Bowker and G. Iles Richard Rogers Bowker, 1891 Economic Crime Mark Button, Branislav Hock, David Shepherd, 2022-04-24

This book is the first attempt to establish economic crime as a new sub discipline within criminology Fraud corruption bribery money laundering price fixing cartels and intellectual property crimes pursued typically for financial and professional gain have devastating consequences for the prosperity of economic life While most police forces in the UK and the USA have an economic crime department and many European bodies such as Europol use the term and develop strategies and structures to deal with it it is yet to gain traction as a widely used term in the academic community Economic Crime From Conception to Response aims to change that and covers definitions of the key premises of economic crime as the academic sub discipline within criminology an overview of the key research on each of the crimes associated with economic crime public private and global responses to economic crime across its different forms and sectors of the economy both within the UK and globally This book is an essential resource for students academics and practitioners engaged with aspects of economic crime as well as the related areas of financial crime white collar crime and crimes of the powerful Reader's Guide to the Social Sciences Jonathan Michie,2014-02-03 This 2 volume work includes approximately 1 200 entries in A Z order critically reviewing the literature on specific topics from abortion to world systems theory In addition nine major entries cover each of the major disciplines political economy management and business human geography politics sociology law psychology organizational behavior and the history and development of the social sciences in a broader sense A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literature William Swan Sonnenschein,1896 EU Criminal Justice, Financial & Economic Crime Marc Cools,2011 This fifth volume of the Governance of Security GofS Research Paper series addresses a wide variety of topical issues focusing on European criminal justice and financial and economic crime The first cluster of articles is concerned with European criminal justice matters particularly relating to EU mutual recognition such as conceptualization unwanted effects in the context of prisoner transfer and sentence execution impact for cross border gathering and use of forensic expert evidence and interrogational fairness standards A second cluster of articles addresses the subjects of financial and economic crime ranging from informal economy among street children to formal informal economy vulnerability of the hotel and catering industry to crime and white collar crime phenomena like transnational environmental crime and corruption A final cluster groups together a variety of selected topical issues including juvenile offending and mental disorders desistance theories and sexually transmitted infections Re-reading Popular Culture Joke Hermes,2008-04-15 Re reading Popular Culture is an entertaining investigation of the meanings and value of popular culture today It explores the theme of cultural citizenship by combining textual analysis and media reception theory to analyze popular culture Includes such contemporary issues as the rewriting of masculinity after the success of feminism and the layers of meaning in semi public and private talk of multiculturalism and ethnicity Traces its topics across a variety of media forms and texts including sports detective fiction and police series and children's television and games Clearly and accessibly written for the student scholar and general reader Re-Reading Beccaria Antje du Bois-Pedain,Shachar Eldar,2022-10-06 Cesare Beccaria's slim 1764 volume On Crimes and Punishments influenced policy developments worldwide and over decades if not centuries after its publication For those who turn to Beccaria's work today the encounter is shaped by that knowledge Appreciative of On Crimes and Punishments dual nature as historical document and repository of ideas the contributions in this collection address different aspects of the criminal justice theory Beccaria offered his readers and face up to methodological questions raised by meeting a historical text of this kind unsystematic and by modern standards often under argued with modern scholarly conventions in mind Contributions in the first part of the book engage with Beccaria s political theory of criminal justice through the lenses of political and penal philosophy considering how Beccaria s blending of social contractarian foundations and proto utilitarian policy analysis interlinks with the concrete set of criminal justice practices Beccaria presents as justified This leads on to the second part where contributors approach Beccaria s ideas with present day reforms and developments in mind Many of his policy proposals and arguments remain significant from our contemporary perspective their limitations and omissions proving as instructive for the contemporary scholar as their more prescient elements The third part offers those looking at Beccaria s work today a glimpse into the practical difficulties facing the firebrand author turned public servant during his long career in the Habsburg Lombardian administration It puts his work into the broader context of pathways to criminal justice reform in northern Italy Habsburgian Lombardy and the Austro Hungarian Empire in Beccaria s day
