The Routledge Handbook to Spanish Film Music

Laura Miranda, 2024-09-12. The Routledge Handbook to Spanish Film Music provides a significant contribution to the research and history of Spanish film music, exploring the interdependence and ways in which discourses of sound and vision are constructed dialogically in Spanish cinema, with contributions from leading international researchers from Spain, the USA, the UK, France and Germany. Offering a multifocal and multidisciplinary study between related areas such as music studies, film studies and Spanish cultural studies, this book is divided into four sections covering the early years of Spanish cinema, the 1940s and 1950s in Spanish cinema, the first decades of the Franco dictatorship, the importance of Fraga Iribarne's slogan 'Spain is different' to promote Spain's new openness to the world in the 1960s and 1970s, and Spanish cinema since the arrival of democracy in 1978, including discussion of contemporary Spanish cinema. The growing interest in Spanish cinema calls for the publication of studies about the role of music in its political and socio-cultural framework. This is therefore a valuable text for music and film scholars and professionals, university undergraduates and music conservatory students.

Gabriel García Márquez and the Cinema Alessandro Rocco, 2014. This book focuses on Gabriel García Márquez's relations with the world of cinema. The book's primary aim is to present a detailed study of García Márquez's wide-ranging filmography, which has never received a comprehensive systematic analysis. Rocco argues that it should be recognised as an integral part of the author's narrative output and brought into the mainstream of studies concerning his literary activity. The first part of the book reconstructs the trajectory of García Márquez's career in cinema and his connections with the world of film The second part looks at all the screenplays written by García Márquez on which actual films have been based These are examined chronologically but also analysed according to thematic and aesthetic concerns and placed in relation to the novels and short stories with which they are twinned in terms of the film product Book jacket
