Figures Of Reality A Perspective On The Poetic Imagination:

Figures of Reality Roger Cardinal, 1981      Windows to the World: Literature in Christian Perspective Leland Ryken, 2000-04-10 This is a teacher's book written by an able teacher. Most people are interested in literature because of a deep love for literature itself. They want to understand the reasons for that love. Ryken helps us do this but he also helps Christians understand and validate their love for literature. Ryken has also provided a solid means for non-Christians to understand a Christian perspective on literature. It Windows to the World comes closer to defining the goal and task of the teacher of literature than any work I have read. Christianity and Literature      France at War in the Twentieth Century Valerie Holman, Debra Kelly, 2000 France experienced four major conflicts in the fifty years between 1914 and 1964 two world wars and the wars in Indochina and Algeria. In each the role of myth was intricately bound up with memory, hope, belief and ideas of nation. This is the first book to explore how individual myths were created, sustained and used for purposes of propaganda, examining in detail not just the press, radio, photographs, posters, films and songs that gave credence to an imagined event or attributed mythical status to an individual but also the cultural processes by which such artifacts were disseminated and took effect. Reliance on myth so the authors argue is shown to be one of the most significant and durable features of 20th century warfare propaganda used by both sides in all the conflicts covered in this book. However its effective and useful role in time of war notwithstanding it does distort a population's perception of reality and therefore often results in defeat. The myth making that began as a means of sustaining belief in France's supremacy and later her will and ability to resist ultimately proved counterproductive in the process of decolonization.      Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake, 2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing. Dr Ceia's foreword sets out with absolute clarity the objectives and scope of his study in which he will examine the way that poetic imagination is treated by Sophia de Mello Breyner Andresen, arguably Portugal's greatest living poet as well as by other major writers of the Western and Eastern traditions. This cluster of comparative essays opens up new critical and cultural vistas as much for the English speaking reader as the Portuguese scholar The author's foreword sets out with absolute clarity the objectives and scope of his study in which he will examine the way that poetic imagination is treated by Sophia de Mello Breyner Andresen arguably Portugal's greatest living poet as well as by other major writers of the Western and Eastern traditions In chapter one basing himself on the theories of Freud and Jung and taking his examples from a wide ranging if not eclectic selection of writers Ted Hughes Robert Graves and Seamus Heaney among others Dr Ceia breaks new ground in his quest to explore the ways in which his subjects h

Myth in the Modern Novel Liisa Steinby, 2023-03-20 Myth in the Modern Novel Imagining the Absolute posits a twofold thesis First although Modernity is regarded as an era dominated by science and rational thought it has in fact not relinquished the hold of myth a more primitive form of thought which is difficult to reconcile with modern rationality Second some of the most important statements as to the reconcilability of myth and Modernity are found in the work of certain prominent novelists This book offers a close examination of the work of eleven writers from the late eighteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first representing German French American Czech and Swedish literature The analyses of individual novels reveal a variety of intriguing views of myth in Modernity and offer an insight into the modernizing transformations myth has undergone when applied in the modern novel The study shows the presence of the subconscious the mythic layer in modern western culture and how this has been dealt with in novelistic literature      Krishna Sobti's Views on Literature and the Poetics of Writing Rosine-Alice Vuille,2022-10-03

How does a writer discuss her creative process and her views on a writer's role in society How do her comments on writing relate to her works The Hindi writer Krishna Sobti 1925-2019 is known primarily as a novelist However she also extensively wrote about her views on the creative process the figure of the writer historical writing and the position of writers within the public sphere This study is the first to examine in detail the relationship between Sobti's views on poetics as exposed in her non-fictional texts and her own literary practice The writer's self-representation is analysed through her use of metaphors to explain her creative process Sobti's construction of the figure of the writer is then put in parallel with her idiosyncratic use of language as a representation of the heterogeneous voices of her characters and with her conception of literature as a space where time and memory can be held At the same time by delving into Sobti's position in the debate around women's writing especially through the creation of a male double the failed writer Hashmat and into her views on literature and politics this book also reflects on the literary debates of the post-Independence Hindi literary sphere      Heresy and Heterotopia in Works by Lawrence Durrell Anne R. Zahlan, Isabelle Keller-Privat,2025-03-15

Heresy and Heterotopia in Works by Lawrence Durrell Alexandria to Angkor Wat gathers new essays by international scholars who examine heretical concepts and heterotopian counter-spaces in Durrell's thought and writing The volume includes studies of texts set in locations from the Mediterranean to Cambodia with spatial focus ranging from the Egypt of The Alexandria Quartet and of Anatole France's Thais to the scattered locations of The Avignon Quintet with stops along the way for the island books and other treatments of wandering and exile in poetry as well as prose The contributors approach Durrell's texts from a variety of perspectives philosophical and intertextual architectural and historical mystical and digital In so doing they expose the deeper echoes set off by his wide-ranging literary production and map out the metaphysical literary and aesthetic connections that account for Durrell's impact on our understanding of those twentieth-century social and cultural paradigms that foreshadow the disruptions of today's world      Cultural Critique and Abstraction Elisabeth W. Joyce,1998

This study of Marianne Moore and the visual arts focuses on how art productions serve to break down and re-create cultural practice proving that culture is a mutable organism reluctant to change but not impervious to it In doing so author Elisabeth W. Joyce shows that even though Moore may have restricted herself to the quiet provincial life of Brooklyn her poetry attests to her resistance to the constrictions imposed by the predominating bourgeoisie This study presents the bifurcation between modernism and the avant-garde where while the modernists retreated from engagement in society the avant-gardistes remained focused on political and social issues in order to critique stifling cultural phenomena so that art could effect cultural changes In taking this stance instead of viewing Moore's poetry as typically and provincially American Joyce places her in the international and radical art movements of the early twentieth century      The Essential Classics: A Compendium of Timeless Literary

Between Muslims J. Andrew Bush, 2020-09-01 Within the broad contours of Islamic traditions Muslims are enjoined to fast during the month of Ramadan they are invited to a disciplined practice of prayer and they are offered the Quran as the divine revelation in the most beautiful verbal form But what happens if Muslims choose not to fast or give up prayer or if the Quran s beauty seems inaccessible When Muslims do not take up the path of piety what happens to their relationships with more devout Muslims who are neighbors friends and kin Between Muslims provides an ethnographic account of Iraqi Kurdish Muslims who turn away from devotional piety yet remain intimately engaged with Islamic traditions and with other Muslims Andrew Bush offers a new way to understand religious difference in Islam rejecting simple stereotypes about ethnic or sectarian identities Integrating textual analysis of poetry sermons and Islamic history into accounts of everyday life in Iraqi Kurdistan Between Muslims illuminates the interplay of attraction and aversion to Islam among ordinary Muslims
