Figures Cut In Sacred Ground Illuminati In The Double Hook:

Figures Cut in Sacred Ground Angela May Bowering, 1988 Unsettled Remains Cynthia Sugars, Gerry Turcotte, 2010-08-27 Unsettled Remains Canadian Literature and the Postcolonial Gothic examines how Canadian writers have combined a postcolonial awareness with gothic metaphors of monstrosity and haunting in their response to Canadian history The essays gathered here range from treatments of early postcolonial gothic expression in Canadian literature to attempts to define a Canadian postcolonial gothic mode Many of these texts wrestle with Canada's colonial past and with the voices and histories that were repressed in the push for national consolidation but emerge now as uncanny reminders of that contentious history The haunting effect can be unsettling and enabling at the same time In recent years many Canadian authors have turned to the gothic to challenge dominant literary political and social narratives In Canadian literature the postcolonial gothic has been put to multiple uses above all to figure experiences of ambivalence that have emerged from a colonial context and persisted into the present As these essays demonstrate formulations of a Canadian postcolonial gothic differ radically from one another depending on the social and cultural positioning of who is positing it Given the preponderance in colonial discourse of accounts that demonize otherness it is not surprising that many minority writers have avoided gothic metaphors In recent years however minority authors have shown an interest in the gothic signalling an emerging critical discourse This spectral turn sees minority writers reversing long standing characterizations of their identity as monstrous or invisible in order to show their connections to and disconnection from stories of the nation Illuminati in The Double Hook Angela May Bowering, 1982 DisPossession Marlene Goldman, 2012 An exploration into the darker aspects of contemporary Canadian fiction The Astonishment Tapes Robin Blaser, 2015-10-31 The Astonishment Tapes is the edited transcript of revealing autobiographical audiotapes recorded by the groundbreaking poet Robin Blaser a founding member of the Berkeley contingent of the San Francisco Renaissance in New American Poetry Adjacencies Domenic A. Beneventi, Licia Canton, Lianne Moyes, 2004 This collection of essays provides a forum in which Canadian ethnicity and literature are explored from a broad range of perspectives It reveals the many ways in which minority writers not only create a sense of community and ethnic specificity but also open avenues of discourse to adjacent communities Illuminati in The Double Hook Angela May Bowering, 1982 Coyote Country Arnold E. Davidson, 1994 For most North Americans Canadians as well as Americans the term Western evokes images of the frontier brave sheriffs and ruthless outlaws good cowboys and bad Indians As Arnold E Davidson shows in this groundbreaking study a number of Canada's most interesting and experimental Western writers parody reverse or otherwise defuse the paraphernalia of the classic U S Western Lacking both a real and imagined frontier Canadian settlers rode trains into the new territory already policed by Mounties the writers of Canadian Westerns were set a different task from their American counterparts and were subsequently freed to create some of the most complex and engrossing fiction yet produced in Canada Davidson details the evolution of the U S and Canadian Western forms tracing the divergence between the two as Canadian writers responded to their unique historical circumstances by reinventing the West as well as the Western and establishing a new literary landscape where author and reader could work out new possibilities of being Surveying a range of texts by Canada s most innovative writers with special attention to women writers and Native stories of Coyote he provides close readings of novels by Howard O Hagan Sheila Watson Robert Kroetsch Aritha van Herk Anne Cameron Peter Such W O Mitchell Beatrice Culleton and Thomas King A unique study Coyote Country offers at one and the same time a theory of Canadian Western fiction a history of crosscultural paradigms of the West as manifested in novels and an intensive reading of some of Canada s best literature

New World Myth Marie Vautier,1998-01-06 There is an emphasis on de constructing de centring de stabilizing and especially de mythologizing in the study that illustrates New World myth narrators questioning the past in the present and carrying out their original investigations of myth place and identity Underlining the fact that political realities are encoded in the language and narrative of the works Vautier argues that the reworkings of literary religious and historical myths and political ideologies in these novels are grounded in their shared situation of being in and of the New World

Counterblasting Canada Gregory Betts,Paul Hjartarson,Kristine Smitka,2016-07-07 In 1914 Wyndham Lewis and Ezra Pound the founders of vorticism undertook an unprecedented analysis of the present its technologies communication politics and architecture The essays in Counterblasting Canada trace the influence of vorticism on Marshall McLuhan and Canadian Modernism Building on the initial accomplishment of the magazine Blast McLuhan s subsequent Counterblast and the network of artistic and intellectual relationships that flourished in Canadian vorticism the contributors offer groundbreaking examinations of postwar Canadian literary culture particularly the legacies of Sheila and Wilfred Watson Intended primarily for scholars of literature and communications Counterblasting Canada explores a crucial and long overlooked strand in Canadian cultural and literary history Contributors Gregory Betts Adam Hammond Paul Hjartarson Dean Irvine Elena Lamberti Philip Monk Linda M Morra Kristine Smitka Leon Surette Paul Tiessen Adam Welch Darren Wershler

Avant-garde Canadian Literature Gregory Brian Betts,2013-01-01 In Avant Garde Canadian Literature Gregory Betts draws attention to the fact that the avant garde has had a presence in Canada long before the country s literary histories have recognized and that the radicalism of avant garde art has been sabotaged by pedestrian terms of engagement by the Canadian media the public and the literary critics This book presents a rich body of evidence to illustrate the extent to which Canadians have been producing avant garde art since the start of the twentieth century Betts explores the radical literary ambitions and achievements of three different nodes of avant garde literary activity mystical revolutionaries from the 1910s to the 1930s Surrealists Automatists from the 1920s to the 1960s and Canadian Vorticists from the 1920s to the 1970s Avant Garde Canadian Literature offers an entrance into the vocabulary of the ongoing and primarily international debate surrounding the idea of avant gardism providing readers with a functional vocabulary for discussing some of the most
