The Global Rise of Authoritarianism in the 21st Century Berch Berberoglu, 2020-09-22

Neoliberal globalization is in deep crisis. This crisis is manifested on a global scale and embodies a number of fundamental contradictions, a central one of which is the global rise of authoritarianism and fascism. This emergent form of authoritarianism is a right wing reaction to the problems generated by globalization, supported and funded by some of the largest and most powerful corporations in their assault against social movements on the left to prevent the emergence of socialism against global capitalism. As the crisis of neoliberal global capitalism unfolds and as we move to the brink of another economic crisis and the threat of war, global capitalism is once again resorting to authoritarianism and fascism to maintain its power. This book addresses this vital question in comparative historical perspective and provides a series of case studies around the world that serve as a warning against the impending rise of fascism in the 21st century.

Marketing Dreams, Manufacturing Heroes Anna Romina Guevarra, 2009-09-30 In a globalized economy that is heavily sustained by the labor of immigrants, why are certain nations defined as ideal labor resources and why do certain groups dominate a particular labor force? The Philippines has emerged as a lucrative source of labor for countries around the world. In Marketing Dreams, Manufacturing Heroes, Anna Romina Guevarra focuses on the Philippines, which views itself as the home of the great Filipino worker and the multilevel brokering process that manages and sends workers worldwide. She unravels the transnational production of Filipinos as ideal migrant workers by the state and explores how race, color, class, and gender operate. The experience of Filipino nurses and domestic workers, two of the country's prized exports, is at the core of the research, which utilizes interviews with employees at labor brokering agencies, state officials from governmental organizations in the Philippines, and nurses working in the United States. Guevarra's multisited ethnography reveals the disciplinary power that state and employment agencies exercise over care workers managing migration and garnering wages to govern social conduct and brings this isolated yet widespread social problem to life.

Liberation Theology in the Philippines Kathleen Nadeau, 2001-10-30 Liberation Theology in the Philippines: Faith in a Revolution studies the interrelationship of international development policies and local social and economic structures in the Philippines. This ethnography demonstrates that the application of conventional development paradigms to the situation overlooks the human suffering and displacement experienced by the people for whom the policies are supposed to help. By contrast, the Basic Ecclesial Community (BEC) movement offers an alternative strategy for development that aims to build a more just and community-oriented society while promoting sustainable development. The study begins with an historical analysis of the relationship between liberation theology, the Catholic Church, and the nationalist struggle. The remaining chapters look at the real experiences of people living and working in the BECs as they struggle against some of the negative impacts of traditional approaches to development. In addition, the author illustrates how BECs can fail when environmental and social factors clash with a community's attempts at development and highlights the theology and religious aspects of the BEC movement. This unique contribution to the study of liberation theology and development will be of interest to scholars students and professionals working with development agencies and religious organizations The History of the Philippines Kathleen

Borras,2007-09-06 Using empirical case materials from the Philippines and referring to rich experiences from different countries historically this book offers conceptual and practical conclusions that have far reaching implications for land reform throughout the world Examining land reform theory and practice this book argues that conventional practices have excluded a significant portion of land based production and distribution relationships while they have inadvertently included land transfers that do not constitute real redistributive reform By direct implication this book is a critique of both mainstream market led agrarian reform and conventional state led land reform It offers an alternative perspective on how to move forward in theory and practice and opens new paths in land policy research Women's Movements and the Filipina ROCES, MARIA NATIVIDAD,2012-02-29 This book is about a fundamental aspect of the feminist project in the Philippines rethinking the Filipino woman It focuses on how contemporary women s organizations have represented and refashioned the Filipina in their campaigns to improve women s status by locating her in history society and politics imagining her past present and future representing her in advocacy and identifying strategies to transform her The drive to alter the situation of women included a political aspect lobbying and changing legislation and a cultural one modifying social attitudes and women s own assessments of themselves In this work Mina Roces examines the cultural side of the feminist agenda how activists have critiqued Filipino womanhood and engaged in fashioning an alternative woman How did activists theorize the Filipina and how did they use this analysis to lobby for pro women s legislation or alter social attitudes What sort of Filipina role models did women s organizations propose and how were these new ideas disseminated to the general public What cultural strategies did activists deploy in order to gain a mass following Analyzing data from over seventy five interviews with feminist activists radio and television shows romance novels periodicals and books published by women s organizations and feminist nuns comics newsletters and personal papers Roces shows how representations of the Filipino woman have been central to debates about women s empowerment She explores the transnational character of women's activism and offers a seminal study on the important contributions of feminist Catholic nuns. Women's Movements and the Filipina provides an original and passionate account of the contemporary feminist movement in the Philippines bringing to light how women's organizations have initiated change in cultural attitudes and had a significant impact on contemporary Philippine society. Everyday Politics in the Philippines Benedict J. Kerkvliet, 2002 Focusing on a rice farming village in central Luzon Kerkvliet argues that the faction and patron-client relationships dealt with by conventional studies are only one part of Philippine political life.
