Fighting battles, winning wars Cosmas Mtsikwa, A battle is by far smaller than a war. In the same note, Bishop T. D. Jakes said, "Failing the battle doesn't mean you have failed the war." There are different types of situations we meet. Some are small, which we call battles. These battles need small weapons and less effort. At times, only declaring the word can get you out of a battle. Some battles are hot; they would need prayer and fasting. Some of what we might want to call battles are not battles but wars. These require almost all weapons in your warehouse; they need prayer and fasting. Some wars last for years and they need you to check where you went wrong daily. You would also need to check why you were defeated and/or why you lashed the enemy that day. Your greater goal will be to win the war at the end of the period. Your proficiency level will either prolong or shorten the period of your fight. The more proficient you are, the shorter the period of your war. This book thrives to hand over the right artillery to you by looking on how others who are in the Book of Books, who were in battles fought, defended, and pursued their enemy to gain victory. Read on; victory is lingering.

The Battle for the Mind Noel Jones, Georgianna A. Land, 2006. The Battle for the Mind takes a serious look at the constant raging war in your mind between powerful opposing forces. Are you willingly aiding and abetting the enemy through self-condemnation? Or are you renewing your mind through the Holy Spirit? And be not conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God. Romans 12:2. Authors Noel Jones and Georgianna Land present clear and deep revelation about overhauling your mind to accept the victory. Their theological and philosophical views provide insight into the enemy's tactics. They share vital Scripture and biblical principles to protect your mind from assaults, powerful attacks meant to pervert and enslave you. The Battle for the Mind explores the mind of Christ Jesus, the Spirit of God, and the power of praise to conquer the enemy and win the battle.
