Invisible Institutionalisms Swethaa S Ballakrishnen, Sara Dezalay, 2021-02-11 Taking its cue from theoretical and ideological calls to challenge globalisation as a dynamic of homogenisation and resistance as led from and directed against the Global North this volume asks what can we see when we shift the lens beyond a North South binary Based on empirical studies of frontier zones of legal globalisation in India Pakistan and Latin America the book adopts an original format Framed as a relational dialogue between newer as well as more prominent scholars within the field from various cores through to postcolonial academic peripheries it questions structural variables in the shadows of legal globalisation and how we as scholars build a space for critique Handbook of the Economics of Innovation Bronwyn H. Hall, Nathan Rosenberg, 2010-03-06 How does technology advance How can we best assimilate innovation These questions and others are considered by experts on the theories and applications of technological innovations Considering subjects as diverse as the diffusion of new technologies and their industrial applications governmental policies and manifestations of innovation in our institutions history and environment our contributors map milestones in research and speculate about the roads ahead Wasteful inefficient and frequently wrongheaded the process of technological changes is here revealed as a describable scientific force Two volumes available separately and as a set Expert articles consider the best ways to establish optimal incentives in technological progress Science and innovation both their theories and applications are examined at the intersections of the marketplace policy and social welfare Economists are only part of an audience that includes attorneys educators and anyone involved in new technologies The Economics of the European Patent System Dominique Guellec, Bruno van Pottelsberghe de la Potterie, 2007-02-01 Why does society allow or even encourage private appropriation of inventions When do patents encourage competition when do they hamper it How should society design the compromise between the interest of the inventor and the interest of the users of patented inventions How should the patent system adapt to new technological areas These questions and many more are addressed by the authors in this groundbreaking analysis of the economics behind the European patent system Beginning with the history and principles of the patent system the book then examines the economic effects of patenting on innovation and the diffusion of technology and growth Throughout the book the theory and the reality are discussed alongside real world examples and comparison between the European USA and Japanese patent systems IFPRI International Food Policy Research Institute, 2005 Posthuman Property and Law Jannice Käll, 2022-07-28 This book analyses the phenomenon of digitally mediated property and considers how it problematises the boundary between human and nonhuman actors The book addresses the increasingly porous border between personhood and property in digitized settings and considers how the increased commodification of knowledge makes visible a rupture in the liberal concept of the property owning free person Engaging with the latest work in posthumanist and new materialist theory it shows how property as a concept as well as a means for control changes fundamentally under advanced capitalism Such change is exemplified by the way in which data as an object of commodification is extracted from human activities yet is also directly used to affectively control or nudge humans Taking up a range of human engagements with digital platforms and coded architectures as well as the circulation of affects through practices of artificial intelligence that are employed to shape behaviour the book argues that property now needs to be understood according to an ecology of human as well as nonhuman actors The idea of posthuman property then offers both a means to critique property control through digital technologies as well as to move beyond the notion of the self owning object owning human Engaging the most challenging contemporary technological developments this book will appeal to researchers in the areas of Law and Technology Legal Theory Intellectual Property Law Legal Philosophy Sociology of Law Sociology and Media Studies Patent Aggregating Companies Frauke Rüther,2012-11-27 Entering the post industrial age knowledge has become an important asset for sustained competitive advantage In recent years a new type of patent acquirers has emerged These companies do not produce goods and therefore do not need patents in their historical meaning they acquire patents and aggregate patent portfolios and little is known about them This book defines patent aggregating companies and explores their strategies activities and their evolution over time as well as how producing companies can utilize them to leverage their patent portfolios Socio-Economic Development Adam Szirmai,2015-06-18 Taking a comparative and multidisciplinary approach this textbook offers a non technical introduction to the dynamics of socio economic development and stagnation
