Dept. of Justice, America's New Racial Battle Lines Rogers M. Smith, Desmond King, 2024-05-02 What is happening to the politics of race in America In America's New Racial Battle Lines Protect versus Repair Rogers Smith and Desmond King argue that the nation has entered a new more severely polarized era of racial policy disputes displacing older debates over color blind versus race targeted measures Drawing on primary sources interviews and studies of federal state and local initiatives linked to global developments the authors map the memberships and the goals of two rival racial policy alliances comprised of grassroots activists NGOs government agencies and wealthy funders on both sides Today s conservatives promise to protect traditionalist Americans against assaults from what they see as a radical American Left

Today s progressives seek to repair all American institutions and practices that embody systemic racism Though these sides have some common ground they advance sharply opposed visions of America that threaten to make profound racial policy conflicts sometimes erupting into violence all too pervasive in the nation s present and future
