America's continued fear about ethnic and racial minorities a movement that continues in the twenty first century as we have been witnessing during the 2015 2016 presidential race highly charged with anti immigrant and anti Mexican political rhetoric A central objective of this book is to demystify and expose the ways in which ideas of ethnicity race gender and class uphold the functioning and legitimacy of the criminal justice system In this mission rather than attempting to develop a single explanation for the Latino experience in policing the courts and the penal system this book presents a variety of studies and perspectives that illustrate alternative ways of interpreting crime punishment safety equality and justice The findings reveal that race ethnicity gender class and several other variables continue to play a significant role in the legal decision making process With the social control from police brutality to immigration discourse reaching unprecedented levels the book will have broad appeal for students police officers advocates activists attorneys the media and the general public Film Style and the World War II Combat Genre Stuart Bender, 2014-08-11 Film Style and the World War II Combat Genre is a detailed examination of the stylistic means by which filmmakers depict stories of combat The work furthers contemporary discussions by analyzing a range of World War II combat films to a degree of detail which has previously escaped critical attention This substantial examination of cinematography sound editing and acting in a range of movies including Saving Private Ryan Windtalkers Bataan and Objective Burma demonstrates the importance of close attention to the textual construction of these films specifically as well as cinematic texts more generally The work advances the original analytic descriptions of controlled spontaneity and reported realism as theoretical concepts which explain why viewers regard certain stylistic techniques as realistic This notion of realism is then further understood through reference to a body of research in cognitive psychology to argue that the density of audio visual information in contemporary combat films is a significant factor in creating a sense of realism

Breaking the Glass Armor Kristin Thompson,2020-05-05 Classical works have for us become covered with the glassy armor of familiarity wrote Victor Shklovsky in 1914 Here Kristin Thompson defamiliarizes the reader with eleven different films Developing the technique formulated in her Eisenstein s Ivan the Terrible Princeton 1981 she clearly demonstrates the flexibility of the neoformalist approach She argues that critics often use cut and dried methods and choose films that easily fit those methods Neoformalism on the other hand encourages the critic to deal with each film differently and to modify his or her analytical assumptions continually Thompson's analyses are thus refreshingly varied and revealing ranging from an ordinary Hollywood film Terror by Night to such masterpieces as Late Spring and Lancelot du Lac She proposes a formal historical way of dealing with realism using Bicycle Thieves and The Rules of the Game as examples Stage Fright and Laura provide cases in which the classical cinema defamiliarizes its own conventions by playing with audience expectations Other chapters deal with Tati s Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Play Time and Godard s Tout va bien and Sauve gui peut la vie Although neoformalist analysis is a rigorous distinctive approach it avoids extensive specialized vocabulary and esoteric concepts the essays here can be read separately by those interested in the individual films. The book is overall purpose however goes beyond making these particular films more accessible and intriguing to propose new ways of looking at cinema as a whole The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory Edward Branigan, Warren Buckland, 2013-12-04 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an international reference work representing the essential ideas and concepts at the centre of film theory from the beginning of the twentieth century to the beginning of the twenty first When first encountering film theory students are often confronted with a dense interlocking set of texts full of arcane terminology inexact formulations sliding definitions and abstract generalities The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory challenges these first impressions by aiming to make film theory accessible and open to new readers Edward Branigan and Warren Buckland have commissioned over 50 scholars from around the globe to address the difficult formulations and propositions in each theory by reducing these difficult formulations to straightforward propositions The result is a highly accessible volume that clearly defines and analyzes step by step many of the fundamental concepts in film theory ranging from familiar concepts such as Apparatus Gaze Genre and Identification to less well known and understood but equally important concepts such as Alain Badiou s Inaesthetics Gilles Deleuze s Time Image and Jean Luc Nancy s Evidence The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an ideal reference book for undergraduates of film studies as well as graduate students new to the discipline in the Cinema Edward Branigan, 2012-01-02 Branigan effectively criticizes the communication model of narration a task long overdue in Anglo American circles The book brings out the extent to which mainstream mimetic theories have relied upon the elastic notion of an invisible idealized observer a convenient spook whom critics can summon up whenever they desire to naturalize style The book also makes distinctions among types of subjectivity after this we will have much more precise ways of tracing the fluctuations among a character's vision dreams wishes and so forth Branigan also explains the necessity of distinguishing levels of narration Red Aesthetics Todd Cronan, 2021-11-04 Red Aesthetics offers a new way to think about art and politics focusing on the revolutionary work of Aleksandr Rodchenko Bertolt Brecht and Sergei Eisenstein between the wars Todd Cronan shows how these three artists photographs dramas films and writings centered on class conflict differ from current left orthodoxies rooted in empathy Writing against liberal pieties Cronan contends following Brecht that empathy is not the solution to our problems but more like the source of them Flashbacks in Film Maureen Turim, 2013-12-17 The flashback is a crucial moment in a film narrative one that captures the cinematic expression of memory and history This author's wide ranging account of this single device reveals it to be an important way of creating cinematic meaning Taking