Felipe II y Juan de Herrera en el monasterio palacio y mausoleo de El Escorial o Felipe IV en el Salón de Reinos alrededor del cual giraba la maquinaria arquitectónica del Palacio del Buen Retiro. He ahí algunas de las cuestiones históricas, estéticas y simbólicas que se formulan y contestan en La variedad del mundo. En este libro se exploran también las relaciones del amor y la muerte en los campos del arte y de la literatura, particularmente en Goya se indaga el sentido de los grutescos que tanta trascendencia tuvieron en el arte del Renacimiento y se da cuenta de los variados simbolismos que ha revestido el agua en diferentes culturas, sobre todo en la grecorromana y en la judeo cristiana que están en la base de nuestra cultura occidental. Ignacio Gómez de Liaño muestra también en estas páginas los aspectos de la vida de Cervantes que mejor explican la génesis del Quijote y se sumerge en la corriente narrativa de El Criticón, novela filosófica por antonomasia en la que Gracián representa el drama de las edades del hombre o sea de la condición humana. Acerca de ese tema versa también El hombre en la encrucijada, texto leído en Beirut en noviembre de 2008 que se alía a nuevas direcciones en los espacios abiertos en La variedad del mundo. Catalogue of the Manuscripts in the Spanish Language in the British Museum Pascual De La Economía Política de Lo Posible en América Latina Javier Santiso, 2006 Contemporary Spanish Women's Narrative and the Publishing Industry Christine Henseler, 2003 As in other countries the effects of commercialization in Spain are changing the direction of publishing. Arguing that women face a particularly complex situation because the inclusion of their work is still considered a novelty in a male dominated field, Christine Henseler examines the strategies of Spanish women authors in the face of market forces. In a consumer economy that places books in supermarkets and mega bookstores and in which novels are promoted and read more for entertainment than for their literary merit, women's books tend to be more highly regarded when they cater to feminist, erotic or commercial niche markets. Henseler examines the visual creation of the seductive female body inside and outside the texts and the verbal application of this female figure on a narrative level in the works of authors including Paloma Díaz Mas Lourdes Ortiz Cristina Peri Rossi Esther Tusquets Almudena Grandes and Lucía Etxebarra She looks at novels of seduction award winning novels and novels sold on the basis of an author's prior reputation as well as advertisements literary prizes and reviews She also draws on interviews with authors to provide insider views of contemporary Spanish publishing Contemporary Spanish Women's Narrative and the Publishing Industry reveals the ways women writers are reacting both textually and promotionally to the changing demands of the publishing industry and the construction of a literary canon

Jungle Fever Charlotte Rogers, 2012 The sinister jungle that ill defined and amorphous place where civilization has no foothold and survival is always in doubt is the terrifying setting for countless works of the imagination Films like Apocalypse Now television shows like Lost and of course stories like Heart of Darkness all pursue the essential question of why the unknown world terrifies adventurer and spectator alike In Jungle Fever Charlotte Rogers goes deep into five books that first defined the jungle as a violent and maddening place The reader finds urban explorers venturing into the wilderness encountering and living among the native inhabitants and eventually losing their minds The canonical works of authors such as Joseph Conrad Andre Malraux Jose Eustasio Rivera and others present jungles and wildernesses as fundamentally corrupting and dangerous Rogers explores how the methods these authors use to communicate the physical and psychological maladies that afflict their characters evolved symbiotically with modern medicine While the wilderness challenges Conrad's and Malraux's European travelers to question their civility and mental stability Latin American authors such as Alejo Carpentier deftly turn pseudoscientific theories into their greatest asset as their characters transform madness into an essential creative spark Ultimately Jungle Fever suggests that the greatest horror of the jungle is the unknown regions of the character's own mind
