Filippo Lippi 14061469

Esther Singleton

Filippo Lippi 14061469:

The Codex of the Anonimo Magliabechiano Bouk Wierda, Lotte van ter Toolen, Henk Th. van Veen, 2024-06-24 This book offers a new edition of one of the most important art historical sources on Italian art. Written not long before Vasari's famous Lives 1550, this source provides an overview of art from Cimabue to Michelangelo. Moreover, the author's ambition was to provide a sketch of the art of classical antiquity. First published in the late nineteenth century, the Codex has led to numerous questions, the main one being who was its author. We believe we have found the answer to this question, which led us to come up with a new edition of the Codex. The Portrait in the Renaissance John Pope-Hennessy, 2023-10-17 A major account of Renaissance portraiture by one of the twentieth century's most eminent art historians. In this book, John Pope-Hennessy provides an unprecedented look at two centuries of experiment in portraiture during the Renaissance. Pope-Hennessy shows how the Renaissance cult of individuality brought with it a demand that the features of the individual be perpetuated, a concept first manifested in the portraits that fill the great Florentine fresco cycles and led later in the fifteenth century to the creation of the independent portrait by such artists as Sandro Botticelli, Antonio del Pollaiuolo, Giovanni Bellini, and Antonello da Messina. Pope-Hennessy goes on to describe the process by which Titian and the great artists of the High Renaissance transformed the portrait from a record of appearance into an analysis of character. The Renaissance in Italian Art ... Selwyn Brinton, 1909 The Medici at Florence Selwyn Brinton, 1908 The Art Journal, 1896 Antwerp Royal Museum Annual 12013-2014 Paul Vandenbroeck, 2016-12-28 At various points over the course of the 20th century, the Belgian State and its various ministries and provinces consciously chose to subsidise not only the fine arts but also the applied and decorative arts, and in particular the art of weaving tapestry. On the one hand, orders were placed for World Exhibitions and for Belgian embassies, and on the other, competitions were held for tapestries to be hung in important locations such as the United Nations and NATO headquarters, and the exhibitions that were organized by the various ministries over the years. They provided an overview of the ways in which this branch of the arts was changing as well as representative work by the best tapestry designers. The exhibitions organized by the provincial authorities give quite a different image. There were the highly conventional exhibitions of Brabantine tapestries to promote the craftsmanship of the province, and there were the more innovative textile exhibitions. Taken as a whole, the commissions, competitions, and exhibitions give a good overview of what was happening in Belgium in the field of tapestry over the period 1945-1980. They also make it clear what image was being projected abroad, that of a country with rich traditions, master craftsmanship in weaving, and in the 1970s, some affiliation to the latest developments in European textile art.