as her subject all of film history the author traces out the history of the flashback illuminating that history through structuralist narrative theory psychoanalytic theories of subjectivity and theories of ideology From the American silent film era and the European and Japanese avant garde of the twenties from film noir and the psychological melodrama of the forties and fifties to 1980s art and Third World cinema the flashback has interrogated time and memory making it a nexus for ideology representations of the psyche and shifting cultural attitudes Shakespeare and the Second World War Irena Makaryk, Marissa McHugh, 2012-09-18 Shakespeare's works occupy a prismatic and complex position in world culture they straddle both the high and the low the national and the foreign literature and theatre The Second World War presents a fascinating case study of this phenomenon most if not all of its combatants have laid claim to Shakespeare and have called upon his work to convey their society s self image In wartime such claims frequently brought to the fore a crisis of cultural identity and of competing ownership of this universal author Despite this the role of Shakespeare during the Second World War has not yet been examined or documented in any depth Shakespeare and the Second World War provides the first sustained international collaborative incursion into this terrain The essays demonstrate how the wide variety of ways in which Shakespeare has been recycled reviewed and reinterpreted from 1939 1945 are both illuminated by and continue to illuminate the War today The Eisenstein Reader Sergei Eisenstein, 2019-07-25 For the first time in one volume this book presents in concise chronological form Sergei Eisenstein's most significant work including his famous theories of montage and articles on subjects as diverse as sound film language and Russian history. The selection ranges from early writings on his silent masterpieces The Strike October and The Battleship Potemkin to later works hatched in the hostile and paranoid environment of Stalin's Soviet Union Drawn from the acclaimed four volume Selected Works this collection which includes a new introduction and explanatory notes by Richard Taylor as well as many illustrations further illuminates the startling originality diversity and power of the greatest and most flamboyant of all Russian film makers Legendary director Sergei Eisenstein has emerged as cinema s most influential theorist and author of some of the most important aesthetic writings of Ostrannenie Annie Oever, 2025-10-01 Ostrannenie making it strange has become one of the central the twentieth century concepts of modern artistic practice ranging over movements including Dada postmodernism epic theatre and science fiction as well as our response to arts Coined by the Russian Formalist Viktor Shklovsky in 1917 ostrannenie has come to resonate deeply in Film Studies where it entered into dialogue with the Brechtian concept of Verfremdung the Freudian concept of the uncanny and Derrida's concept of diff rance Striking provocative and incisive the essays of the distinguished film scholars in this volume recall the range and depth of a concept that since 1917 changed the trajectory of theoretical inquiry

Legacies of the Degraded Image in Violent Digital Media Stuart Marshall Bender, 2017-08-16 This book undertakes a concentrated study of the impact of degraded and low quality imagery in contemporary cinema and real world portrayals of violence Through a series of case studies the book explores examples of corrupted digital imagery that range from mainstream cinema portrayals of drone warfare and infantry killing through to real world recordings of terrorist attacks and executions as well as perpetrator created murder videos live streamed on the internet Despite post modernist concerns of cultural inurement during the seminal period of digitalized and virtualized killing in the 1990s real world reactions to violent media indicate that our culture is anything but desensitized to these media depictions Against such a background this book is a concentrated study of how these images are created and circulated in the contemporary media landscape and how the effect and affect of violent material is impacted by the low resolution aesthetic Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Gr nstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Tranfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs What Is Film Theory? Richard Rushton, Gary Bettinson, 2010-02-16 A uthoritative always engaged and grounded in the detailed study of well chosen films This is an exceptionally useful introduction and good to read Professor James Donald The University of New South Wales Australia This engaging and accessible book explores major debates in contemporary film theory providing a detailed introduction to the central arguments advanced by film theorists since the 1960s What is Film Theory outlines the discipline s key theoretical concepts perspectives and traditions and critically examines the assertions posited by exemplary film theorists and philosophers of film A step by step approach to these issues guides the reader through the central topics of film theory Beginning with a discussion of structuralism and semiotics and moving through debates on psychoanalysis feminism Screen theory and cultural studies the authors then examine the perspectives of post theory cognitivism and historical poetics as well as recent developments such as audience research and the cinema of attractions Analysis of the major theories is supported with detailed and wide ranging case studies of particular films including Singin in the Rain The Searchers Tout va bien Jaws Do the Right Thing Brokeback Mountain and Sweeney Todd The Demon Barber of Fleet Street These case studies are accompanied by a series of illustrative film and production stills What is Film Theory is indispensable reading for all students of Film and Media Studies as well as for general readers interested in the debates which have defined film theory Time and the Everyday in Slow Cinema Rosa Barotsi,2025-07-08 Time and the Everyday in Slow Cinema examines the phenomenon of Slow cinema a style defined by its lingering focus on quotidian activities and extended durations Rosa Barotsi argues that while the style emerges from a tradition of durational filmmaking and resonates with movements advocating for deceleration it is also deeply entangled in the structures of late capitalism creating a dynamic tension between radicalism and conservatism This book situates the trend between artistic innovation and institutional commodification ultimately raising critical questions about spectatorship cinematic time and the politics of cultural value
